The Christmas Search:

The Great Santa Search Jeff Guinn, 2007-10-18 This follow up to Jeff Guinn's bestselling holiday favorites The Autobiography of Santa Claus and How Mrs Claus Saved Christmas takes readers on a sleigh ride through the history of Christmas in America that lands smack dab in 2006 as a new reality TV show threatens to destroy the true spirit of Christmas. This third installment in Jeff Guinn's bestselling Christmas Chronicles series finds Santa facing perhaps the biggest challenge of his career. As Santa himself relates in this delightful holiday read the trouble began in 1841 when a Philadelphia merchant named J W Parkinson hired a neighbor to dress as Kris Kringle in order to lure shoppers into his dry goods store. Much to Santa's chagrin it's been pretty much downhill since. It seems everybody wants a piece of Christmas and through the years it has gotten worse to the point that not a Christmas can go by without phony Santas posing on street corners across the country. But when in 2006 it's announced that a new reality TV show called The Great Santa Search will feature a competition to find the real St Nicholas Santa knows it's time to step in. With all the rich historical detail and glorious Christmas cheer that made The Autobiography of Santa Claus and How Mrs Claus Saved Christmas treasured family favorites The Great Santa Search is destined to become yet another Christmas classic from Jeff Guinn. Judith Tick, Professor of Music, Northeastern University, 1997-08-18 Ruth Crawford Seeger 1901-1953 is frequently considered the most significant American female composer in this century. Joining Aaron Copland and Henry Cowell as a key member of the 1920s musical avant garde, she went on to study with modernist theorist and future husband Charles Seeger, writing her masterpiece String Quartet 1931.

not long after But her legacy extends far beyond the cutting edge of modern music Collaborating with poet Carl Sandburg on folk song arrangements in the twenties and with the famous folk song collectors John and Alan Lomax in the 1930s she emerged as a central figure in the American folk music revival issuing several important books of transcriptions and arrangements and pioneering the use of American folk songs in children s music education Radicalized by the Depression she spent much of the ensuing two decades working aggressively for social change with her husband and stepson the folksinger Pete Seeger This engrossing new biography emphasizes the choices Crawford Seeger made in her roles as composer activist teacher wife and mother The first woman to win a Guggenheim Foundation Fellowship in music composition Crawford Seeger nearly gave up writing music as the demands of family politics and the folk song movement intervened It was only at the very end of her life with cancer sapping her strength that she returned to composing Written with unique insight and compassion this book offers the definitive treatment of a fascinating twentieth century figure In Search of my Sun:

Volume I. The Years of Innocence Christopher Prince, 2024-05-23 The story of a child growing up in the 1970 s in a modest family of rural France with a very authoritarian mother who abuses him morally and physically and an absent father As a teenager when his parents move to Paris and divorce in the 1980 s his life turns into a nightmare as he is violently abused by his stepfather But he shows considerable resilience and pursues his dreams to move to America and Australia

A Search for the Motherline Katherine Dickson, 2009 In A Search for the Motherline the narrator an at home mother of three young children deals with the problems of life in a development from 1974 to 1975 While her husband copes with the problems of a modern dental practice the narrator deals with house and children She faces the trauma of coping with a difficult middle child an unplanned pregnancy and the husband pressuring her to find a job She searches for balance between the demands of children and husband and her own interests as a person She looks forward to a future of writing a return to her career in librarianship and the opportunity of training as a Jungian analyst The setbacks in her life are more than compensated for by the happiness she finds seeing her three healthy beautiful children develop and begin school
