Strange Customs of Courtship and Marriage William J. Fielding.,1949 Strange customs of courtship and marriage William John Fielding,194? Strange Customs of Courtship and Marriage William John Fielding,1964
Strange Customs of Courtship & Marriage. [With Plates.]. William John FIELDING,1964 Strange Customs of Courtship and Marriage ,1943 Strange Customs of Courtship and Marriage Robert C. Craig,1933 Blood and Home in Early Modern Drama Ariane M. Balizet,2014-04-24 In this volume the author argues that blood was crucially a means by which dramatists negotiated shifting contours of domesticity in 16th and 17th century England Early modern English drama vividly addressed contemporary debates over an expanding idea of the domestic which encompassed the domus as well as sex parenthood household order the relationship between home and state and the connections between family honor and national identity The author contends that the domestic ideology expressed by theatrical depictions of marriage and household order is one built on the simultaneous familiarity and violence inherent to blood The theatrical relation between blood and home is far more intricate than the idealized language of the familial bloodline the home was itself a bloody place with domestic bloodstains signifying a range of experiences including religious worship sex murder birth healing and holy justice Focusing on four bleeding figures the Bleeding Bride Bleeding Husband Bleeding Child and Bleeding Patient the author argues that the household blood of the early modern stage not only expressed the violence and conflict occasioned by domestic ideology but also established the home as a site that alternately reified and challenged patriarchal authority
