Teachers Guide To The Cold War:

The Cold War Gennie Westbrook, 2003-10 Document-Based Assessment Activities for Global History Classes Theresa C. Noonan, 1999 Covers all significant eras of global history Encourages students to analyze evidence documents and other data to make informed decisions Develops essential writing skills Behind the Iron Curtain Jeffrey M. Byford, 2012-06-14 Behind the Iron Curtain A Teacher's Guide to East Germany and Cold War Activities discusses teaching Cold War activities through an East German perspective The book is comprised of eight chapters that examine various pedagogical approaches and historical background associated with East Germany's role throughout the Cold War Topics in this book include multiple methods of differentiated instruction the beginnings of East Germany the creation of the Ministry for State Security the Berlin Wall youth and education a planned economy life and society of East Germans and the events that led to the fall of communism The heart of this book includes eighteen lessons associated with life behind the Iron Curtain Official Teacher's Guide for the Fog of War, 2004 The National Council of Teachers of English and Cold War Education Policies Curtis Mason, 2020-02-01 The launching of Sputnik in 1957 sparked an education movement that stressed the importance of curricular rigor and standardization as a means to improve education and bolster national defense Within six months of Sputnik's launch Congress passed the National Defense Education Act NDEA that approved an unprecedented amount of federal funding toward the math science and foreign language disciplines The teaching of English was left out and through the leadership of the National Council of Teachers of English NCTE the discipline maneuvered public relations and political connections in its quest to acquire federal funds In doing so the NCTE mimicked strategies that galvanized funding for math science and foreign language disciplines by arguing the importance of the teaching of English for national security and advocating for a teaching model that aligned with Cold War Era pedagogical trends These tactics marked a major shift in how the NCTE advocated for the teaching of English In the early twentieth century the organization embraced student centered education practices connected to the ideas of progressive educators This perspective continued with the creation and expansion of life adjustment education during the 1930s and 40s During this era many NCTE authors recommended this movement that advocated connecting education to future adult experiences Following Sputnik NCTE leaders supported content centered reforms Instead of curriculum recommendations based in discovering and fostering relevant student experiences the NCTE's focus became adjusting student learning to predefined skills it thought all students should possess This trend was supported by conceptions of Cold War education models including those advocated by their rival English organization the Modern Language Association MLA The MLA had successfully worked with federal actors in attaining funding for foreign language training institutes and the NCTE's collaboration with the MLA represented a shift in adopting ideas it was previously opposed to promoting Despite their efforts the NCTE was not a part of NDEA reauthorization in 1961 the federal government led by U S Commissioner of Education Sterling McMurrin funded teacher training institutes for the study of English through a program called Project English The 1960s continued with the NCTE representing stronger content centered ideas before shifting in less than a decade as indicated by the materials produced by the 1966 AngloAmerican Conference on English at Dartmouth Here NCTE leaders reassessed their beliefs after meeting with British educators who advocated student centered curriculum models and reintroduced benefits of experiential education These ideas would manifest into studentcentered curriculum models during the late 1960s and 1970s Teaching 20th-century European History Robert Stradling,2001-01-01 Produced for the Council of Europe project Learning and teaching about the history of Europe in the 20th century this book concentrates on the how rather than the what of teaching Besides a study of selected themes and topics it covers the teaching of sensitive issues the reading of visual archives analysing history on television and the Internet and assessing new technologies Some of these new sources have not been made part of standard teacher training yet they have a powerful role in the way young people perceive the past The author is a Senior Research Fellow at Leirsinn Research Centre University of Highlands and Islands Millennium Institute Resources in Education ,2001-10

A Cold War Exodus Shaul Kelner,2024-04-23 From twinning bar and bat mitzvahs to smuggling blue jeans across the Iron Curtain A Cold War exodus analyzes how Cold War era social movement activists invented the mass mobilization tactics that helped free Soviet Jews and reshaped Jewish American culture in the process The New Cold War Edward Lucas,2009-03-17 The first edition of The New Cold War was published to great critical acclaim and Edward Lucas has established himself as a top expert in the field appearing on numerous programs including Lou Dobbs MSNBC NBC Nightly News CNN and NPR In this new revised and updated edition for 2009 Lucas reveals The truth about the corrupt elections that made Dmitri Medvedev President of Russia How as prime minister Vladimir Putin remains the de facto leader of Russia The Kremlin s real goals in waging war in Georgia How the conflict might soon spill into other former Soviet republics Hard hitting and powerful The New Cold War is a sobering look at Russia s current aggression and what it means for the world

Cold War & 1950s ,2007 Involving students in real historical problems that convey powerful lessons about U S history these thought provoking activities combine core content with valuable practice in decision making critical thinking and understanding multiple perspectives O Reilly an experienced award winning teacher has students tackle fascinating historical questions that put students in the shoes of a range of people from the past from the rich and famous to ordinary citizens Each lesson can be done either as an in depth activity or as a quick motivator Detailed teacher pages give step by step instructions list key vocabulary terms offer troubleshooting tips present ideas for post activity discussions and furnish lists of related sources Reproducible student handouts clearly lay out the decision making scenarios provide outcomes and present related primary source readings and or images with analysis questions Page 4 of cover
