support learners at risk of interrupted development Macalane J. Malindi,Johnnie Hay,Thabo Makhalemele,2024-02-23 The COVID 19 pandemic and the restrictions that came with it led to unprecedented disruptions in learner development and put them at risk of poor developmental outcomes It is thus important that the extent of the disruption on their development and the support needs of learners be investigated Researching the impact of the disruption should focus on holistic development In this book the authors use multiple research approaches and methods of gathering data in their respective fields to examine the impact of the disruption and determine the support needs of learners Data gathered through the different methods are processed and findings are presented The findings have implications for both practice and future research in the fields of inclusive education learner support educational psychology movement education Life Orientation and curriculum development First World, Third World W. Ryrie,1999-02-23 This new updated and extended edition of First World Third World examines the failures of aid to eliminate poverty The world development effort can claim only limited success and in some parts of the world especially Africa failure must be recognised William Ryrie while starting from a position of sympathy with the aims of the aid effort insists that the record must be analysed with ruthless honesty Well intentioned aid has often had perverse and harmful effects One of these has been to undermine the working of the market economy which offers the best hope for development and growth His book proposes a new approach to the development task which would reconcile it with market philosophies Targeting vulnerability hotspots along the agrifood system

Letta, M.,Montalbano, P.,Morales Opazo, C.,Petrucelli, F.,2024-05-29 We leverage the multi stressor nature of the COVID 19 generalized disruption as an opportunity to test the out of sample forecasting accuracy of both theory based and data driven vulnerability prediction models for the ex ante targeting of preventive interventions Author Taking advantage of the World Bank multitopic surveys for Ethiopia and Nigeria the two most populous African countries our retrospective evaluation assesses the models ability to anticipate households and agrifood system actors experiencing food insecurity and income losses during the COVID 19 pandemic Author The results are disappointing we document that despite considerable heterogeneity across data and methods both models do not achieve satisfactory out of sample forecasting performances Author Our findings are robust to the use of different data estimation methods and several heterogeneity analyses and sensitivity checks Author This evidence calls for a refinement of current profiling methodologies and for interoperability efforts to close existing microdata gaps Author Such efforts would enable policymakers to implement more effective early warning systems of vulnerability hotspots and improve the cost effectiveness of development interventions aimed at targeting groups vulnerable to future food crises Author

Lobao, Gregory Hooks, Ann R. Tickamyer, 2012-02-01 2007 CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title Sociologists have too often discounted the role of space in inequality This book showcases a recent generation of inquiry that attends to poverty prosperity and power across a range of territories and their populations within the United States addressing spatial inequality as a thematically distinct body of work that spans sociological research traditions The contributors various perspectives offer an agenda for future action to bridge sociology's diverse and often narrowly focused spatial and inequality traditions

Socioeconomic Evaluation of Megaprojects Markku Lehtonen, Pierre-Benoît Joly, Luis Aparicio, 2016-11-22 The governance and evaluation of megaprojects that is large scale complex high stakes infrastructure projects usually commissioned by governments and delivered through partnerships between public and private organisations is receiving increased attention However megaproject evaluation has hitherto largely adopted a linear rationalist perspective to explain the frequent failure of such projects to meet the iron triangle of performance criteria delivering on time within budget and according to specifications This approach recommends greater control and accountability to remedy megaproject pathologies Drawing on empirical examples mainly from the transport sector and radioactive waste disposal this book offers new perspectives to megaproject evaluation Comprising contributions from leading experts in project evaluation and appraisal this collection opens up new avenues by suggesting two ways of improving megaproject evaluation 1 approaches that go beyond the dominant linear rationalist notion of policy processes and emphasise instead the objective of opening up appraisal processes in order to enhance learning and reflexivity and 2 approaches that extend evaluative criteria beyond the iron triangle to cover the various socioeconomic impacts and preconditions for project success This volume will be of great relevance to scholars and practitioners with an interest in megaprojects energy and climate policy radioactive waste management urban design and project planning and management

Fertility Transition in South India Christophe Z Guilmoto, S Irudaya Rajan, 2005 This volume brings together 13 well researched and original essays which describe and analyse the trajectory of fertility decline in the south Indian states of Tamil Nadu Karnataka Andhra Pradesh and Kerala Documenting the fact that the fertility decline occurred in regions with vast differences in development indicators the contributors argue that this transition must be understood as a cumulative result of several factors including family planning policies socio economic transformation and changes in social perceptions towards fertility contraception marriage family and child rearing Combining various qualitative and quantitative techniques with field studies and historical analysis the contributors go beyond the formal tools of demography and develop an original Geographical Information System GIS a spatialized database encompassing south Indian districts

The Wellbeing of Nations Paul Allin, David J. Hand, 2014-07-14 What is national wellbeing and what is progress Why measure these definitions Why are measures beyond economic performance needed and how will they be used How do we measure national wellbeing turn the definitions into observable quantities Where are we now and where to next These questions are asked and answered in this much needed timely book The Wellbeing of Nations provides an accessible and comprehensive overview of the measurement of national well being examining whether national wellbeing is more than the sum of the wellbeing of everyone in the country and identifying and reviewing requirements for new measures It begins with definitions describes how to operationalize those definitions and takes a critical look at the uses to which such measures are to be put The authors examine initiatives from around the world using the UK measuring national wellbeing programme as a case study throughout the book along with case studies drawn from other countries as well as discussion of the position in some countries not yet drawn into the national wellbeing scene
