Strangely Familiar Andrew Blauvelt, 2003 In the past decade designers have become increasingly engaged with the quotidian The Living Church, 2003-07 The Pope and the pill David Geiringer, 2019-10-23 This book is about the sexual and religious lives of Catholic women in post war England It uses original oral history material to uncover the way Catholic women negotiated spiritual and sexual demands at a moment when the two increasingly seemed at odds with each other It also examines the public pronouncements and secretive internal documents of the central Catholic Church offering a ground breaking new explanation of the Pope's decision to prohibit the Pill in 1968 The material gathered here offers a fresh perspective on the idea that sex killed God reframing dominant approaches to the histories of sex religion and social change The book will be essential reading not only for scholars of sexuality religion gender and oral history but anyone interested in social and cultural change more broadly The Prefabricated Interior Deborah Schneiderman, 2024-11-12 Though much attention has been given to the prefabrication of architecture there has been little discussion on the influence and importance of prefabrication within the interior environment This book does just that providing a comprehensive investigation into the prefab interior from the 19th century to the present and beyond Each chapter focuses on a typology of the prefabricated interior looking at the bathroom kitchen workspace furniture mobile interiors the prefab house textiles wearables and the digital realm of printed interiors Taken as a group these chapters and illustrations indicate that constructs of the interior have been pivotal in the generation of techniques and processes of prefabrication in architecture and the built environment Chapters explore a diverse range of examples of innovative prefabricated elements and assemblages within interior environments illustrating the inherent sustainability accessibility building efficiency and affordability of prefabricated design The culmination of a decade of research by the leading expert on the topic this will be the go to resource on prefabricated interiors and an important read for all students and researchers in interior design The Front Lawn's Songs from the Front Lawn Matthew Bannister, 2023-04-06 The Front Lawn is a multi award winning much loved New Zealand duo turned trio made up of Don McGlashan Harry Sinclair and eventually Jennifer Ward Lealand A 1980s variety act The Front Lawn was part of an Aotearoa New Zealand alternative tradition of duos that combine music comedy theatre and film Their debut album Songs from The Front Lawn 1989 distilled McGlashan and Sinclair's theatrical stage show and their groundbreaking short films Walkshort and The Lounge Bar while also thrusting the band into the burgeoning New Zealand indie scene The album is a snapshot of 80s New Zealand a turbulent creative period for indie music indie film and musical theatre celebrating local identity in new ways Starting with a social and cultural background of New Zealand in the late 1970s the book covers McGlashan and Sinclair's upbringing on Auckland's North Shore early artistic influences and overseas experiences leading to the formation of the group Much attention is paid to the duo's philosophy early performances the process of recording the album including The Front Lawn's collaboration with Wellington avant garde cabaret group Six

Volts and the addition of Jennifer Ward Lealand as the group's third member and analysis of each of the album's 10 songs. In parting, Matthew Bannister discusses the group's second and final album More Songs from The Front Lawn as well as the individual members' subsequent artistic careers. Dwell, 2003-09. At Dwell we're staging a minor revolution. We think that it's possible to live in a house or apartment by a bold modern architect to own furniture and products that are exceptionally well designed and still be a regular human being. We think that good design is an integral part of real life. And that real life has been conspicuous by its absence in most design and architecture magazines.

Objects of Our Desire Salman Akhtar, 2007-12-18. What makes something sexy? Why are some things regarded as sacred and others profane? Why do mourners face such difficulty in parting with their beloved's possessions? Why do we often feel distraught when we lose something even when the object has little real value? We spend our lives in a meaningful dialogue with things around us. Sometimes the conversation is loud as in a collector's passion for coins or art. More often the exchange is subtle and muted even imperceptible. We are surrounded by things and they affect our emotions and impact our thoughts. The arrival of a dozen flowers from a lover or a letter from a grandchild makes our day. An old photo album or an Afghan knitted by a favorite aunt offers comfort when we are troubled. From exploring what makes something beautiful to why we place such value on antiques and artifacts from the past, Objects of Our Desire offers insights both deep and delightful into the ways we invest things with meaning and the powerful roles they play in our lives. Notice the inviting contours of that sofa, the glint of a knife's edge, the sparkle of a diamond ring. Feel the softness of the pashmina around that woman's milky shoulders. Look at the majesty of a large jet plane. Take in the somberness of a gravestone. Put on an old pair of shoes. Clutch a warm mug of freshly brewed coffee. Sit on a rocking chair. Feel the sumptuous leather seats of a new car. We are surrounded by things. We are involved with them, indebted to them. We speak to things and things speak to us. To say that we are interdependent is banal. Let us be courageous. Let us admit it: we are lovers.

Contested Home Katherine Kunz, 2025-06-27. Home is both personal and political, static and dynamic, familiar and unfamiliar. Through ethnographic research with asylum seekers at a church-based refugee program in Basel, Switzerland, Katherine Kunz explores the role of government, church, volunteers and refugees in defining belonging. By examining asylum systems, the role of place and agency and religious motivations, she reveals home as shaped by systems that often obscure its essential vulnerability and multiplicity. This study is of interest to anyone who has considered belonging through the lenses of migration, borders or religion and to those who have questioned their own relationship to home.
