Leadership Chapter 6: Developing Exceptional Leaders: Critical Success Factors , Strategic Human Resource Development Matthias T. Meifert, 2014-01-20 In an era that has brought new and unexpected challenges for virtually every company one would be hard pressed to find any responsible manager who is not thinking about what the future will bring In the wake of these challenges strategic planning has moved from being the reserve of large corporations to becoming an essential need for even small and medium sized enterprises But what good is even the most convincing strategic concept if the company's people are unwilling or unable to put it into practice The key is to develop people and to develop them not only for the work of today but also for the challenges that the future holds Strategic HR development has become a decisive force for the success of any business This book edited by Matthias T Meifert shows us which basic considerations we need to remember and what strategic HR development means in practice Its interesting and vivid approach takes the reader on a tour of the eight stages of HR development introduces the critical factors and highlights many practical recommendations for strategic HR development practice in business A Phenomenological Inquiry of Women's Lived Experiences in

Preparing for High-Level Leadership Positions Aldith A. Bell, 2010-08-05 The purpose of the qualitative hermeneutic phenomenological study was to explore the influence of leadership development or succession planning programs upon women's progression to high level positions and their continued success in the executive ranks A qualitative methodology provided a detailed and rich understanding of the experiences of women in high level leadership from the perspectives of women who have experienced leadership development or succession planning programs Twenty women in high level leadership positions employed in for profit organizations in the eastern United States were the focus of the study The results revealed that while some aspects of the programs were effective upon promotion to their high level positions most of the women leaders expressed a lack of preparation for their high level positions Key issues the women executives indicated were missing in existing leadership development and succession planning programs were a on the job training b lack of mentors and c job rotation
