Stranger And Alone A Novel Northeastern Library Of Black Literature:

Stranger and Alone Jay Saunders Redding, 1989 Set in the South's segregated school system in the 1920s and 1930s this powerful novel about a multiracial boy is a riveting account of the institutionalization of African American cynicism and self hatred in the pre civil rights era

Iron City Lloyd Louis Brown, 1994 A groundbreaking work of African American proletarian literature first published in 1951 and now back in print

At the Dusk of Dawn Albery Allson Whitman, 2009 Restores Whitman's place in the canons of African American literature and nineteenth century American poetry

Black Talk, Blue Thoughts, and Walking the Color Line Erin Aubry Kaplan, 2011 This lively and thoughtful book explores what it means to be black in an allegedly postracial America

The Chinaberry Tree Jessie Redmon Fauset, 1995 A novel of illegitimacy and identity in a small black community

Forthcoming Books Rose Army, 1999

American Literature in Transition, 1950-1960 Steven Belletto, 2017-12-28 American Literature in Transition 1950 1960 explores the under recognized complexity and variety of 1950s American literature by focalizing discussions through a series of keywords and formats that encourage readers to draw fresh connections among literary form and concepts institutions cultures and social phenomena important to the decade The first section draws attention to the relationship between literature and cultural phenomena that were new to the 1950s The second section demonstrates the range of subject positions important in the 1950s but still not visible in many accounts of the era The third section explores key literary schools or movements associated with the decade and explains how and why they developed at this particular cultural moment The final section focuses on specific forms or genres that grew to special prominence during the 1950s Taken together the chapters in the four sections not only encourage us to rethink familiar texts and figures in new lights but they also propose new archives for future study of the decade

Reference Library of Black America Harry A. Ploski, James De Bois Williams, 1990 Presents information on all aspects of Afro American life including politics employment and income education religion literature performing arts science and medicine and sports

African American Mystery Writers Frankie Y. Bailey, 2014-01-10 The book describes the movement by African American authors from slave narratives and antebellum newspapers into fiction writing and the subsequent developments of black genre fiction through the present It analyzes works by modern African American mystery writers focusing on sleuths the social locations of crime victims and offenders the notion of doing justice and the role of African American cultural vernacular in mystery fiction A final section focuses on readers and reading examining African American mystery writers access to the marketplace and the issue of the double audience raised by earlier writers
