The Comforters:

The Comforters, 1964 The Comforter John Cumming, 1854 The Comforters, 1969 The Comforter William Robinson Clark, 1875 The Comforter Sergius Bulgakov, 2004-06-09 Sergius Bulgakov is widely considered to be the twentieth century's foremost Orthodox theologian and his book The Comforter is an utterly comprehensive and profound study of the Holy Spirit. Encyclopedic in scope, The Comforter explores all aspects of the doctrine of the Holy Spirit as they are viewed in the Orthodox tradition and throughout church history. The book has sections on the development of the doctrine of the Spirit in early Christianity and on the development of the doctrine of procession in the patristic and later Byzantine periods. It also touches on the place of the Holy Spirit in the Trinity and explores Old and New Testament notions of the Spirit of God. A concluding chapter deals with the mystical revelation of the Holy Spirit. Made available in English through the work of Boris Jakim, today's premier translator of Russian theology and philosophy into English, Bulgakov's Comforter in this edition is a major publishing event.

Popular Mechanics, 1981-04 Popular Mechanics inspires, instructs, and influences readers to help them master the modern world. Whether it's practical DIY home improvement tips, gadgets, and digital technology information on the newest cars or the latest breakthroughs in science, PM is the ultimate guide to our high-tech lifestyle.

The Massacre of the Innocents Warren Carter, 2023-01-30 In The Massacre of the Innocents: Studies in the Cultural Afterlife of a Gospel Scene, Warren Carter examines some fifty instances of the interpretation of the Matthean Massacre of the Innocents (Matt 2:16-18). He emphasizes the agency of interpreters who, in their particular contexts and media, think with the shocking Matthean scene to address the often tragic circumstances of their audiences. He argues throughout that the structure of the Gospel scene facilitates this thinking: with the scene structured as a triad of power relations with a tyrant, Herod, victims, infants and parents, and violent means of tyranny, the massacre. Interpreters use this triad of power relations to identify tyrant's victims and means of tyranny in their own situations. Carter illustrates the use of this triad of power relations across two millennia in numerous socio-political contexts and media as diverse as sermons, images, poems, and hymns, dramas, and festivals, films, novels, Christmas carols, and Children's Bibles.

The Ethical Challenge of Auschwitz and Hiroshima Darrell J. Fasching, 1993-07-01 This book addresses the problem of religion, ethics, and public policy in a global technological civilization. It attempts to do what narrative ethicists have said cannot be done: to construct a cross-cultural ethic of human dignity, human rights, and human liberation which respects the diversity of narrative traditions. It seeks to do this without succumbing to either ethical relativism or ethical absolutism. The author confronts directly the dominant narrative of our technological civilization: the Janus-faced myths of Apocalypse or Utopia. Through this myth, we view technology ambivalently as both the object of our dread and the source of our hope. The myth thus renders us ethically impotent: the very strength of our literal utopian euphoria sends us careening toward some literal apocalyptic final solution. The demonic narrative that dominated Auschwitz—killing in order to heal—is part of this Janus-faced technological mythos that emerged out of Hiroshima And it is this mythic narrative which underlies and structures much of public policy in our nuclear age This book proposes a coalition of members of holy communities and secular groups organized to prevent any future eruptions of the demonic Its goal is to construct a bridge not only over the abyss between religions East and West but also between religious and secular ethics The Surprise Auction Ruth Giles,2021-07-20 Starling Rose loves to go to auctions where she can find many unique treasures Her brother was the Auctioneer at the auction as she experiences the joy of the winning bid She is confronted with challenges from the box lot items to the old comforters that she purchased at the auction She is a single mother of two children trying balance her personal aspirations and her dreams of successfully raise them to adulthood She tells about how she shared her treasures from the auction and taught her children the joy of giving back The road may be rocky at times but the key is to find joy in the journey It was a journey she was going to have to take in order to heal and move on with her life Federal Register ,1994-03
