The Common Good And Us Capitalism:

Technology and the Common Good Allen Batteau, 2022-06-10 Building on the work of Elinor Ostrom Governing the Commons the author examines how the different shared goods of a democratic society are shaped by technology and demonstrates how club goods common pool resources and public goods are supported enhanced and disrupted by technology He further argues that as the common good is undermined by different interests it should be possible to reclaim technology if the members of the society conclude that they have something in common Free Persons and the Common Good Michael Novak, 1989 Bridges the gap between the Catholic idea of commonwealth and Protestant liberal tradition That They be One Michael Joseph Schuck, 1991 The social teaching of the Roman Catholic Church has aroused public interest in recent years with the increased involvement of North American bishops in matters of civic morality with the growth of liberation theology in Central and South America and with the ongoing political and economic statements of Pope John Paul II A vital ingredient of Roman Catholic social teaching is the papal encyclical literature Debate grows however over exactly what the papal letters teach Noteworthy encyclical commentaries exist but none has attempted a comprehensive historical analysis of the complete content and overall coherence of Roman Catholic encyclical social teaching This book appearing in advance of the 1991 centennial of Rerum novarum provides the kind of analysis that concerned Roman Catholics public officials social ethicists theologians and students are looking for a textually inclusive and topically broad gauged study of Catholic social teaching in its historical development with a forthright assessment of the teaching s contradictions and consistencies The Christian Consumer Laura M. Hartman, 2011-11-29 Consumption the flow of physical materials in human lives is an important ethical issue Out consumption choices affect the well being of humans around the globe in addition to impacting the natural world and consumers themselves In this book Laura Hartman seeks to formulate a coherent Christian ethic of consumption American Catholics and Civic Engagement Margaret O'Brien Steinfels, 2004 Sheed Ward proudly presents the first of two volumes in a groundbreaking series called American Catholics in the Public Square The result of a three year study sponsored by Pew aimed at understanding the contributions to U S civic life of the Catholic Jewish mainline and evangelical Protestant African American Latino and Muslim communities in the United States the two volumes in this series gather selected essays from the Commonweal Colloquia and the joint meetings organized by the Commonweal Foundation and The Faith and Reason Institute a conservative think tank in Washington Cultural Landscapes Gabriel R. Ricci, 2018-02-06 A dualism between man and nature has been a persistent feature of Western thought and spirituality from ancient times to the present The opposition of mind and body consciousness and world has tended to obscure the ways in which humans are ecologically part of interconnected systems some of which are obvious while others operate in hidden but life sustaining ways Cultural Landscapes explores the physical ways in which we are intimately linked to the land and the intellectual and aesthetic connections human consciousness has with the landscape Following the editor s introductory essay the lead article by Jame Schaeffer Quest for the Common Good A Collaborative Public Theology for a Life Sustaining Climate assesses the lightning rod issue of global warming in the context of a public and ecumenical theology and sets the tone for this normative assessment of our relationship with nature Likewise David Kenley's essay Three Gorges be Dammed The Philosophical Roots of Environmentalism in China reveals the traditional philosophical and cultural values that can sustain a vital environmentalism in the East David Brown's historical insights into the use of the American landscape to define historical writing complement Patricia Likos Ricci's historical treatment of nineteenth century landscape painting and the first call to preserve wilderness in the United States Matt Willen An Feochszn and David Martinez What Worlds are Made of The Lakota Sense of Place both demonstrate how space is transformed into place through song and mythic tales On a metaphysical note Andreas Philippopoulos Mihalopolos essay On the Line of the Horizon Anxiety in de Chirico's Metaphysical Spaces provides the reader with psychological and existential insights into the disorienting paintings of de Chirico and Gabriel Ricci's concluding essay tours the landscape that underpins Heidegger's ontological speculations The contributions to this volume are posited on the belief that culture society and human history are ultimately rooted in the natural world This integration may explain why humanity has always looked to nature for moral and ethical guidelines Gabriel R Ricci is associate professor of humanities and the chair of the Department of History at Elizabethtown College in Pennsylvania He is the author of Time Consciousness The Philosophical Uses of History published by Transaction Catholics for the Common Good Grigsby, Daryl Russell, 2024 Portraits of forty two individuals who embody self sacrifice solidarity with the poor authentic prayerfulness inclusive spirituality work for justice and dedication to peace Sacred and Social Kenneth R. Himes, 2025-05-01 A study of the deep historical roots of Catholic Social Teaching What is often neglected in studies of Catholic Social Teaching CST is the underlying theology that it presumes especially the biblical and patristic roots that have forged a broader tradition of social thought than is found in the more recent writings of the Catholic hierarchy Sacred and Social fills this gap by providing an extended analysis of the Catholic understanding of the human person especially the beliefs in human dignity and humanity's essentially social nature Himes argues that before the documents of the modern papacy a rich tradition already shaped and informed the Catholic lens on social reality He illustrates the theological basis for the ethical commitments of CST with the fundamental theological themes creation incarnation Trinity Body of Christ that gave rise to the Catholic social imagination The Common Good and U.S. Capitalism Oliver F. Williams, John W. Houck, 1987-05-26 This volume explores whether the concept of the common good might be retrieved and become central in contemporary religious social thought Contributors include Charles C West John J Collins Ralph McInerney J Philip Wogaman Charles E Curran Richard John Neuhaus Dennis P McCann Ernest Bartell Michael Novak Charles K Wilber John W Cooper Gar Alperovitz Richard T DeGeorge Gerald Cavanagh William J Cunningham Peter Mann Bette Jean Bullert and David Vogel Co published with the Notre Dame Center for Ethics and Religious Values in Business A Liberalism Safe for Catholicism?
