Gould, Ananya Jahanara Kabir, Emma Tomalin, 2014-07-11 In 1962 the Commonwealth Immigrants Act hastened the process of South Asian migration to postcolonial Britain Half a decade later now is an opportune moment to revisit the accumulated writing about the diasporas formed through subsequent settlement and to probe the ways in which the South Asian diaspora can be re conceptualised Writing the City in British Asian Diasporas takes a fresh look at such matters and will have multi disciplinary resonance worldwide The meaning and importance of local multi local and trans local dynamics is explored through a devolved and regionally accented comparison of five British Asian cities Bradford the East End of London Manchester Leicester and Birmingham Analysing the writing of these differently configured cities since the 1960s its main focus is the significant discrepancies in representation between differently positioned texts reflecting both dominant institutional discourses and everyday lived experiences of a locality Part I offers a comprehensive yet still highly contested reading of each city's archives Part II examines how the arts and humanities fields of History Religion Gender and Literary

Cultural Studies have all written British Asian diasporas and how their perspectives might complement the better established agendas of the social sciences Providing an innovative analysis of South Asian communities and their multi local identities in Britain today this interdisciplinary book will be of interest to scholars of South Asian Studies Migration Ethnic and Diaspora Studies as well as Sociology Anthropology and Geography Bureaucracy, Belonging, and the City in North India

Michael S. Dodson, 2020-04-15 This book is a re evaluation of modern urbanism and architecture and a history of urbanism architecture and local identity in colonial north India at the turn of the twentieth century Focusing on Banaras and Jaunpur two of northern India s most traditional cities the book examines the workings of colonial bureaucracy in the cities and argues that interactions with the colonial state were an integral aspect of the ways that Indians created a sense of their own personal investment in the city in which they lived The book explores the every day and the mundane to better understand the limits of British colonial power and the role of Indians themselves in the making of the modern city Based on highly localized archival source material the author analyses two key aspects of city making in this era the building of new infrastructure such as water supply and sewerage and new policies governing historical architectural conservation The book also incorporates an ethnography of contemporary urban space in these cities to advocate for a more nuanced and responsible approach to writing the history of such cities and to address the myriad problems of present day north Indian urbanism Containing examples of bureaucratic procedure and its contradictions and enlivened by a set of personal reflections and narratives of the author s own experiences this book is a valuable addition to the field of South Asian Studies Asian History and Asian Culture and Society Colonial History and Urban History Philosophy and the City Keith

Jacobs, Jeff Malpas, 2019-03-15 Philosophy has its origins in the city and in the context of our own highly urbanised modes of living the relationship between philosophy and the city is more important than ever The city is the place in which most humans now play out their lives and the place that determines much of the cultural social economic and political life of the contemporary world Towards a Philosophy of the City explores a wide range of approaches and perspectives in a way that is true to the city s complex and dynamic character The volume begins with a comprehensive introduction that identifies the key themes and then moves through four parts examining the concept of the city itself its varying histories and experiences the character of the landscapes that belong to the city and finally the impact of new technologies for the future of city spaces Each section takes up aspects of the thinking of the city as it develops in relation to particular problems contexts and sometimes as exemplified in particular cities This volume provides an invaluable resource for students and scholars in Philosophy Geography Sociology and Urban Studies Prayer in the City Patrick A. Desplat, Dorothea E.

Schulz, 2014-03-15 This volume envisions social practices surrounding mosques shrines and public spaces in urban contexts as a window on the diverse ways in which Muslims in different regional and historical settings imagine experience and inhabit places and spaces as sacred Unlike most studies on Muslim communities this volume focuses on cultural material and sensuous practices and urban everyday experience Drawing on a range of analytical perspectives the contributions examine spatial practices in Muslim societies from an interdisciplinary perspective an approach which has been widely neglected both in Islamic studies and social sciences The Making of a Smart City in Korea Jaehyeon Jeong, Hojeong Lee, Joong-Hwan Oh, 2023-05-02 The Making of a Smart City in Korea The Quest for E Seoul displays how the notion of the smart city has been interpreted and applied in Seoul the capital and largest metropolis of South Korea The contributors show how a shift into a digital city has brought about noticeable changes in the governance economics and cultures of Seoul This edited volume on the Seoul Metropolitan Government s quest for e Seoul provides great resources for many cities worldwide seeking to benchmark this particular type of smart city as well as for all those academics in the fields to learn it given that Seoul has systematically pushed different stages and strategies of the smart urbanization Interpreting the City Truman Asa Hartshorn, 1992-04-16 The Second Edition has been rewritten to provide additional coverage of topics such as urban development and third world cities as well as social issues including homelessness jobs housing mismatch and transportation disadvantages It has also been updated with 1990 Census data Borderland City in New India Duncan McDuié-Ra, 2025-10-01 While India has been a popular subject of scholarly analysis in the past decade the majority of that attention has been focused on its major cities This volume instead explores contemporary urban life in a smaller city located in India s Northeast borderland at a time of dramatic change showing how this city has been profoundly affected by armed conflict militarism displacement interethnic tensions and the expansion of neoliberal capitalism
