Blue-Ribbon Babies and Labors of Love Christine Ward Gailey,2010-02-01 Most Americans assume that shared genes or blood relationships provide the strongest basis for family What can adoption tell us about this widespread belief and American kinship in general Blue Ribbon Babies and Labors of Love examines the ways class gender and race shape public and private adoption in the United States Christine Ward Gailey analyzes the controversies surrounding international public and transracial adoption and how the political and economic dynamics that shape adoption policies and practices affect the lives of people in the adoption nexus adopters adoptees birth parents and agents within and across borders Interviews with white and African American adopters adoption social workers and adoption lawyers combined with her long term participant observation in adoptive communities inform her analysis of how adopters beliefs parallel or diverge from the dominant assumptions about kinship and family Gailey demonstrates that the ways adoptive parents speak about their children vary across hierarchies of race class and gender She shows that adopters notions about their children s backgrounds and early experiences as well as their own family values influence child rearing practices Her extensive interviews with 131 adopters reveal profoundly different practices of kinship in the United States today Moving beyond the ideology of blood is thicker than water Gailey presents a new way of viewing kinship and family formation suitable to times of rapid social and cultural change The Intercountry Adoption Debate

Robert L. Ballard,Robert F. Cochran,Naomi H. Goodno,2015-06-18 Meaningful discussion about intercountry adoption the adoption of a child from one country by a family from another country necessitates an understanding of a complex range of issues These issues intersect at multiple levels and processes span geographic and political boundaries and emerge from radically different cultural beliefs and systems The result is a myriad of benefits and costs that are both global and deeply personal in scope This edited volume introduces this complexity an Conversation Analysis for Social Work Gerald de Montigny,2018-10-11 What do the stories youth in state care tell about life in their family of origin What stories do they tell us about coming into care living in care and relationships with foster parents and social workers This book presents the stories of youth in care though not in splendid isolation but as interactively produced turn by turn in interviews and in conversations with other youth By using tools from conversation analysis CA the author examines interviews with youth in care and social workers to unfold the essential and incorrigible reflexivity of story production CA allows us to grasp the ways that a youth's story emerges turn by turn and is an artefact of a social relation between a youth and an interviewer This text provides social work readers with a sense of artistry and ambiguity at the heart of social interaction It will be required reading for all social work students and academics looking for a deeper more philosophical understanding of the profession

Prodigal Father Mark A. Bryan, 1997 In The Prodigal Father Mark Bryan addresses this important social issue by offering a proven program to help fathers assume a vital role in their children's lives Through my work and my own experience as an absent father I've come to realize that what we call deadbeat dads are actually broken hearted dads says Bryan Living in shame and denial about the pain of their loss even when they were the ones who decided to give up their kids these men feel hopeless and overwhelmed at the thought of attempting a reunion Mark Bryan knows the problems of men who are divorced and don't see their kids as often as they would like as well as those of the men who have totally lost touch with their children He knows the guilt and shame they feel the pangs at holiday times the wrench when a father is alone and sees other fathers playing with their kids taking them to school waiting with them in the line at McDonald's He knows how fathers wonder how they got out of the picture how they became extraneous He also knows that kids miss their fathers as much as their fathers miss them He knows this because he is a reunited father himself and because he has reunited many fathers with their children through his Father Project workshops Bryan tells many of their stories and his own in this book In The Prodigal Father Bryan recounts in detail the steps he took that led finally to the close relationship that he and his son Scott now enjoy More recently working with small groups of men around the country Bryan developed an eight step program to lead men from estrangement to reunion Many men who never expected to see their children again now see them regularly participate in decisions in their day to day lives and enjoy the richness and joy only children can provide Bryan's carefully conceived plan helps men negotiate the sensitive and potentially explosive path back It includes Acknowledging the loss and the pain Taking steps to regain self respect and become the man you'd want to father your children Making amends to your child's mother Planning the meeting with your child Reuniting Recognizing the specific needs of your child at each age Establishing an ongoing relationship becoming close Embracing your child's extended family the stepfather and half sisters and brothers A special chapter is addressed to mothers urging them to help in the reunion process Bryan's message will bring hope and happiness not only to the men who find their way back but to their children so often silent about their deep grief over the separation and to the mothers long overburdened by the responsibilities of single parenthood Says Bryan I will be touring to more than twenty cities to get the message of Reunion for Fathers across Will you help me reach those millions of fathers and mothers whose distance keeps their children from knowing their fathers Will you help those 21 million children who never see their fathers live fuller lives and gain a love they so fervently need I am asking your help to bring this message to your audience For this is not just a book It is a mission
