Social Identities Across the Life Course Jenny Hockey, Allison James, 2003-01-18 This body of interdisciplinary material relating to the life course as a whole will provide undergraduates with new theoretical perspectives on this fascinating subject

BOOK JACKET

Transitions and the Lifecourse Amanda Grenier, 2012-01-31 Transitions and the life course Challenging the constructions of growing old explores and challenges dominant interpretations of transitions as they relate to ageing and the life course It takes a unique perspective that draws together ideas about late life as expressed in social policy and socio cultural constructs of age with lived experience The book is aimed at academics and students interested in social gerontology policy studies in health and social care and older people s accounts of experience

Researching the Lifecourse Nancy Worth, Irene Hardill, 2016-06-01 The lifecourse perspective continues to be an important subject in the social sciences Researching the Lifecourse offers a distinctive approach in that it truly covers the lifecourse childhood adulthood and older age focusing on innovative methods and case study examples from a variety of European and North American contexts This original approach connects theory and practice from across the social sciences by situating methodology and research design within relevant conceptual frameworks This diverse collection features methods that are linked to questions of time space and mobilities while providing practitioners with practical detail in each chapter

Understanding the Life Course Lorraine Green, 2016-12-20 Understanding the Life Course provides a uniquely comprehensive guide to the entire life course from an interdisciplinary perspective Combining important insights from sociology and psychology the book presents the concepts theoretical underpinnings in an accessible style supported by real life examples From birth and becoming a parent to death and grieving for the loss of others Lorraine Green explores all stages of the life course through key research studies and theories in conjunction with issues of social inequality and critical examination of lay viewpoints She highlights the many ways the life course can be interpreted including themes of linearity and multidirectionality continuity and discontinuity and the interplay between nature and nurture The second edition updates key data and includes additional material on topics such as new technologies changing markers of transitions to adulthood active ageing resilience and neuropsychology This comprehensive approach will continue to be essential reading for students on vocational programmes such as social work and nursing and will provide thought provoking insight into the wider contexts of the life course for students of psychology and sociology

Thinking about the Lifecourse Elizabeth Frost, Stuart

McClean,2013-11-25 How we change over time who we love what work we do how we die is shaped both by internal and external influences This book explores the important subject of human growth and development by combining the social context of how people live with their personal ways of thinking and being The result is a greater understanding of why people are who they are Taking a psychosocial approach to exploring human growth and development this book Provides an insightful exploration of the human life course by looking at significant life stages and key themes such as parenting ill health and violence Draws on both contemporary and classic research in the fields of psychology and sociology to deliver an in depth analysis of issues about self and society Moves beyond traditional limiting approaches to understanding people s lives toward an interdisciplinary psychosocial approach Whether you are studying on a Social Work Nursing or related Health or Social Care degree or taking a course in the newly emerging field of Psychosocial Studies this book is a clear and ground breaking contribution to the understanding of human growth and development Advances in Group Processes Edward J.

Thye,2020-10-20 Volume 37 brings together papers related to a variety of topics in small groups and organizational research The volume includes papers that address theoretical and empirical issues related to consumer social privilege group processes and disrupted environments the use of time as a construct and the affective bases of self

Encyclopedia of Anthropology H. James Bix,2006 Focuses on physical social and applied anthropology archaeology linguistics and symbolic communication Topics include hominid evolution primate behaviour genetics ancient civilizations cross cultural studies and social theories The Futures of Old Age John A Vincent,Chris Phillipson,Murna

Downs,2006-06-02 What is the future of old age How will families services and economies adapt to an older population Such questions often provoke extreme and opposing answers some see ageing populations as having the potential to undermine economic growth and prosperity others see new and exciting ways of living in old age The Futures of Old Age places these questions in the context of social and political change and assesses what the various futures of old age might be Prepared by the British Society of Gerontology The Futures of Old Age brings together a team of leading international gerontologists from the United Kingdom and United States drawing on their expertise and research The book s seven sections deal with key contemporary themes including population ageing households and families health wealth pensions migration inequalities gender and self and identity in later life Aging and the Art of Living Jan Baars,2012-08-20 In this deeply considered meditation on aging in Western culture Jan Baars argues that in today s world living longer does not necessarily mean living better He contends that there has been an overall loss of respect for aging to the point that understanding and dealing with aging people has become a process focused on the decline of potential and the advance of disease rather than on the accumulation of wisdom and the creation of new skills To make his case Baars compares and contrasts the works of such modern era thinkers as Foucault Heidegger and Husserl with the thought of Plato Aristotle Sophocles Cicero and other Ancient and Stoic philosophers He shows how people in the classical period less able to control health hazards had a far better sense of the provisional nature of living which led to a philosophical and religious emphasis on cultivating the art of living and the idea of wisdom This is not to say that modern society's assessments of aging are insignificant but they do need to balance an emphasis on the measuring of age with the concept of living in time Gerontologists philosophers and students will find Baars discussion to be a powerful perceptive conversation starter W Andrew Achenbaum author of Older Americans Vital Communities

Menopause in Iranian Muslim Women Elham Amini,2023-11-29 This book offers an original empirical study into the gendered and sexual experiences of Iranian Muslim women going through menopause Using a biographical lifecourse lens it explores the processes through which these experiences are shaped by hegemonic gender norms as well as how these women express their agency Centering the voices of Iranian Muslim women this book links sexuality ageing and the body to the matter of menopause conceived here as a gendered embodied and lived phenomenon characterised both by cultural constraint and by individual reflexive body techniques By considering gender and sexuality as vectors of power with internal politics inequalities and oppression alongside embodied practice the author shows how the life course provides a trajectory of sex and sexuality that routes both in time space social and cultural context
