The Circle Of Love:

The Circle of Love Llewellyn Vaughan-Lee, 1999-03-18 The circle of divine love is always present within the heart The journey of the mystic is to retrace this circle and so experience the oneness that is hidden within us In The Circle of Love Llewellyn Vaughan Lee continues his work of providing a contemporary understanding of Sufism drawing us into this mystery of the soul He describes the way of mystical prayer and of listening with the heart He offers valuable insight into power and the spiritual life how to use one's power to break free of restrictions and live the joy of one's divine nature He explores the primordial question of why we so easily forget our origin in God Finally The Circle of Love takes us deep into the mystical secret of being lost in God to the center of the circle where the lover merges into the Beloved and the heart's deepest truth is revealed Vaughan Lee calls us back to the circle of love where nothing is excluded Spirituality Practice

Kellenberger, 2018-10-16 Discusses the complexities and paradoxes of love as represented in the history of Western philosophy and Christianity In The Asymptote of Love James Kellenberger develops a theory of religious love that resists essentialist definitions of the term and brings into conversation historical debates on love in Western philosophy and Christian theology He argues that if love can be likened to a mathematical asymptote which is a straight line that infinitely approaches a curve but never quite reaches it then the asymptote of love reaches toward the infinite endpoint of love at its uttermost namely God's love Drawing upon a broad range of thinkers who have put forth classic debates on love such as St Augustine of Hippo Anders Nygren and St Thomas Aquinas as well as some lesser known figures in the debate such as Leo Tolstoy and Albert Schweitzer Kellenberger explains the profound connection between human agape and God's infinite love in its capacity to offer both directive guidance and to exist beyond human conception The widening of the circle of love is a rather novel contribution both from the author and from the twentieth century in general For this reason alone the book stands out in contemporary publishing Joeri Schrijvers author of Between Faith and Belief Toward a Contemporary Phenomenology of Religious Life A Tribute to Mothers: Cherished Bonds of Love Pasquale De Marco, 2025-07-24 A Tribute to Mothers Cherished Bonds of Love celebrates the extraordinary bond between mothers and their children This heartfelt collection of reflections stories and insights explores the many facets of motherhood from the first moments of a child's life to the enduring legacy that mothers leave on their families Through a tapestry of personal anecdotes

Love in the Religions of the World Paul Caringella,Gregory Kaplan,2011-11-15 The study of comparative religion is no longer a matter merely for those interested in religion it is a matter of concern for everybody For irrespective of whether one believes in God religion is a major characteristic of identity And in the post 9 11 world every educated person is aware of how important it is to understand what others believe This collection of essays by international scholars emerged from an intense and powerful dialogue at the University of Hong Kong about love in the major religions of the world Eschewing the comforting but ultimately erroneous and dangerous idea that all religions believe more or less the same thing each essay examines the role and nature of love in a major religion of the world It is an invaluable guide for students teachers and the general reader wanting to cut through the morass of doctrinal differences and emphases in the world s religions It also makes an important contribution to the urgent issue of dialogue amongst faiths and cultures

Phenomenologies of Love ,2025-03-13 This edited volume offers a comprehensive view of various possible phenomenological approaches of the experience of love ranging from classical historical perspectives up to contemporary and critical viewpoints It explores both the crucial importance of the question of love for the history of phenomenology as well as the rich potential of phenomenology for a deeper insight in the experience of love and its various dimensions such as its affective relational but also ethical and religious aspects

Gifts and Interests Antoon Vanderveelde,2000 According to a common understanding of economics economists attempt to understand and explain societal reality in the light of individual self interest For them a gift is no exception to this except for the slight and misleading veil of altruism which covers a purely egoistic motivation On the other hand theologians philosophers and ethicists use a more normative concept of man Man realises his best potential through deeds of selfless sacrifice that remain unknown to everyone In reality however people are either entirely egoistic nor altruistic Marcel Mauss model of the gift is interesting because it seems to escape the classical or rather modern egoism altruism dichotomy Gifts are not primarily motivated by the well being of myself or the other but rather by the desire to bring about or maintain a certain kind of social relation between giver and receiver Altruistic as well as egoistic motivations are an integral part of that relation The role of gifts in the constitution of social relations and social cohesion explains why most kinds of gifts are reciprocal and even obligatory In this book anthropologists sociologists and economists as well as philosophers focus on the question of the relevance of Mauss work on the gift for the understanding of actual social phenomena The Gospel of the Beloved Disciple Herman C. Waetjen, 2014-05-22 There is a general consensus that the Fourth Gospel underwent two editions But in contrast to all previous efforts to reconstruct these two editions on the basis of source and redaction criticism Waetjen maintains that these two editions essentially overlap without far reaching changes Chapter 1 20 originated within the Jewish community of Alexandria and were addressed to Jews in order to persuade them to believe into Jesus as the Messiah the Son of God The second edition originated when chapter 21 as added and certain revisions were made in chapters 1 20 by an editor in the Christian community of Ephesus in order to present the Gospel to Gentile Christians and perhaps attendantly to legitimate it for canonization Waetjen examines John s gospel by engaging in a close reading of various units of the Gospel from the perspective of a two level drama that presents two narrative worlds within the literary structure of the Gospel Out of his readings of the texts one of the major and provocative conclusions Waetjen draws is that Lazarus is the Beloved Disciple of Jesus in chapters 1 20 John the son of Zebedee is intimated to play the role of the Beloved Disciple not only in chapter 21 but throughout the Gospel In other words the editor of chapter 21 has concluded that John based on the title that the gospel already bears is the Beloved Disciple and project that backwards from chapter 21 throughout the previous 20 chapters Waetjen s thorough scholarship and his attention to detail in his original readings challenge traditional readings of John s Gospel providing fresh insights into the Gospel Cumulative List of Organizations Described in Section 170 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 ,1990 Cumulative List of Organizations Described in Section 170 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 ,2003
