Writing Islands Elena Lahr-Vivaz, 2022-10-25 Analyzing works of contemporary Cuban writers on the island alongside those in exile Elena Lahr Vivaz offers a new lens to explore the multiplicity of Cuban space and identity arguing that these writers approach their nation as part of a larger transnational network of islands Ancestral Voices, Healing Narratives Kristina S. Gibby, 2023-12-06 Ancestral Voices Healing Narratives Female Ghosts in Contemporary US and Caribbean Fiction examines four novels by Erna Brodber Zo Vald s Sandra Cisneros and Maryse Cond In this unique comparative analysis Kristina S Gibby explores the significance of female ghosts specifically maternal figures who haunt female narrators inspiring them to transcribe the dead s obfuscated hi stories and recover their family memory The author argues that these female ghosts subvert historiographic power structures through a matrilineal succession of knowledge via oral traditions of storytelling inevitably broadening historical consciousness and asserting the value of fiction in the face of historical rupture Gibby contends that in form and content these novels disrupt patriarchal and Western expectations of time and epistemology They favor cyclical temporality highlighted by the spirits uncanny return which underscores relational understanding and challenges the exclusive and limiting constraints of linear time This book makes important contributions to inter American literary criticism with its narrow focus on female authors who confront the horrors of history through maternal spirits convenient access to all forms of narrative written by Chicana and Latina authors from the early 1940s through 2002 In doing so it helps users locate these works and surveys the growth of this vast body of literature The volume cites more than 2 750 short stories novels novel excerpts and autobiographies written by some 600 Mexican American Puerto Rican Cuban American Dominican American and Nuyorican women authors These citations are grouped in five indexes an author title index title author index anthology index novel index and autobiography index Short annotations are provided for the anthologies novels and autobiographies Thus the user who knows the title of a work can discover the author the other works the author has written and the anthologies in which the author's shorter pieces have been reprinted along with information about particular works

Ambivalence and the Postcolonial Subject Gera Burton, 2004 Regarded as Cuba's most mysterious poet Juan Francisco Manzano continues to intrigue scholars across disciplines Using a postcolonial approach this book breaks new ground by exploring the poet's connection with the Irish civil rights champion Richard Robert Madden Drawing on previously untapped sources Gera C Burton takes a fresh look at the relationship between these two extraordinary individuals to reveal facts considered critical in achieving an understanding of their association with particular resonance for postcolonial studies What emerges regardless of their ambivalence is the creation of a strategic alliance forged by the two writers in opposition to the colonial powers Scholars in the fields of Latin American postcolonial and Diasporic studies along with specialists in Cuban and Irish studies will welcome this significant contribution to the body of work on la gente sin historia the people without a history

Cuban Currency Esther Kathryn Whitfield, 2008-01-01 With the collapse of the Soviet Union in the 1990s during an economic crisis termed its special period in times of peace Cuba began to court the capitalist world for the first time since its 1959 revolution With the U S dollar instated as domestic currency the island seemed suddenly accessible to foreign consumers and their interest in its culture boomed Cuban Currency is the first book to address the effects on Cuban literature of the country's spectacular opening to foreign markets that marked the end of the twentieth century Based on interviews and archival research in Havana Esther Whitfield argues that writers have both challenged and profited from new transnational markets for their work with far reaching literary and ideological implications Whitfield examines money and cross cultural economic relations as they are inscribed in Cuban fiction Exploring the work of Zo Valds Pedro Juan Gutierrez Antonio Jos Ponte and others she draws out writers' engagements with the troublesome commodification of Cuban identity Confronting the tourist and publishing industries' roles in the transformation of the Cuban revolution into commercial capital Whitfield identifies a body of fiction peculiarly attuned to the material and political challenges of the special period Esther Whitfield is assistant professor of comparative literature at Brown University Gender and the Self in Latin American Literature Emma Staniland, 2015-10-05

This book explores six texts from across Spanish America in which the coming of age story Bildungsroman offers a critique of gendered selfhood as experienced in the region's socio cultural contexts Looking at a range of novels from the late twentieth century Staniland explores thematic concerns in terms of their role in elucidating a literary journey towards agency that is towards the articulation of a socially and personally viable female gendered identity mindful of both the hegemonic discourses that constrain it and the possibility of their deconstruction and reconfiguration Myth exile and the female body are the three central themes for understanding the personal social and political aims of the Post Boom women writers whose work is explored in this volume Isabel Allende Laura Esquivel Angeles Mastretta Sylvia Molloy Cristina Peri Rossi and Zo Valdés Their adoption and adaptation of an originally eighteenth century and European literary genre is seen here to reshape the global canon as much as it works to reshape our understanding of gendered identities as socially constructed culturally contingent and open ended The Cambridge Companion to the Latin American Novel Efraín Kristal, 2005-05-26 The diverse countries of Latin America have produced a lively and ever evolving tradition of novels many of which are read in translation all over the world This Companion offers a broad overview of the novel's history and analyses in depth several representative works by for example Gabriel García Márquez Machado de Assis Isabel Allende and Mario Vargas Llosa The essays collected here offer several entryways into the understanding and appreciation of the Latin American novel in Spanish speaking America and Brazil The volume conveys a real sense of the heterogeneity of Latin American literature highlighting regions whose cultural and geopolitical particularities are often overlooked Indispensable to students of Latin American or Hispanic studies and those interested in comparative literature and the development of the novel as genre the Companion features a comprehensive bibliography and chronology and concludes with an essay about the success of Latin American novels in translation
