Straight Out Of Brooklyn:

Ebony ,1991-11 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine Mother Jones Magazine ,1991-07 Mother Jones is an award winning national magazine widely respected for its groundbreaking investigative reporting and coverage of sustainability and environmental issues Jet ,1991-06-10 The weekly source of African American political and entertainment news Representing S. Craig Watkins,1998 Representing examines developments in black cinema It looks at the distinct contradiction in American society black youths have become targets of a racial backlash but their popular cultures have become commercially viable Directory of World Cinema: American Independent John Berra,2010-05-01 With high profile Academy Award nominations and an increasing number of big name actors eager to sign on to promising projects independent films have been at the forefront in recent years like never before But the roots of such critical and commercial successes as The Hurt Locker and Precious can be traced to the first boom of independent cinema in the 1960s when a raft of talented filmmakers emerged to capture the attention of a rapidly growing audience of young viewers A thorough overview of a thriving area of cultural life Directory of World Cinema American Independent chronicles the rise of the independent sector as an outlet for directors who challenge the status quo yet still produce accessible feature films that not only find wide audiences but enjoy considerable box office appeal without sacrificing critical legitimacy Key directors are interviewed and profiled and a sizeable selection of films are referenced and reviewed More than a dozen sub genres including African American cinema queer cinema documentary familial dysfunction and exploitation are individually considered with an emphasis on their ability to engage with tensions inherent in American society Copious illustrations and a range of research resources round out the volume making this a truly comprehensive guide At a time when independent films are enjoying considerable cultural cachet this easy to use yet authoritative guide will find an eager audience in media historians film studies scholars and movie buffs alike Ghettos, Tramps, and Welfare Queens Stephen Pimpare,2017-05-22 Ghettos Tramps and Welfare Queens Down Out on the Silver Screen explores how American movies have portrayed poor and homeless people from the silent era to today It provides a novel kind of guide to social policy exploring how ideas about poor and homeless people have been reflected in popular culture and evaluating those images against the historical and contemporary reality Richly illustrated and examining nearly 300 American made films released between 1902 and 2015 Ghettos Tramps and Welfare Queens finds and describes representations of poor and homeless people and the places they have inhabited throughout the century long history of U S cinema It moves beyond the merely descriptive to deliberate whether cinematic representations of homelessness and poverty changed over time and if there are patterns to be discerned Ultimately the text offers a preliminary response to a handful of harder questions about causation and consequence Why are these portrayals as they are Where do they come from Are they a reflection of American attitudes and policies toward marginalized populations or do they help create them What does this all mean for politics and policymaking Of interest to movie buffs and film scholars cultural critics and historians policy analysts and those curious to know more about homelessness and American poverty Ghettos Tramps and Welfare Queens is a unique window into American politics history policy and culture it is an entertaining and enlightening journey Brooklyn Tides Benjamin Heim Shepard, Mark J. Noonan, 2018-03-15 Brooklyn has all the features of a global borough It is a base of immigrant labor and ethnically diverse communities of social and cultural capital of global transportation cultural production and policy innovation At once a model of sustainable urbanization and overdevelopment the question is now What will become of Global Brooklyn Tracing the emergence of Brooklyn from village outpost to global borough Brooklyn Tides investigates the nature and consequences of global forces that have crossed the East River and identifies alternative models for urban development in global capitalism Benjamin Shepard and Mark Noonan provide a unique ethnographic reading of the literature social activism and changing tides impacting this ever transforming space Cover and interior images of a rapidly transforming global borough by photographer Caroline Shepard Cinema of Outsiders Emanuel Levy, 1999-09 The most important development in American culture of the last two decades is the emergence of independent cinema as a viable alternative to Hollywood's safe and innocuous entertainment Indeed while Hollywood studios devote much of their time and energy to churning out big budget star studded event movies a renegade independent cinema that challenges mainstream fare continues to flourish with strong critical support and loyal audiences Say It Loud! Robin R. Means Coleman, 2013-08-21 In a collection of essays based on direct interview research Say it Loud amplifies the voice of ordinary African Americans as they respond to media presentations of Black society Each chapter investigates ways in which African American identity is constructed maintained and represented in mass media and how these portrayals are interpreted within the African American community Together the essays cover a vast array of media messages in television film music print and cyberspace From the Boondocks comic strip The Cosby Show and The Color Purple to the music of rap artist DMX and original testimony from a Menace II Society copycat killer the material included in this volume is examined as context for the African American struggle to achieve definition meaning and power Say it Loud offers rare insight into how this struggle is both helped and hindered by the representation of race in our media culture Boyz 'n' the Hood Tess Forbes, Andrew Ormsby, 2019-07-25 This information pack is produced for the Cambridge Media Studies A Level Syllabus A Paper 3 It contains an annotated bibliography a list of annotated journal references newspaper articles and reviews Shades of Noir Joan Copjec, 1993 For this was the summer when after the hiatus of the Second World War French critics were again given the opportunity to view films from Hollywood The films they saw including The Maltese Falcon Double Indemnity Laura Murder My Sweet and The Woman in the Window prompted the naming and theorization of a new phenomenon film noir Much of what has been written about the genre since has remained within the orbit of this preliminary assessment While sympathetic towards the early French critics this collection of original essays attempts to move beyond their first fascinated look Beginning with an autonomy of that look of the poujadist climate that nourished it and the imminent collapse of the Hollywood studio system that gave it its mournful inflection Shades of Noir re explores and calls into question the object first constructed by it The impetus for this shift in perspective comes from the films themselves viewed in the light of contemporary social and political concerns and from new theoretical insights Several contributions analyze the re emergence of noir in recent years most notably in the hybrid forms produced in the 1980s by the merging of noir with science fiction and horror for example Blade Runner and Angel Heart and in films by black directors such as Deep Cover Straight out of Brooklyn A Rage in Harlem and One False Move Other essays focus on the open urban territory in which the noir hero hides out the office spaces in Chandler and the palpable sense of waiting that fills empty warehouses corridors and hotel rooms Finally Shades of Noir pays renewed attention to the lethal relation between the sexes to the femme fatale and the other women in noir As the role of women expands the femme fatale remains deadly but her deadliness takes on new meanings Contributors Janet Bergstrom Joan Copjec Elizabeth Cowie Manthia Diawara Frederic Jameson Dean MacCannel Fred Pfeil David Reid and Jayne L Walker Marc Vernet Slavoj Zizek

Cultural Studies 11.2 Lawrence Grossberg, Della Pollock, 2005-08-04 Papers featured in this issue offer an in depth examination of the interaction of ethnicity identity and multiculturalism with contemporary culture New York Magazine, 1991-05-27 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea The Brooklyn Film John B. Manbeck, Robert Singer, 2010-06-28 Brooklyn New York a borough of New York City is known for its distinctive vernacular its communal feel on the fringes of a booming city and its famous bridge a gateway to the unlimited opportunities in Manhattan Of course Coney Island deserves a mention as it garners its own fame independent of Brooklyn its parent locale New York City moviemaking got its start in Brooklyn when Charles E Chinnock shot his silent film in 1894 Since then many films have been made studios opened and stars born in Brooklyn contributing to its undeniable influence in the film industry This work is a collection of essays on the topic of Brooklyn as portrayed in film It includes a discussion of race relations in films dealing with Brooklyn the story of Jackie Robinson as shown on film the changing face of cinematic Brooklyn and some thoughts on a Brooklyn filmgoer's experience The combination of Brooklyn and baseball in the films of Paul Auster is examined as well as the typical portrayal of a Brooklyn native in film Genre and Contemporary Hollywood Steve Neale, 2019-07-25 This wide ranging text is one of the first to look in detail at some of the principal genres cycles and trends in Hollywood's output during the last two decades It includes analysis of such films as Sense and Sensibility Grifters The Mask When Harry Met Sally Pocahontas Titanic Basic Instinct Coppola's Dracula and Malcolm X

Flying Magazine ,1992-01 Life, Myth, and the American Family Unreeling Jeffry John Stein,2005 This book is about what movies do for us It is about how movies exhibit the contradictions truths and fantasies surrounding our bedrock American beliefs in things held sacred including in this case our creed of family It is about why we again and again attend the dark universal tabernacles in which these sermons are offered The depth of analysis offered here will also bring new insights to those concerned with parenting issues self understanding and media consciousness all increasingly relevant areas of concern in contemporary life And for those interested in telling stories that will truly move the rest of us this book will serve as a secret doorway to the inner sanctum of human characters responding to the places and times of their lives Finally this book will bring revelation and liberation to reader s lives by showing them how to look through movies into themselves as they have never done before In the specific examples of archetypal life journeys illuminated through these films they will experience empathy with the ineffability of their existence And in transubstantiating with these movie characters amidst history culture and family they will journey through their own conundrums in arcs that bring them moments of at one ment

Flying Magazine ,1992-01 Criminality and the Modern Stephen Brauer,2022-01-28 The emergence of the social sciences established in the mid to late nineteenth century had a substantial bearing on how researchers academics and eventually the general public thought about criminal behavior Using Modernism as a lens Stephen Brauer examines how these disciplines shaped Americans understanding of criminality in the twentieth century and how it provides a new way to think about culture social norms and ultimately laws In theory laws act as articulations and codifications of a community s beliefs values and principles By breaking laws criminals help us reinforce social norms by providing the opportunity to affirm what is believed to be right By operating outside the bounds of acceptable behavior the criminal serves as a useful figure to understand what is at stake in the culture what the central issues of that culture might be and what the fears and anxieties are Criminality serves as a lens through which we can read ourselves and how the criminal operates as a cultural figure signifies the things we are negotiating in our lives and in our communities Brauer focuses on two main concepts central to the very concept of Modernism to explore criminality contingency the idea that the individual might not be in control of their own deviance and agency the notion that the criminal makes a conscious choice to use crime as a means of economic success The figure of the criminal is a powerful one and is key to exploring American twentieth century culture This book would be of interest to students and scholars in criminology sociology cultural studies literary studies history and many others

Generation Multiplex Timothy Shary,2009-01-27 When teenagers began hanging out at the mall in the early 1980s the movies followed Multiplex theaters offered teens a wide array of perspectives on the coming of age experience as well as an escape into the alternative worlds of science fiction and horror Youth films remained a popular and profitable genre through the 1990s offering teens a place to reflect on their evolving identities from adolescence to adulthood while simultaneously shaping and maintaining those identities Drawing examples from hundreds of popular and lesser known youth themed films

Timothy Shary here offers a comprehensive examination of the representation of teenagers in American cinema in the 1980s and 1990s. He focuses on five subgenres: school delinquency, horror, science and romance, sexuality, to explore how they represent teens and their concerns, how these representations change over time, and how youth movies both mirror and shape societal expectations and fears about teen identities and roles. He concludes that while some teen films continue to exploit various notions of youth sexuality and violence, most teen films of the past generation have shown an increasing diversity of adolescent experiences and have been sympathetic to the particular challenges that teens face.
