Socialism

- System where the people as a whole own property and operate businesses
- Created large, inefficient bureaucracies

Capitalism

- Market economies with private ownership of property
- Created more efficient economies, but allowed more profit to be taken away by foreign owners

International Norms and Local Politics in Myanmar Yukiko Nishikawa,2022-03-07 Nishikawa explores how international norms have been adopted in the local context in Myanmar to project a certain international image while in fact the authorities are exploiting these norms to protect their own interests In the liberal international world order promoted since the end of the Cold War democracy rule of law and human rights have become key components in state and peace building around the world Many donor governments and international organisations have promoted them in their aid and assistance However the promotion of these international norms is based on a flawed understanding of sovereignty and the world For this reason the enforcement of these international norms in Myanmar not only fails to protect vulnerable people but also in some instances exacerbates the situation thereby generating critical insecurity to the most vulnerable people A vital resource for scholars of Myanmar s politics as well as a valuable case study for International Relations scholars more broadly

Mao and the Sino-Soviet Split, 1959-1973 Danhui Li, Yafeng Xia, 2018-09-15 In the twenty first century students of Cold War history are fortunate to have the fruits of several major works on the Sino Soviet split by European and American scholars What is lacking in English literature however is a book based on international documentation especially Chinese archival documents that tell the story from the Chinese perspective Based on archival materials from several countries particularly China and more than twenty years of research on the subject two prominent Chinese historians Danhui Li and Yafeng Xia offer a comprehensive look at the Sino Soviet split from 1959 when visible cracks appeared in the Sino Soviet alliance to 1973 when China's foreign policy changed from an alliance with the Soviet Union to oppose the United States to aligning with the United States to oppose the Soviet Union Mao and the Sino Soviet Split 1959 1973 A New History is a reevaluation of the history of the Sino Soviet split and offers the first comprehensive account of it from a Chinese perspective This book together with its prequel Mao and the Sino Soviet Partnership 1945 1959 A New History is important because any changes in Sino Soviet relations at the time affected and to a great extent determined the fate of the socialist bloc More importantly it directly impacted and transformed the international political situation during the Cold War These two books promise to be a reevaluation of the history of the Sino Soviet alliance from its birth to its demise These fascinating books will be a crucial resource for all those interested in the topic and will stand as the definitive work on the Sino Soviet alliance for years to come
