Current Research in Britain ,1994 Temporal Lobe Epilepsy and the Mind-Brain

Relationship: A New Perspective Shirley Ferguson, 2006-12-01 This book is devoted to the surgical treatment of epilepsy and its consequences and provides an extraordinary perspective on the fascinating question of the relationship between brain and mind. Contrary to the current emphasis on statistics and objectivity, this book is dedicated to understanding the whole person, the life and experiences of the individual. It reports on cutting edge technical skills provided with a human touch. This book reflects the understanding that the temporolimbic seizure originates in tissue providing the substrate for the emotional life and memory. Finally, it emphasizes the value of clinical research here conducted in the course of the diagnosis and surgical treatment of epilepsy in helping to elucidate the relationship between brain and mind.

Women Who Run with the Wolves Clarissa Pinkola Estés PhD, 1996-11-27 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER More than 2.7 million copies sold. A deeply spiritual book that honors what is tough, smart, and untamed in women. The Washington Post Book World Book Club pick for Emma Watson's Our Shared Shelf. Within every woman, there lives a powerful force filled with good instincts, passionate creativity, and ageless knowing. She is the Wild Woman, who represents the instinctual nature of women. But she is an endangered species. For though the gifts of wildish nature belong to us at birth, society's attempt to civilize us into rigid roles has muffled the deep, life-giving messages of our own souls. In Women Who Run with the Wolves, Dr. Clarissa Pinkola Estés unfolds rich intercultural myths, fairy tales, folk tales, and stories, many from her own traditions, in order to help women reconnect with the fierce, healthy, visionary attributes of this instinctual nature. Through the stories and commentaries in this remarkable book, we retrieve, examine, love, and understand the Wild Woman and hold her against our deep psyches as one who is both magic and medicine. Dr. Estés has created a new lexicon for describing the female psyche. Fertile and life-giving, it is a psychology of women in the truest sense: a knowing of the soul.

Unforced Flourishing Thomas Salumets, 2014-06-01 Are we ill-suited for this world? Among Europe's major contemporary poets, Estonia's Jaan Kaplinski offers a rare vision of human advancement and fulfillment: the less we intervene, the more we flourish. But how then can we remain involved in what evolves of its own accord? How can we move away from a life forged by human design towards a quietly attentive yet spontaneous responsiveness? In Unforced Flourishing, Thomas Salumets seeks access to Kaplinski's life and work and finds a path to the signature of his thinking. He uncovers a man who craves human closeness that few, if any, can provide; a writer drawn towards wordless communication in a world of words, signs, and symbols who yearns for the sacred in secular times and who detects more richness in nature than in the human imagination. Salumets describes Kaplinski as an intellectual attracted to a contrarian sense of self, art, and culture who searches for his homeland's mystical connections at a time when Estonia firmly aligns with values and modes of thought vastly different from his own. What emerges is a mentality firmly rooted in the belief that the greatest risk to human fulfillment results from human beings themselves. The first major study in English of one of Eastern Europe's most important literary figures, Unforced Flourishing details Kaplinski's embrace of that which is undifferentiated, intuitive, non-calculative, and natural in the modern world.
