Redescribing God Todd B. Pokrifka,2010-09-09 Despite the voluminous and ever growing scholarly literature on Karl Barth penetrating accounts of his theological method are lacking In an attempt to fill this lacuna Todd Pokrifka provides an analysis of Barth s theological method as it appears in his treatment of three divine perfections unity constancy and eternity in Church Dogmatics II 1 chapter VI In order to discern the method by which Barth reaches his doctrinal conclusions Pokrifka examines the respective roles of Scripture tradition and reason the threefold cord in this portion of the Church Dogmatics In doing so he finds that for Barth Scripture functions as the authoritative source and basis for theological critique and construction and tradition and reason are functionally subordinate to Scripture Yet Barth employs a predominantly indirect way of relating Scripture and theological proposals a way in which tradition and reason play important mediatory roles Barth s approach to theology involves the humble yet serious attempt to redescribe God that is to say again on a human level what God has already said in the divine self revelation attested in Scripture Redescribing God features an original conceptual framework for the analysis of Barth's method and an extensive application of that framework in the context of close readings of portions of the Church Dogmatics Through this process it draws from critiques and complements a wide variety of Barth scholarship on topics such as the role of Scripture and theological exegesis in Barth the role of tradition in Barth the meaning and role of reason in Barth and the nature of Barth's doctrine of divine perfections The book also provides a fruitful basis for those who wish to learn from Barth's distinctive way of constructing the Christian doctrine of God as an attempt to obey God's self revelation

Leo Strauss on Maimonides Leo Strauss, 2013-04-23 Leo Strauss is widely recognized as one of the foremost interpreters of Maimonides His studies of the medieval Jewish philosopher led to his rediscovery of esotericism and deepened his sense that the tension between reason and revelation was central to modern political thought His writings throughout the twentieth century were chiefly responsible for restoring Maimonides as a philosophical thinker of the first rank Yet to appreciate the extent of Strauss's contribution to the scholarship on Maimonides one has traditionally had to seek out essays he published separately spanning almost fifty years With Leo Strauss on Maimonides Kenneth Hart Green presents for the first time a comprehensive annotated collection of Strauss's writings on Maimonides comprising sixteen essays three of which appear in English for the first time Green has also provided careful translations of materials that had originally been quoted in Hebrew Arabic Latin German and French written an informative introduction highlighting the original contributions found in each essay and brought references to out of print editions fully up to date The result will become the standard edition of Strauss's writings on Maimonides

Modern Philosophies of Human Nature P. Langford, 2012-12-06 General Argument My aim is to survey some of the most influential philosophical writers on human nature from the time that Augustine codified Christian belief to the present During this period philosophical opinions about human nature underwent a transformation from the God centered views of Augustine and the scholastics to the human centered ideas of Nietzsche Freud and Sartre While one aim has simply been to provide a handy survey I do have three polemical purposes One is to oppose the notion that the modernism of more recent writers was produced by methodological innovations According to both Freud and Sartre as well as other key figures like Lacan and Heidegger their views were the product of new methods of investigating human nature namely those of psychoanalysis and the phenomenological reduction Psychoanalysis claimed to use the interpretation of both dreams and the relationship between analyst and patient to penetrate the unconscious Phenomenology has claimed that trained philosophers are able to obtain a privileged view of consciousness by a special act of thought called the phenomenological reduction which enables them to view consciousness without preconceptions On many issues my sympathies are with Nietzsche rather than with Freud or phenomenology This is also the case regarding methodology Nietzsche saw quite clearly that the possibility of popularising the views he himself held came from the decline of Christianity My rejection of exclusive reliance upon the methodologies of psychoanalysis and phenomenology is based on two lines of argument
