Teaching 10 To 14 Year Olds:

Teaching the Faith Donna Habenicht, Larry Dale Burton, 2004 Teaching History 11-18 Husbands, Chris, Kitson, Alison, 2010-07-01 This book provides a comprehensive and radical guide to the challenges facing history and history teaching in contemporary schools Teaching History 11 - 18 Chris Husbands, Alison Kitson, 2010-07-16 Teaching History 11 18 is a comprehensive introduction to teaching learning and assessing history in secondary schools Drawing on cutting edge research and practice it draws together recent thinking in teaching and learning in history teaching and learning in secondary education more generally and classroom based research to provide a radical re thinking of the practices of teaching and learning about the past at the beginning of the twenty first century At the core of the book is a focus on diversity and its implications the diversity of classrooms in English schools cultural diversity and pluralism in accounts of the past and the diversity of pedagogic and communicative strategies at the disposal of teachers The book is realistic about the challenges a precarious place in the curriculum pupil disaffection bitter ideological debates about the purpose place and status of history but offers a forward looking rationale for the centrality of the past in debates about identity social cohesion and persona and social education Modelling-based Teaching in Science Education John K. Gilbert, Rosária Justi, 2016-05-30 This book argues that modelling should be a component of all school curricula that aspire to provide authentic science education for all The literature on modelling is reviewed and a model of modelling is proposed The conditions for the successful implementation of the model of modelling in classrooms are explored and illustrated from practical experience The roles of argumentation visualisation and analogical reasoning in successful modelling based teaching are reviewed The contribution of such teaching to both the learning of key scientific concepts and an understanding of the nature of science are established Approaches to the design of curricula that facilitate the progressive grasp of the knowledge and skills entailed in modelling are outlined Recognising that the approach will both represent a substantial change from the content transmission approach to science teaching and be in accordance with current best practice in science education the design of suitable approaches to teacher education are discussed Finally the challenges that modelling based education pose to science education researchers advanced students of science education and curriculum design teacher educators public examiners and textbook designers are all outlined Training to Teach in Primary Schools Jane Medwell, 2015-03-19 Full of practical help and guidance this is a must have for primary trainees on school experience whether they are in a school based or university based teacher training programme It begins by helping trainees to plan their own journey through training and beyond Taking control of their own training in this way supports student teachers to approach the course with confidence and secure their first teaching job The book provides guidance on adapting to working in school observing planning and evaluating in school teaching on placement assessing monitoring and reporting on children s progress self evaluation and how to pre empt and resolve issues securing the first teaching job and succeeding in the NQT

year For student teachers the experience of school based training is exciting but also challenging this book supports them throughout and prepares them for the journey ahead Student feedback on this book Having been on a variety of teaching placements myself I know just how daunting and overwhelming experiences in school can be at times even with a supportive mentor by your side Hence I felt that this book can smooth out and rectify those worries one may face during a school placement and offers the reader a realistic insight into school experiences In my opinion the most useful chapter by far is the Moving On chapter near the end of the book This explains how to conclude a school placement what to expect from an interview and even how to set out a CV for a teaching position This was not something I expected to find in this book however it was very much welcomed and is in fact a very important valuable part of the book This is the type of book you can buy on your very first day of teacher training and use well into your days as a newly qualified teacher Jasmin Primary Teacher Trainee University of Northampton
