The Coast Way:

The Coast Way, 1988 What attracted Louise Abbott to the windswept landscape of the Lower North Shore of Quebec where remote isolated fishing villages cling to the barren rock of small harbours Perhaps it was her initial contact as a researcher for the CBC or childhood memories of Montreal radio reports predicting miserable weather for that inhospitable coast Fascinated by the place Abbott spent four years documenting life in fishing villages such as Blanc Sablon St Augustine and Kegaska

The Coast Road Paul Gogarty, 2013-04-17 Winner of the Travel Narrative Book of the Year in 2005 by the British Guild of Travel Writers BGTW The Coast Road presents an idiosyncratic and illuminating snapshot of England and what it is to be English today In this travelogue award winning writer Paul Gogarty travels 3 000 miles in a motorhome exploring intimate coastal communities and ruminating on the future of the English coast All points of the compass are covered after an unsettling benediction at Dover s Eastern Docks he travels to Derek Jarman s Dungeness to rakish Brighton and Madame Rosina s Bournemouth the mudflats and Arabian sands of the north west where he joins a roomful of George Formbys in Blackpool the now infamous Morcambe Bay Billy Butlin s Skegness and a parachuting vicar The journey comes full circle in the secret creeks of East Anglia The Coast Road is a warm hearted tribute to England s coastline written by a romantic spirit who beautifully captures both the idiosyncrasies of the nation and the euphoria of the open road

Norfolk (Slow Travel) Laurence Mitchell, 2014-03-01 Slow Norfolk although selective includes the whole of Norfolk from Great Yarmouth and the Broads to the east to the Fens of the far west from the iconic North Norfolk coast to the Breckland region to the south The Norfolk landscape is far more variable than many imagine and not quite as flat as it is usually reputed to be The North Norfolk coast considered to be one of the most beautiful stretches in England is also a hugely important habitat for wildlife especially migrating birds The interior of the county tends to be more overlooked yet also much to offer especially in terms of landscape historic monuments and characterful market towns The county has a rich mix of architectural variety with numerous country houses medieval churches Roman forts and Norman castles The county capital Norwich is an important centre for art and culture with its acclaimed Sainsbury Centre for Visual Arts and the annual highly rated Norwich and Norfolk Festival

The Eyes of the Desert Rats David Syrett, 2014-08-19 Made up of members of the Coldstream and Scots Guards British Yeomanry cavalry regiments New Zealanders South Africans and Indian Army men the Long Range Desert Group was perhaps the most effective of all the special forces established by the Allies during the Second World War It was able to go thousands of miles into enemy territory well armed and carrying its own supplies of petrol food and even water to last for weeks at a time something quite new in military history Using experience acquired in WWI and inter war exploration travels the LRDG thus developed the ability to appear almost anywhere in the desert to carry out almost every type of ground reconnaissance mission possible in desert warfare exploring and mapping the terrain transporting agents behind enemy lines or determining the strength and location of enemy forces with an extraordinary degree of accuracy and detail and thus able to verify or hide Ultra intelligence Equally important were their skills in the art of desert navigation demonstrated in the outflanking of the enemy during the Allied advance from El Alamein westward to Tunisia as led by the LRDG Once it had teamed up with the Special Air Service SAS made up of British Free French Commonwealth and Jewish Palestinian soldiers the LRDG perfected the art of irregular mechanized warfare conducted in the rear of the enemy's forces in the desert attacking enemy installations of all kinds mining roads raiding airfields destroying enemy aircraft on the ground and inflicting losses upon the enemy in inverse proportion to their own remarkably low rate of casualties Through meticulous research in original archival material this book thus tells the extraordinary story of how a relatively small number of dedicated men developed the methods and techniques for crossing by motor vehicle the depths of the then unmapped and seemingly impassable great deserts of Egypt and Libya the Western Desert during the British Army's North African Campaign of 1940-43 The Long Range Desert Group and the Special Air Service as a matter of course did extraordinary things the heroic was the commonplace Their tactics techniques and remarkable success in desert warfare continue to make them of great interest to the student of military affairs Likewise as it seeks to answer how the deep desert can best be used for military purposes this study is pertinent to today's military operations perhaps more so than at any time since World War II this study provides fresh insights into the nature of desert warfare past present and future and reveals the peculiarities of this warfare often lost to modern armies a virtual primer useful to commanders and soldiers alike At long last this book can find its rightful place in the classroom of military courses and colleges and in the hands of those interested in the intricacies complexities and
