Strange Landscape:

Landscapes of the Metropolis of Death Otto Dov Kulka, 2013-01-31 Otto Dov Kulka's memoir of a childhood spent in Auschwitz is a literary feat of astounding emotional power exploring the permanent and indelible marks left by the Holocaust. Winner of the JEWISH QUARTERLY WINGATE PRIZE 2014. As a child, the distinguished historian Otto Dov Kulka was sent first to the ghetto of Theresienstadt and then to Auschwitz. As one of the few survivors, he has spent much of his life studying Nazism and the Holocaust but always as a discipline requiring the greatest coldness and objectivity with his personal story set to one side. But he has remained haunted by specific memories and images; thoughts he has been unable to shake off. Translated by Ralph Mandel. The greatest book on Auschwitz since Primo Levi. Kulka has achieved the impossible: the panel of Judges Jewish Quarterly Wingate Prize. Landscape Fieldwork Gareth Doherty, 2025-05-05 Refocusing on human inhabitants in landscape architecture. Landscape architecture is at a crossroads. The ability to draw upon interdisciplinary perspectives and generate insights from the combined vantage points of design, environmental studies, and the social sciences puts it in a prime position to address the most pressing issues of our time, such as climate change and social inequality. Its current reliance on digital and technological solutions, however, has increasingly caused landscape architects to lose sight of the ways in which humans actually use spaces. And while landscapes are designed all over the world, the discipline remains inordinately centered on the Global North. Landscape Fieldwork alters that long-standing paradigm through real-life examples that provide tools for practitioners to engage more deeply with multidimensional, diverse landscapes and the communities that create, live in, and use them. Mount Dragon Douglas Preston, Lincoln Child, 2007-11-27 In this thriller from authors Douglas Preston and Lincoln Child, a genetically engineered virus threatens to wipe out humanity. Mount Dragon, an enigmatic research complex hidden in the vast desert of New Mexico, is the site of a medical breakthrough that promises to bring incalculable benefits to the human race. Led by visionary genius Brent Scopes, his secret goal is to bring about a new world order. But while Scopes believes he is leading the way to a new world order, he may in fact be opening the door to mass human extinction. And when Guy and Susana attempt to stop him, they find themselves locked in a frightening battle with Scopes, his henchmen, and the apocalyptic nightmare that science has unleashed. Primordial Landscapes, Incorruptible Bodies Dag Øistein Endsjø, 2008 As the first monk in the desert Antony became an early Christian superstar eclipsing his many ascetic predecessors The introduction of asceticism into the wilderness also represented an encounter between Christian and Hellenistic ideas For centuries Greeks had considered the uncultivated geography intrinsically primordial a chaotic place where man struggled to remain human The wilderness represented an eternal ordeal where man always faced fierce beasts disorder and death but also where simultaneously he could attain boundless wealth wisdom and even physical immortality Through Athanasius of Alexandria's fourth century biography of Antony we learn how the Christian appropriation of Greek ideas on geography bodies and immortality raised asceticism to an entirely new level Placed in his uncultivated landscape Antony became a true martyr an athlete of God and a holy man able to retrieve the bodily incorruptibility lost in the Fall which all Christians could look forward to at the end of times In this way Athanasius employed a traditional Greek worldview to demonstrate the superiority of Christianity over Paganism which never promised ordinary people anything but an eternal existence as dead and

Missions, States, and European Expansion in Africa Chima J. Korieh, Raphael Chijioke Njoku, 2007-11-21 Missions States and European Expansion in Africa aims to explore the ways Christianity and colonialism acted as hegemonic or counter hegemonic forces in the making of African societies As Western interventionist forces Christianity and colonialism were crucial in establishing and maintaining political cultural and economic domination Indeed both elements of Africa's encounter with the West played pivotal roles in shaping African societies during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries This volume uses a wide range of perspectives to address the intersection between missions evangelism and colonial expansion across Africa The contributors address several issues including missionary collaboration with the colonizing effort of European powers disagreements between missionaries and colonizing agents the ways in which missionaries and colonial officials used language imagery and European epistemology to legitimize relations of inequality with Africans and the ways in which both groups collaborated to transform African societies Thus Missions States and European Expansion in Africa transcends the narrow boundaries that often separate the role of these two elements of European encounter to argue that missionary endeavours and official colonial actions could all be conceptualized as hegemonic institutions in which both pursued the same civilizing mission even if they adopted different strategies in their encounter with African societies

"Australian Art and Artists in London, 1950-1965" Simon Pierse, 2017-07-05 Subtle and wide ranging in its account this study explores the impact of Australian art in Britain in the two decades following the end of World War II and preceding the Swinging Sixties In a transitional period of decolonization in Britain Australian painting was briefly seized upon as a dynamic and reinvigorating force in contemporary art and a group of Australian artists settled in London where they held centre stage with group and solo exhibitions in the capital's most prestigious galleries The book traces the key influences of Sir Kenneth Clark Bernard Smith and Bryan Robertson in their various and varying roles as patrons ideologues and entrepreneurs for Australian art as well as the self definition and interaction of the artists themselves Simon Pierse interweaves multiple issues of the period into a cohesive historical narrative including the mechanics of the British art world the limited and frustrating cultural scene of 1950s Australia and the conservative influence of Australian government bodies Publishing for the first time archival material letters and photographs previously unavailable to scholars either in Britain or Australia this book demonstrates how the work of expatriate Australian artists living in London constructed a distinct vision of Australian identity for a foreign market The Angle Between Two Walls Roger Luckhurst,1998-01-01 This is the first theoretically informed book on Ballard reading his work not only within the science fiction genre but also connecting it to issues of popular culture and legitimisation postmodernism and the legacy of the avant garde Aiming where necessary to contextualise Ballard s fiction within the science fiction genre Luckhurst s study also travels over many terrains more or less foreign to SF existentialism Surrealism Pop Art psychoanalysis ethnologies of contemporary modernity and the theory of autobiography Earthquakes and Gardens Virginia Burrus,2023-02-19 Part one Points of departure Memories Three notes on method Setting out with Jerome Part two Paphos Poetry and place Curating earthquakes Life in ruins Part three The mountain Geographies of the remote Entropic gardens Literary cartographies Part four Coda An ocean of possibility Studies in Classic American Literature D.H. H. Lawrence,2016-01-14 I AS FAR AS PALERMO Comes over one an absolute necessity to move And what is more to move in some particular direction A double necessity then to get on the move and to know whither Why can t one sit still Here in Sicily it is so pleasant the sunny Ionian sea the changing jewel of Calabria like a fire opal moved in the light Italy and the panorama of Christmas clouds night with the dog star laying a long luminous gleam across the sea as if baying at us Orion marching above how the dog star Sirius looks at one looks at one he is the hound of heaven green glamorous and fierce and then oh regal evening star hung westward flaring over the jagged dark precipices of tall Sicily then Etna that wicked witch resting her thick white snow under heaven and slowly slowly rolling her orange coloured smoke They called her the Pillar of Heaven the Greeks It seems wrong at first for she trails up in a long magical flexible line from the sea's edge to her blunt cone and does not seem tall She seems rather low under heaven But as one knows her better oh awe and wizardy Remote under heaven aloof so near yet never with us The painters try to paint her and the photographers to photograph her in vain Because why Because the near ridges with their olives and white houses these are with us Because the river bed and Naxos under the lemon groves Greek Naxos deep under dark leaved many fruited lemon groves Etna's skirts and skirt bottoms these still are our world our own world Even the high villages among the oaks on Etna But Etna herself Etna of the snow and secret changing winds she is beyond a crystal wall When I look at her low white witch like under heaven slowly rolling her orange smoke and giving sometimes a breath of rose red flame then I must look away from earth into the ether into the low empyrean And there in that remote region Etna is alone If you would see her you must slowly take off your eyes from the world and go a naked seer to the strange chamber of the empyrean Pedestal of heaven The Greeks had a sense of the magic truth of things Thank goodness one still knows enough about them to find one's kinship at last
