The Commentators Despair The Interpretation Of Kafkas Metamorphosis:

The Commentators' Despair Stanley Corngold,1973 Franz Kafka's the Metamorphosis Sterling Professor of Humanities Harold Bloom,2009 Presents a collection of critical essays about Kafka s The metamorphosis The Myth of Power and the Self Walter Herbert Sokel,2002 The Myth of Power and the Self brings together Walter Sokel s most significant essays on Kafka written over a period of thirty one years 1966 1997 Franz Kafka 1883 1924 has come to be one of the most influential writers of the twentieth century The Myth of Power and the Self brings together Walter Sokel s most significant essays on Kafka written over a period of thirty one years 1966 1997 This volume begins with a discussion of Sokel s 1966 pamphlet on Kafka and a summary of his 1964 book Tragik und Ironie Tragedy and Irony which has never been translated into English and includes several essays published in English for the first time Sokel places Kafka s writings in a very large cultural context by fusing Freudian and Expressionist perspectives and incorporating more theoretical approaches linguistic theory Gnosticism and aspects of Derrida into his synthesis This superb collection of essays by one of the most qualified Kafka scholars today will bring new understanding to Kafka s work and will be of interest to literary critics intellectual historians and students and scholars of German literature and Kafka Metamorphosis David Gallagher,2009 The origins of selected instances of metamorphosis in Germanic literature are traced from their roots in Ovid s Metamorphoses grouped roughly on an ascending evolutionary scale invertebrates birds animals and mermaids Whilst a broad range of mythological legendary fairytale and folktale traditions have played an appreciable part Ovid s Metamorphoses is still an important comparative analysis and reference point for nineteenth and twentieth century German language narratives of transformations Metamorphosis is most often used as an index of crisis an existential crisis of the subject or a crisis in a society s moral social or cultural values Specifically selected texts for analysis include Jeremias Gotthelf s Die schwarze Spinne 1842 with the terrifying metamorphoses of Christine into a black spider the metamorphosis of Gregor Samsa in Kafka s Die Verwandlung 1915 ambiguous metamorphoses in E T A Hoffmann s Der goldne Topf 1814 Hermann Hesse s Piktors Verwandlungen 1925 Der Steppenwolf 1927 and Christoph Ransmayr s Die letzte Welt 1988 Other mythical metamorphoses are examined in texts by Bachmann Fouqu Fontane Goethe Nietzsche Nelly Sachs Thomas Mann and Wagner and these and many others confirm that metamorphosis is used historically scientifically for religious purposes to highlight identity sexuality a dream state or for metaphoric metonymic or allegorical reasons Franz Kafka (1883-1983) Roman Struc,John Yardley,2010-10-30 The eight papers in this volume were originally presented at the centennial conference on Franz Kafka held at the University of Calgary in October 1983 As diverse in approach and methodology as these papers are the general drift of the volume is away from Germanistik towards state of the art methods The opening articles by Charles Bernheimer and James Rolleston both deal with the similarities and contrasts between Kafka and Flaubert with Bernheimer focusing on the I and the dilemma of narration in Kafka s early story Wedding Preparation in the Country and Rolleston on the time dimensions in the Kafka's work that link him to the Romantics Other articles in the volume deal with the complex interrelationships between author and narrator and implied author and implied reader with Kafka's place in the European fable tradition and in classic and Romantic religious traditions with Kafka's diaries and with his female protagonists

The Metamorphosis and Other Stories Franz Kafka, Joyce Crick, 2009-07-09 When Gregor Samsa woke one morning from uneasy dreams he found himself transformed into some kind of monstrous vermin With a bewildering blend of the everyday and the fantastical Kafka thus begins his most famous short story The Metamorphosis A commercial traveller is unexpectedly freed from his dreary job by his inexplicable transformation into an insect which drastically alters his relationship with his family Kafka considered publishing it with two of the stories included here in a volume to be called Punishments The Judgement also concerns family tensions when a power struggle between father and son ends with the father passing an enigmatic judgement on the helpless son The third story In the Penal Colony explores questions of power justice punishment and the meaning of pain in a colonial setting These three stories are flanked by two very different works Meditation the first book Kafka published consists of light whimsical often poignant mood pictures while in the autobiographical Letter to his Father Kafka analyses his difficult relationship in forensic and devastating detail in art in literature and as an aesthetic category is the product of the decline of classicism and the rise of realism But the story of the detail is as political as it is aesthetic Secularization the disciplining of society the rise of consumerism the invention of the quotidian have all brought detail to the fore In this classic work of aesthetic and feminist theory now available in a new paperback edition Schor provides ways of thinking about details and ornament in literature art and architecture and uncovering the unspoken but powerful ideologies that attached gender to details Wide ranging and richly argued Reading in Detail presents ideas about reading and viewing that will enhance the study of literature and the arts

Kill Boxes: Facing the Legacy of US-Sponsored Torture, Indefinite Detention, and Drone Warfare Richard Falk, Elisabeth Weber, 2017

Kill Boxes addresses the legacy of US sponsored torture indefinite detention and drone warfare by deciphering the shocks of recognition that humanistic and artistic responses to violence bring to consciousness if readers and viewers have eyes to face them Beginning with an analysis of the ways in which the hooded man from Abu Ghraib became iconic subsequent chapters take up less culturally visible scenes of massive violations of human rights to bring us face to face with these shocks and the forms of recognition that they enable and disavow We are addressed in the photo of the hooded man all the more so as he was brutally prevented in our name from returning the camera s and thus our gaze We are addressed in the screams that turn a person tortured in our name into howling flesh We are addressed in poems written in the Guant namo Prison camp however much American authorities try to censor them in our name We are addressed by the victims of the US drone wars however little American citizens may have heard the names of the places obliterated by the bombs for which their taxes pay And we know that we are addressed in spite of a number of strategies of brutal refusal of heeding those calls Providing intensive readings of philosophical texts by Jean Am ry Jacques Derrida and Christian Thomasius with poetic texts by Franz Kafka Paul Muldoon and the poet detainees of Guant namo Bay Prison Camp and with artistic creations by Sallah Edine Sallat the American artist collective Forkscrew and an international artist collective from Pakistan France and the US Kill Boxes demonstrates the complexity of humanistic responses to crimes committed in the name of national security The conscious or unconscious knowledge that we are addressed by the victims of these crimes is a critical factor in discussions on torture on indefinite detention without trial as practiced in Guant namo and in debates on the strategies to circumvent the latter altogether as practiced in drone warfare and its extrajudicial assassination program The volume concludes with an Afterword by Richard Falk

A Companion to the Works of Heinrich Von Kleist Bernd Fischer, 2003 For over 150 years Heinrich von Kleist 1777 1811 has been one of the most widely read and performed German authors His status in the literary canon is firmly established but he has always been one of Germany s most contentiously discussed authors Today s critical debate on his unique prose narratives and dramas is as heated as ever Many critics regard Kleist as a lone presager of the aesthetics and philosophies of late nineteenth and early twentieth century modernism Yet there can be no question that he responds in his works and letters to the philosophical aesthetic and political debates of his time During the last thirty years the scholarship on Kleist's work and life has departed from the existentialist wave of the 1950s and early 1960s and opened up new avenues for coming to terms with his unusual talent. The present volume brings together the most important and innovative of these newer scholarly approaches; the essays include critically informed up-to-date interpretations of Kleist's most discussed stories and dramas. Other contributions analyze Kleist's literary means and styles and their theoretical underpinnings. They include articles on Kleist's narrative and theatrical technique, poetic and aesthetic theory, philosophical and political thought, and insights from new biographical research. Contributors: Jeffrey L. Sammons, Jost Hermand, Anthony Stephens, Bianca Theisen, Hinrich C. Seeba, Bernhard Greiner, Helmut J. Schneider, Tim Mehigan, Susanne Zantop, Hilda M. Brown, and Sean Allan Bernd Fischer. Fischer is Professor of German and Head of the Department of German at Ohio State University.

Labyrinths of the Mind Daniel R. White, Gert Hellerich, 1998-04-30 Applies postmodern theory to the working assumptions and consequent practices of therapy in various disciplines from clinical psychology to schooling Epidemics and Genocide in Eastern Europe, 1890-1945 Paul Weindling, 2000 How did typhus come to be viewed as a Jewish disease and what was the connection between the anti-typhus measures during the First World War and the Nazi gas chambers and other genocidal medical practices in the Second World War? This powerful book provides valuable new insight into the history of German medicine in its reaction to the international fight against typhus and the perceived threat of epidemics from the East in the early part of this century. Paul Weindling examines how German bacteriology became increasingly racialized and how it sought to eradicate the disease by the eradication of the perceived carriers. Delousing became a key feature of Nazi preventive medicine during the Holocaust and gassing a favored means of eliminating typhus From Kafka to Sebald Sabine Wilke, 2012-06-21 This volume is a response to a renewed interest in narrative form in contemporary literary studies, taking up the question of literary narratives and their encounters with modernism and postmodernism within the German language milieu. Original essays written by scholars of German and Comparative Literature approach the issue of narrative form anew, analyzing the ways in which modernist and postmodernist German language narratives frame and/or deconstruct historical narratives. Beginning with the German language modernist author par excellence Franz Kafka, the volume's essays explore the unique perspective on historical change offered by literature. The authors: Kafka, Kappacher, Goll, Bernhard Menasse, and Wolf, among others, and works interpreted in the essays included here span the period from before World War I to the post-Holocaust/post-Wall present. Individual essays focus on modernism, postmodernism, narrative theory, and autobiography.
