The Coming Climax of History Jim McKeever, 1983-04-01 The DNA of History Pete Schwalm, 2014-08-08 This book discusses the three themes of grace mercy and judgment within the context of four major time frames The first three epochs each culminating in unique judgments provide historical precedents to the fourth in which we live As we near what might be the end of the fourth and final epoch it is imperative that we learn from the first three By grasping the first three historical precedents as prelude to the fourth people can choose to become informed prepare personally and live The Next to Last Word Michael P. V. Barrett, 2015-07-27 Haggai Zechariah and Malachi the often ignored Minor Prophets delivered the next to last word to God's people That is these prophets pointed Israel to Christ the supreme and final Word and warned them against rejecting Him Underscoring the truth that studying this portion of Scripture is profitable 2 Tim 3:16 Michael Barrett helps us discern the relevance of these prophets for today He explains the prophetic office the historical setting of the postexilic books and their contributions to God's overall redemptive message before considering the specific messages of each of these books in depth Study questions at the end of each chapter enhance individual and group Bible study Table of Contents Part 1 Just the Facts 1 Facts about Their Job 2 Facts about Their Times Part 2 Haggai The Realist 3 Facts about Haggai 4 It's Not about You 5 Appearance Is Not Reality 6 Blessing Starts Now 7 The Best Is Yet to Be Part 3 Zechariah The Idealist 8 Facts about Zechariah 9 The Foundation of Hope 10 The Focus of Hope The Prophet 11 The Focus of Hope The Priest 12 The Focus of Hope The King 13 The Fulfillment of Hope Generally Speaking Figuratively Speaking Part 4 Malachi The Logician 14 Facts about Malachi 15 The Autopsy of Dead Religion 16 The Answer to Dead Religion 17 The Antithesis to Dead Religion Millennial Dreams and Apocalyptic Nightmares Angela M. Lahr, 2007-10-31 The Religious Right came to prominence in the early 1980s but it was born during the early Cold War Evangelical leaders like Billy Graham driven by a fierce opposition to communism led evangelicals out of the political wilderness they'd inhabited since the Scopes trial and into a much more active engagement with the important issues of the day How did the conservative evangelical culture move into the political mainstream Angela Lahr seeks to answer this important question She shows how evangelicals who had felt marginalized by American culture drew upon their eschatological belief in the Second Coming of Christ and a subsequent glorious millennium to find common cause with more mainstream Americans who also feared a soon coming end albeit from nuclear war In the early postwar climate of nuclear fear and anticommunism the apocalyptic eschatology of premillennial dispensationalism embraced by many evangelicals meshed very well with the secular apocalyptic mood of a society equally terrified of the Bomb and of communism She argues that the development of the bomb the creation of the state of Israel and the Cuban Missile Crisis combined with evangelical end times theology to shape conservative evangelical political identity and to influence secular views Millennial beliefs influenced evangelical interpretation of these events repeatedly energized evangelical efforts and helped evangelicals view themselves and be viewed by others as a vital and legitimate segment of American culture even when it raised its voice in sharp criticism of aspects of that culture Conservative Protestants were able to take advantage of this situation to carve out a new space for their subculture within the national arena The greater legitimacy that evangelicals gained in the early Cold War provided the foundation of a power base in the national political culture that the religious right would draw on in the late seventies and early eighties The result she demonstrates was the alliance of religious and political conservatives that holds power today The Book of Revelation G.
