Hans-Jürgen Wagener

Systemic Change And Stabilization In Eastern Europe:

Systemic Change and Stabilization in Eastern Europe Anders Åslund, 1991 The systematic transformation from planning and bureaucratic co ordination to a liberal private capitalist economic order has been a historic challenge for Central and South East European countries It was inevitable that following the post revolutionary euphoria there would be a period of gathering stock as the true dimensions of the crisis came to be appreciated What is clear is that the road from crisis to capitalism will be long and bumpy and this book focuses on some of the key policy relevant theoretical issues of strategic transformation In doing this the contributors compare the situation in East Europe with non European experience particularly that of Latin America and attempt to establish a basis for redesigning and consolidating the crisis ridden Central and Eastern European States

On the Theory and Policy of Systemic Change Hans-Jürgen Wagener, 2012-12-06 Between 1989 and 1992 three colloquia on transformation problems were held at the Ludwig Reimers Stiftung Bad Homburg At the end of the 1980s the collapse of the Soviet type socialist economic system had become clear and hence the necessity to transform these systems into an entirely different economic order Similar processes have happened and still happen in other historical constellations for instance in developing countries It has been the aim of the Transformation Colloquium to gain more theoretical insight into these phenomena The object of research has been transformation defined as transition from a given economic order socialist planned economy e g to a consistent new order market economy This is a highly complex phenomenon which occurred above all during the 20th century introduction and abolition of socialist systems transition from war economies to peace time market economies Historical experience allows perhaps for certain generalizing abstractions The central problem discussed at all up to now three colloquia is the question whether the object is amenable for theoretical analysis and which approaches eventually are promising

Economic Transformation In East-central Europe And In The Newly Independent States Gabor Hunya, 2019-03-13 This book presents the most important areas of economic transformation in East Central Europe It describes the short experience of statehood of the newly independent states and deals with two topical problems of the leading reforming countries with fiscal policy and industrial policy

Eastern European Music Industries and Policies after the Fall of Communism Patryk Galuszka, 2021-04-06 During the last thirty years Eastern Europe has been a place of radical political economic and social transformation and these changes have affected the cultural industries of its countries This volume consists of twelve chapters by leading international researchers Stories are documented of various organisations that once dominated the communist music industries such as state owned record companies music festivals and collecting societies The strategies employed by artists and industries to join international music markets after the fall of communism are explained and evaluated Political and economic transformations that coincided with the advent of digitalisation and the Internet intensified the changes All these issues posed challenges both to record labels and artists who after adjusting to the rules of the free market economy were faced with the falling record sales of records caused by the advent of new communication technologies This book examines how these processes have all affected the music scene industries and markets in various Eastern European countries The East European Economy in Context David Turnock,2003-09-02 Since 1989 the former communist countries of Eastern Europe have witnessed a profound and dramatic upheaval The economic coherence of this region formerly maintained through the adoption of the Soviet system of government has fractured In The East European Economy in Context Communism and Transition David Turnock examines the transition from communist to free market economies both within and between the states of Eastern Europe As well as containing an informative survey of the impact of communism The East European Economy in Context provides Political profiles of individual countries A clear study of the contrasts between northern and balkan groups Summaries of regional variations in the transition process An exploration of the new state structures and resources Discussion of political stability inter ethnic tensions and progress in economic change The New Eastern Europe And The World Economy Jozef M. Van Brabant,2019-08-21 The unprecedented economic political and social changes that have followed the east European revolutions of late 1989 rank among the epochal events of the twentieth century The end of the cold war has opened up far reaching possibilities for international economic cooperation which may be able to stimulate economic growth in the region and revive interactions with the global economy This collection of essays comes to grips with the problems of repositioning the new Eastern economies in the global arena The contributors address four main themes freeing up foreign economic sectors through trade liberalization currency convertibility and greater access to markets for international capital the disintegration of the trade payment pricing and settlements systems based on the transferable ruble active participation in the key organizations entrusted with international financial monetary and trading regimes and strategies for using international economic assistance to alleviate adjustment costs with ongoing transition policies The Political Economy of the Transition Process in Eastern Europe Laszlo Somogyi,1993-01-01 This well produced book is a worthy contribution to the burgeoning literature on the transition The editor provides a useful introduction Ian Jeffries The Economic Journal provides a useful and readable introduction to many of the most important issues in the transition process Hugo Radice Economics of Transition Why has industrial output fallen in Eastern Europe and is further decline inevitable What lessons can be learned from the stabilization programmes of the first two years of the post communist era Should the transitional economies privatize quickly and where do they find the missing institutions essential to the proper working of capitalism In seeking answers to these and other questions The Political Economy of the Transition Process in Eastern Europe analyses the difficulties faced by nations attempting to move from a planned to a market economy with special emphasis on issues of macroeconomic stabilization and institutional change Foreign Economic Liberalization Andras Koves,2019-03-07 This groundbreaking volume combines theories of economic liberalization with a wide variety of case studies from market and socialist economies Internationally regarded scholars and Eastern European policymakers have collaborated to evaluate the dramatic economic changes taking place throughout the world The opening essays contribute to the theoretical debate by showing that foreign economic liberalization goes beyond reducing import barriers to policies on investment financial liberalization convertability and export promotion Case studies compare successful and unsuccessful liberalization attempts world wide The disintegration of the CMEA and the policy dilemmas facing Central and Eastern Europe are examined in great detail as the authors explore the pitfalls and opportunities inherent in the transformation from a centrally planned economy This up to date text will be invaluable for courses on the history and transformation of socialist economies comparative economic systems and international trade and investment The American Bibliography of Slavic and East European Studies Patt Leonard, Rebecca Routh, 2020-02-27 This bibliography first published in 1957 provides citations to North American academic literature on Europe Central Europe the Balkans the Baltic States and the former Soviet Union Organised by discipline it covers the arts humanities social sciences life sciences and technology The Political Economy of Asian Transition from Communism Sujian Guo, 2017-11-28 A comparative study of the political economy of the transition from communism in East and Southeast Asian countries China North Korea Vietnam Laos and Cambodia addressing the key theoretical questions generated from the debate between shock therapists and gradualists While accurately defining the pre reform model this book explores the causal variables that have contributed to reform efforts within Asia examining the significance of the sequencing of political and economic transition and the interplay between politics and the economy in determining variations in transition outcomes Comparing the real world experiences of transition nations in communist Asia with Eastern Europe prominent questions are brought to the fore will market capitalism or market socialism prevail after the grand failure of communism This book makes an important contribution to the political economy theory of comparative communist and post communist studies and provides detailed analytical insights that will prove influential in future theoretical work
