

THE COLLECTED STORIES OF

An Art Deco style illustration of a woman with dark hair, wearing a long, flowing dress with a green floral and bird pattern over a pink undergarment. She is seated at a desk, looking towards the right. On the desk are a small pink box and a dark bottle. In the background, a window shows a cityscape with a grid of lights. To the right, a yellow lamp is visible. The entire scene is framed within a stylized, geometric border.

The Collected Stories Of Colette:

Collected Stories of Colette Colette, 1983 100 stories dating from 1908 to 1945 The Collected Stories of Colette Colette, 1985 The stories of Colette Colette, 1971 New York Magazine, 1983-11-07 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea The Collected Stories William Trevor, 1993-12-01 A collection of short stories from celebrated author William Trevor in which he shines a light on the day to day life of Ireland and its citizens From his debut collection The Day We Got Drunk on Cake published in 1968 to Family Sins 1990 William Trevor has crafted the short story to perfection giving us brilliant and subtle stories full of the reversals surprises and shadowy truths we discover in life itself To read this volume is not just to encounter an extraordinary literary stylist but to understand life as surely as though we were looking through the eyes of his protagonists and deeper still into their hearts William Trevor The Collected Stories includes the tales from his seven previous books as well as four stories that have never appeared in book form in America They depict the comforts and frustrations of life in rural Ireland the complexities of family relationships and the elusive grace of love They portray the almost invisible strands that bind people to each other as well as the chains that imprison them in solitary yearning The Collected Stories of Mavis Gallant Mavis Gallant, 2016-08-09 This generous collection of fifty two stories selected from across her prolific career by the author includes a preface in which she discusses the sources of her art A widely admired master of the short story Mavis Gallant was a Canadian born writer who lived in France and died in 2014 at the age of ninety one Her more than one hundred stories most published in The New Yorker over five decades beginning in 1951 have influenced generations of writers and earned her comparisons to Anton Chekhov Henry James and George Eliot She has been hailed by Michael Ondaatje as one of the great story writers of our time With irony and an unfailing eye for the telling detail Gallant weaves stories of spare complexity often pushing the boundaries of the form in boldly unconventional directions The settings in The Collected Stories range from Paris to Berlin to Switzerland from the Italian Riviera to the Côte d'Azur and her characters are almost all exiles of one sort or another as she herself was for most of her expatriate life The wit and precision of her prose combined with her expansive view of humanity provide a rare and deep reading pleasure With breathtaking control and compression Gallant delivers a whole life a whole world in each story The Force of Beauty Holly Grout, 2015-05-13 The market for commercial beauty products exploded in Third Republic France with a proliferation of goods promising to erase female imperfections and perpetuate an aesthetic of femininity that conveyed health and respectability While the industry's meteoric growth helped to codify conventional standards of womanhood The Force of Beauty goes beyond the narrative of beauty culture as a tool for sociopolitical

subjugation to show how it also targeted women as important consumers in major markets and created new avenues by which they could express their identities and challenge or reinforce gender norms As cosmetics companies and cultural media from magazines to novels to cinema urged women to aspire to commercial standards of female perfection beauty evolved as a goal to be pursued rather than a biological inheritance The products and techniques that enabled women to embody society's feminine ideal also taught them how to fashion their bodies into objects of desire and thus offered a subversive tool of self expression Holly Grout explores attempts by commercial beauty culture to reconcile a standard of respectability with female sexuality as well as its efforts to position French women within the global phenomenon of changing views on modern womanhood Grout draws on a wide range of primary sources hygiene manuals professional and legal debates about the right to fabricate and distribute medicines advertisements for beauty products and contemporary fiction and works of art to explore how French women navigated changing views on femininity Her seamless integration of gender studies with business history aesthetics and the history of medicine results in a textured and complex study of the relationship between the politics of womanhood and the politics of beauty Transnational Jean Rhys Juliana

Lopoukhine, Frédéric Regard, Kerry-Jane Wallart, 2020-12-10 This volume investigates the frameworks that can be applied to reading Caribbean author Jean Rhys While Wide Sargasso Sea famously displays overt forms of literary influences Jean Rhys's entire oeuvre is so fraught with connections to other texts and textual practices across geographical boundaries that her classification as a cosmopolitan modernist writer is due for reassessment Transnational Jean Rhys argues against the relative isolationism that is sometimes associated with Rhys's writing by demonstrating both how she was influenced by a wide range of foreign especially French authors and how her influence was in turn disseminated in myriad directions Including an interview with Black Atlantic novelist Caryl Phillips this collection charts new territories in the influences on of an author known for her dislike of literary coteries but whose literary communality has been underestimated Thinking through the Mothers Janet Beizer, 2011-03-15 If questions of subjectivity and identification are at stake in all biographical writing they are particularly trenchant for contemporary women biographers of women Often their efforts to exhume buried lives in hope of finding spiritual foremothers awaken maternal phantoms that must be embraced or confronted Do women writing in fact have any greater access to their own mothers' lives than to the lives of other women whose stories have been swept away like dust in the debris of the past In Thinking through the Mothers Janet Beizer surveys modern women's biographies and contemplates alternatives to an approach based in lineage and the form of thought that emphasizes the line the path hierarchy unity resemblance reflection and the aesthetic mimesis that depends on these ideas Through close readings of memoirs and fictions about mothers Beizer explores how biographers of the women who came before rehearse and rewrite relationships to their own mothers biographically as they seek to appropriate the past in a hybrid genre she calls bioautography Thinking through the Mothers features the work of George Sand and Colette and spans such varied figures as

Gustave Flaubert Julian Barnes Louise Colet Eunice Lipton Vladimir Nabokov Huguette Bouchardeau and Christa Wolf Beizer seeks an alternative to women's salvation biography or resurrection biography that might resist nostalgia be attentive to silence and reinvent the means to represent the lives of precursors without appropriating traditional models of genealogy

French Women Writers Eva Martin Sartori, Dorothy Wynne Zimmerman, 1994-01-01 Marie de France Mme De S vign and Mme De Lafayette achieved international reputations during periods when women in other European countries were able to write only letters translations religious tracts and miscellaneous fragments There were obstacles but French women writers were more or less sustained and empowered by the French culture Often unconventional in their personal lives and occupied with careers besides writing as educators painters actresses preachers salon hostesses labor organizers these women did not wait for Simone de Beauvoir to tell them to make existential choices and have projects in the world French Women Writers describes the lives and careers of fifty two literary figures from the twelfth century to the late twentieth All the contributors are recognized authorities Some of their subjects like Colette and George Sand are celebrated and others are just now gaining critical notice From Christine de Pizan and Marguerite de Navarre to Rachilde and H l_ne Cixous from Louise Labe to Marguerite Duras these women speak through the centuries to issues of gender sexuality and language French Women Writers now becomes widely available in this Bison Book edition
