Social Interaction In Chinese Society:

Social Interaction in Chinese Society Sidney L. Greenblatt, Richard W. Wilson, Amy Auerbacher Wilson, 1982

Social Connections in China Thomas Gold, Doug Guthrie, David Wank, 2002-09-05 This volume assesses the evolving role of guanxi social networks in China's transforming society

Social Mobility in Traditional Chinese Society Yung-Teh Chow, 2018-12-13 This authoritative volume a large scale empirical work comparable to Pitirim Sorokin's Social Mobility is a penetrating and comprehensive study of social stratification and mobility in traditional Chinese society and a highly significant addition to the theoretical and factual foundations of contemporary social science It offers an authentic portrayal not only of social mobility but of social life in China in general at the time of its original publication in the 1960s It includes the life histories of the upper class scholars active and retired officials merchants and wealthy landlords and an analysis of social statistics drawn from one Chinese county which provides new interpretations of the processes of social mobility the relationship of this class to society as a whole and the motives of upwardly mobile individuals Each life history comprises at least five generations and its resulting accounts touch upon the lives of 1 200 persons and help place the development of the gentry in illuminating context within the population as a whole Chow's book offers a welcome method of comparison of two societies that have both birth and mobile elites As China entered the world system its open class system changed from fluidity to disorganization regarding its character As such it was transformed into an innovating society in which the earlier system could not or did not work Social Mobility in Traditional Chinese Society is unique in its field for the successful correlation of conceptual framework with its detailed wealth of empirical findings It will be welcomed by all students of social science international relations and Asian studies

The Individualization of Chinese Society Yunxiang Yan, 2020-08-19 Chinese society has seen phenomenal change in the last 30 years Two of the most profound changes have been the rise of the individual in both public and private spheres and the consequent individualization of Chinese society itself Yet despite China's recent dramatic entrance into global politics and economics neither of these significant shifts has been fully analysed China may indeed present an alternative model of social transformation in the age of globalisation so its path to development may have particular implications for the developing world The Individualization of Chinese Society reveals how individual agency has been on the rise since the 1970s and how this has impacted on everyday life and Chinese society more broadly The book presents a wide range of detailed case studies on the impact of economic policy patterns of kinship changes in marriage relations and the socio economic position of women the development of youth culture the politics of consumerism and shifting power relations in everyday life

Marriage and Inequality in Chinese Society Rubie S. Watson, Patricia Buckley Ebrey, 1991-04-02 Marriage and mobility under rural collectivism William Lavelly Women property and law in the People's Republic of China Jonathan K Ocko Afterword marriage and gender inequality Rubie S Watson

The Internet, Social Networks and Civic Engagement in Chinese Societies Wenhong Chen, 2016-04-14 The Internet in China reflects many contradictions and complexities of the society in which it is embedded Despite the growing significance of digital media and communication technologies research on their contingent non linear and sometimes paradoxical impact on civic engagement remains theoretically underdeveloped and empirically understudied As importantly many studies on the internet s implications in Chinese societies have focused on China This book draws on a variety of theoretical and methodological approaches to advance a balanced and context rich understanding of the effects of digital media and communication technologies especially social media for state legitimacy the rise of issue based networks the growth of the public sphere and various forms of civic engagement in China Taiwan and the global Chinese diaspora Using ethnography interview experiment survey and the big data method scholars from North America Europe and Asia show that the nature and impacts of digital activism depend on issue and context This book was originally published as a special issue of Information Communication Society

The Theory of Guanxi and Chinese Society Jack Barbalet, 2021-06-17 The concept of guanxi is used extensively in Chinese society Loosely understood as connections or networks it refers to long term mutually reinforcing exchanges between individuals based on affective and normative commitments This book comprehensively examines the nature and background of this extremely significant and distinct feature of Chinese social political economic and business relations It takes account of the major theoretical frameworks that relate to the long term connections that are developed to pursue instrumental advantage in a society marked by relatively weak legal and regulatory institutions The book locates such theorizing in the major features of the rapidly evolving Chinese market society Yet it also pays attention to the historical origins and cultural sources of a highly particularistic approach to the acquisition of social and material resources an approach which relies on obligatory relations of favour exchange between persons who self consciously and strategically select their associates and goals This sociological treatment of guanxi challenges many dominant conventions and introduces a novel research approach which captures the pertinent psychological dispositions cultural expressions and institutional frameworks that underpin the phenomenon Space Modernization and Social Interaction Qingqing Yang, 2014-09-25 This book concerns the Beijing Hutong and changing perceptions of space of social relations and of self as processes of urban redevelopment remove Hutong dwellers from their traditional homes to new high rise apartments It addresses questions of how space is humanly built and transformed classified and differentiated and most importantly how space is perceived and experienced This study elaborates and expands Lefebvre's trialectic of space on a theoretical level The ethnography presented is a conversation with Tim Ingold's argument about empty space This research employs the ethnographic technique of participant observation to secure a finely textured detailed and micro social account of local experience Then these micro social insights are contextualized within macro social structures of Chinese modernism by speaking to geographical concerns orientalism and history

Chinese Society in the Eighteenth Century Susan Naquin, Evelyn Sakakida Rawski, 1987-01-01 During the eighteenth century China's new Manchu rulers consolidated their control of the largest empire China had ever known In this book Susan Naquin and Evelyn S Rawski draw on the most recent research to provide a unique overview and reevaluation of the social history of China during this period one of the most dynamic periods in China's early modern era A lucid original and scholarly summary of the social economic and demographic history of China's last great period of glory This will be an important book for students of Chinese history Jonathan Spence Yale University Engaging complex and elegantly written Absorbing and valuable a thorough unique and richly detailed account of the social forms and cultural and religious life of the people Choice An interesting and well informed survey of China between about 1680 and 1820 W J F Jenner Asian Affairs I would be a very odd scholar or general reader who could not derive profit from reading this elegant and painstaking survey of the social cultural and economic life of the Qing empire in its apparent prime A superb survey which readers may absorb and cherish Alexander Woodside Pacific Affairs A highly readable synthesis of recent secondary literature on the subject William S Atwell Journal of Asian Studies Their coverage is comprehensive and their writing is clear and lucid reading this book obtains one a very broad yet penetrative view of Chinese society at the time Alan P L Liu Asian Thought Society The ground covered by this book is vast Its very breadth conveys with great clarity the extent of current knowledge of premodern China it also serves as an excellent introduction to the social history of the Qing dynasty Hugh D R Baker China Quarterly This is a most challenging work and ambitious work Chinese Society in the Eighteenth Century give both the general reader and also the historian who does not study China a tool for grounding himself or herself in the basic patterns and trends that could be found in eighteenth century China as well as in the problems the specialists are now exploring The book is also of great value to students of traditional and modern China for it serves to synthesize much of the new literature on China in the High Qing Thus it serves the China hand as a state of the field essay that shows just where we are even as it suggests directions for future research Murray A Rubinstein American Asian Review This excellent book provides an intelligent summary our rapidly changing understanding of Chinese society in a crucial century of political stability and economic and demographic expansion Susan Naquin and Evelyn S Rawski are distinguished contributors to the field energetically engaged in its multinational communication networks John E Wills Jr American Historical Review

Aging Families in Chinese Society Merril D. Silverstein, 2021-09-05 Declining fertility rates and increased life expectancies over the last few decades have conspired to make China one of the more rapidly aging societies in the world Aging Families in Chinese Society focuses on the accelerated social and demographic changes in China and examines their implications for family care and support for older adults Contributors to this landmark volume portray various challenges facing aging families in China as a result of reduced family size changing gender expectations rapid economic development and urbanization rural to urban migration and an emerging but still underdeveloped long term care system Divided into four thematic areas Disability and Family Support Family Relationships and Mental Health Filial Piety and Gender Norms and Long term Care Preferences chapters in this volume confront these burgeoning issues and offer salient policy and practice considerations not just for today's aging population but future generations to come Combining quantitative data from social surveys in China comparative surveys in Taiwan and Thailand and qualitative data from in depth interviews Aging Families in Chinese Societies will be of significant interest to students and researchers in aging and gerontology China and East Asian Studies and population studies

Unstructuring Chinese Society Allen Chun, 2004-08-02 Unstructuring Chinese Society is a culmination of long term field work and archival research that challenges existing theories of social organisation and cultural change The book makes new sense of historical contradictions political conflicts and deep seated social transformations that have underlined the experience of colonial rule and the practices of local institutions in Hong Kong over the past century By focusing on the ongoing interactions of discourse practices and global local relations in cultural terms Unstructuring Chinese Society puts forth a fresh perspective in the field of historical anthropology while addressing ongoing critical concerns in postcolonial theory and our understanding of tradition and modernity

Online Society in China David Kurt Herold, Peter Marolt, 2011-03-25 This book discusses the rich and varied culture of China's online society and its impact on offline China It argues that the Internet in China is a separate space and is more than merely a technological or media extension of offline Chinese society

characterizing China and Germany and their impact on the behavior of their executives The authors then use these judgements from the interviews to make recommendations for action to build more successful cooperation in German Chinese business cooperation in future joint enterprises Trust in German Chinese Business Cooperation is essential reading for managers of international companies and students of business management business psychology and intercultural management

Chinese Propaganda Posters: From Revolution to Modernization Stefan Landsberger, 2020-11-25 Brightly coloured prints portraying model behaviour or a better future have been a ubiquitous element of Chinese political culture from Imperial times until present As economic reform swept the People's Republic in the 1980s visual propaganda ceased to depict the tanned and muscular labourers in a proletarian utopia so typical of preceding decades Instead Western icons of progress and development were employed high speed bullet trains spacecraft high rise buildings gridlocked free ways and projections of general affluence Socialist Realism was phased out by design and mixed media techniques that were influenced by Western advertising This lavishly illustrated study traces the development of the style and content of the Chinese propaganda poster in the decade of reform from its traditional origins to its use as a tool for political and economic purposes

Philosophy for Children in Confucian Societies Chi-Ming Lam, 2019-11-20 This book contributes to the theory and practice of Philosophy for Children P4C with a special emphasis on theoretical and practical issues confronting researchers and practitioners working in contexts that are strongly influenced by Confucian values and norms It includes writings by prominent P4C scholars from four Confucian societies viz Mainland China Hong Kong Taiwan and Japan These writings showcase the diversity of the P4C model providing a platform for researchers and practitioners to tell their stories in their own Confucian cultural contexts The research stories in the first part of the book are concerned with assessing the impact of traditional Confucian norms promoting critical thinking reconstructing the notion of community of inquiry creating moral winds integrating philosophy into the school curriculum and localizing teaching methods and materials Four issues are discussed in the second part of the book the tension between Confucianism and powerful thinking cultural challenges for practitioners the transformation of harmony and the conception of family Taken as a whole the book provides fresh insights into whether and how P4C's Western-influenced theories and practices are compromised when they are applied in non Western or rather Confucian contexts A must read for anyone interested in the theory and practice of P4C and Confucianism in general

Handbook of Research on Social Interaction Technologies and Collaboration Software: Concepts and Trends Dumova, Tatyana, Fiordo, Richard, 2009-07-31 This book explores the origin structure purpose and function of socially interactive technologies known as social software Provided by publisher

Rules and Networks Richard Appelbaum, William Felstiner, Volkmar Gessner, 2001-12-21 International business transactions are heavily influenced by culture practice and rule The pursuit of business relationships within nation states can be subject to differences in the generation of norms and the processing of disputes but these conflicts are magnified many times over in cross border transactions where nation state control and support is weak or absent This book seeks different explanations of the ways in which business people and their legal advisers try to minimise the effect of these magnified difficulties At the outset the editors suggest four sources through which the international business community might be considered to have supplemented nation state conflict prevention and dispute resolution institutions an international legal order the development of a private normative order based on common business practices denominated the lex mercatoria through the efforts and work product of internationalised law firms and by means of extensive thick personal relationships often referred to by their Chinese term guanxi Since most explanations are dominated by North American and European legal scholarship and practice a second concern of this book is to open up the discussion to competing explanatory frameworks Specifically it develops the notion that global legal convergence may not be the immediate inevitable result of increased global economic interaction Rather less formal mechanisms for achieving normative understanding and predictability in business dealings may also flourish

A Century of Change in a Chinese Village Lin Juren,Xie Yuxi,2018-05-04 Over the last half century China has evolved from a poor rural country to a geopolitical powerhouse Rapid urbanization has been at the heart of that transformation and as migrant laborers have left their villages what has become of the rural communities that were once the center of economic social and cultural life And how do contemporary Chinese scholars understand those changes These are the questions that this compelling book answers Lengshuigou village located near the Shandong provincial capital of Jinan was first studied by Japanese social scientists in the early 1940s and then again in the 1980s and 1990s Building on these rich surveys this book traces changes from the early twentieth century to the present day in family and lineage social stratification personal networks annual and life cycle rituals village politics and elite formation Drawing on their own large scale survey of contemporary village households the authors analyze the physical and institutional changes that have altered the community as well as the shifts in interpersonal relations and attitudes that have upended centuries old systems of patriarchy and generational order This important book presents for the first time in English analysis by Chinese sociologists on the radical transformation of Chinese rural society ECIC2009-2nd European Conference on Intellectual Capital Susana Rodrigues,2010
