Some Voices And Pale Horse:

The Argumentative Theatre of Joe Penhall William C. Boles, 2014-01-10 Of the many dynamic young playwrights to be associated with the In Yer Face burst of creative talent on the British stage in the mid 1990s Joe Penhall has challenged Britain's status quo the most Penhall believes his plays should constantly provoke and enrage not only the institutions he targets but also his audience This critical book discusses the argumentative nature of Penhall's plays while also placing them within the context of contemporary British society and the modern dramatic tradition His eight plays are discussed in detail and particular attention is paid to male identity the nature of grief the variety of females domestic drama and the role of autobiography in his work

The Road Joe Penhall, Cormac McCarthy, 2014-05-27 You think I come from another world don't you Filled with all these strange things you've never seen Well I do I guess Cormac McCarthy's post apocalyptic novel was awarded the 2007 Pulitzer Prize for Fiction and the James Tait Black Memorial Prize for Fiction in 2006 Released shortly after his No Country for Old Men was turned into an Oscar winning film The Road's cinema version of the novel is directed by John Hillcoat stars Viggo Mortensen and Charlize Theron and is an official selection for the 66th Venice Film Festival 2009 Joe Penhall's adaptation is a faithful careful crafting of the book for the screen fully evoking the atmosphere of menace and desperation The Road is set a few years after an unexplained cataclysmic world disaster has left the earth poisoned barren and hostile While ash blocks out the sun and the earth no longer fosters plant or animal life men either starve or join the marauding gangs of cannibals The plot follows an unnamed father and son on a bleak epic across the wasteland and features a series of horrific encounters in a merciless world starved of life and hope This edition includes a full list of cast and crew credits

Birthday Joe Penhall, 2013-12-02 The birth of their daughter should be one of the happiest days of Ed and Lisa's life An NHS maternity ward and their somewhat unusual circumstances make for an unsettling and satisfyingly comic sequence of events that tests their relationship to the core and raises intrinsic questions about the nature of birth and renewal fear and isolation Subverting the received gender roles to darkly comic and disturbing effect the play charts Ed and Lisa's personally fraught experience at the behest of an NHS labour ward Penhall expertly weaves an acutely funny and emotionally charged sequence of events he pitches wryly observed gender perceptions of a quite literal life and death situation against an indictment of the NHS system The beautifully observed writing is at once vicious and searingly tender Birthday achieves an intensely comic counterpoint to the visceral domestic drama sutured to bigger issues of aspiration sacrifice who we are how we communicate the triumph of tolerance nature and ultimately love
