Something's Not Right One Family's Struggle With Learning Disabilities:

Something's Not Right Nancy Lelewer, 1994 Had I known what was ahead of me I might have despaired But fortune was kind enough to enlighten me only by degrees Nancy Lelewer tells about raising four children three of whom were finally diagnosed with learning disabilities Lelewer a graduate of Sarah Lawrence College knew the pain of not learning to read on schedule because she herself is dyslexic She figured out the instruction that would give her children an appropriate education when the schools could not A Resources section guides anyone who recognizes parallels in this story written to help educate the lay public about learning disabilities Professionals in many fields related to LD studies have praised this book which speaks to parents is the best account of the affects of dyslexia of anything I have ever read Charles Drake Ph D The Landmark Schools goes a long way to help reduce the needless corrosive guilt that is often born by parents when their children fail to develop normally Howard Hermann M D Boston University School of Medicine

Living with Learning Disabilities and Disorders Peter Kogler, 2019-07-15 Although learning disabilities are believed to affect a significant number of children not all of those children receive an actual diagnosis While school officials teachers and parents continue to improve education for these children the general public still has misconceptions about learning disabilities and how to help those affected by them This detailed look at learning disabilities aims to educate readers through relatable text and engaging sidebars Annotated quotes from experts up to date statistics and new technologies are explored as well as the causes of and common misconceptions about life with dyslexia dyscalculia dyspraxia and more

Why Can't I Learn Like Everyone Else? Sheila Stewart, Camden Flath, 2011 For kids with learning disabilities school can sometimes be a very frustrating place There are many different types of learning disabilities but they all make it difficult for a person to learn Kids with learning disabilities sometimes think they must not be very smart but this isn't true at all A learning disability might make it a lot harder for someone to read or do math but that has nothing to do with how intelligent he is Understanding the causes and effects of a learning disability as well as ways to overcome it are important for kids dealing with these types of disabilities and it is also important for people who know someone dealing with them Cover p 4
