Social Movements in Twentieth-Century Iran Stephen C. Poulson, 2005-10-17 In this work Stephen C Poulson a scholar of collective action and social movements investigates cycles of social protest in Iran from 1890 to the present era He illuminates the following social movements the 1890 1892 Tobacco Movement the 1906 1909 Constitutional Revolution two post World War II movements the Tudeh Masses and the National Front the 1963 Qom Protest and the 1978 1979 Iranian Revolution These movements confronted two primary questions How should the Iranian state achieve independence in the world and what rights should individual Iranians enjoy in their political and social system Poulson examines the framing of these questions and their answers by various Iranian political actors over time revealing both continuity and change

Terrorism and Societies Stephen Vertigans, 2016-03-16 Which socializing agents are influential in people joining terror groups What ideologies do terror groups hold Which aspects of societies and social contexts contribute towards groups forming and people joining them This book considers a range of influential terror groups from the last 40 years exploring relationships between people local and global social processes and activities that result in acts of terrorism Examining Islamic groups alongside nationalist red and far right organizations Stephen Vertigans identifies important similarities in the social contexts experiences of members and some of their demands Key questions are applied to a range of case studies of contemporary relevance The groups studied originated from Europe the United States Asia and Africa and are associated with religion nationalism pro state terrorism militias and racism Each chapter offers the reader a clear understanding about why particular terror groups form while comparative analysis draws out commonalities and distinctions The Islamic State in Britain Michael Kenney, 2018-10-18 Drawing on extensive field research with activists on the streets of London Michael Kenney provides the first ethnographic study of a European network implicated in terrorist attacks and sending fighters to the Islamic State For over twenty years al Muhajiroun Arabic for the Emigrants strived to create an Islamic state in Britain through high risk activism A number of Emigrants engaged in violence while others joined the Islamic State in Iraq and Syria

Kenney explains why young Britons joined the Emigrants how they radicalized and adapted their activism and why many of them eventually left Through an innovative mix of ethnography and network analysis Kenney explains the structure and processes behind this outlawed network and explores its remarkable resilience What emerges is a complex nuanced portrait that demystifies the Emigrants while challenging conventional wisdom on radicalization and countering violent extremism

Contemporary Debates on Terrorism Richard Jackson, Daniela Pisoiu, 2018-09-03 Contemporary Debates on Terrorism is an innovative textbook addressing a number of key issues in terrorism studies from both traditional and critical perspectives This second edition has been revised and updated to cover contemporary issues such as the rise of ISIL and cyberterrorism In recent years the terrorism studies field has grown in quantity and quality with a growing number of scholars rooted in various professional disciplines beginning to debate the complex dynamics underlying this category of violence Within the broader field there are a number of identifiable controversies and questions which divide scholarly opinion and generate opposing arguments These relate to theoretical issues such as the definition of terrorism and state terrorism substantive issues like the threat posed by al Qaeda ISIL and the utility of different responses to terrorism different pathways leading people to engage in terrorist tactics and ethical issues such as the use of drones This new edition brings together in one place many of the field's leading scholars to debate the key issues relating to a set of 16 important controversies and questions The format of the volume involves a leading scholar taking a particular position on the controversy followed by an opposing or alternative viewpoint written by another scholar In addition to the pedagogic value of allowing students to read opposing arguments in one place the volume will also be important for providing an overview of the state of the field and its key lines of debate This book will be essential reading for students of terrorism studies and political violence critical

Regarding Tilly María J. Funes, 2016-10-17 Studying Charles Tilly 1929-2008 American sociologist historian and political scientist is essential for understanding political change and social conflict His research focuses on how grassroots populations through different forms of collective action influence historical events by trying to improve the conditions of people's lives This book is not only an homage to Tilly but is also aimed at understanding and applying his thought In each chapter the authors experts on Tilly's work examine his concepts theories and methodological contributions providing a richer understanding of them In addition this book is very contemporary From the beginning of this century mainly from 2011 important popular mobilizations such as the Arab Spring and 15 M or los indignados the indignant movement in Spain gradually spread to other countries the US Yemen Israel etc in successive Occupy movements The political mobilization of the grassroots movements are undergoing a resurgence a process that Tilly would have wanted to study This book can be a good guide for analyzing and understanding these movements

Fundamentalism, Sectarianism, and Revolution S. N. Eisenstadt, 1999 Fundamentalism Sectarianism and Revolution is a major comparative analysis of fundamentalist movements in cultural and political context with an emphasis on the contemporary scene Leading sociologist S N Eisenstadt examines the meaning of the global rise of fundamentalism as one very forceful contemporary response to tensions in modernity and the dynamics of civilization He compares modern fundamentalist movements with the proto fundamentalist movements which arose in the axial civilizations in pre modern times he shows how the great revolutions in Europe which arose in connection with these movements shaped the political and cultural programmes of modernity and he contrasts post Second World War Moslem Jewish and Protestant fundamentalist movements with communal national movements notably in Asia The central theme of the book is the distinctively Jacobin features of fundamentalist movements and their ambivalent attitude to tradition above all their attempts to essentialize tradition in an ideologically totalistic way Eisenstadt has won the Amalfi book prize Social Science for Counterterrorism Paul K. Davis, Kim Cragin, 2009 Employs an interdisciplinary social science approach to various counterterrorism questions problems and policies
