University of California Union Catalog of Monographs Cataloged by the Nine Campuses from 1963 Through 1967: Subjects University of California (System). Institute of Library Research, University of California, Berkeley, 1972 Handbook of the Theosophical Current Olav Hammer, Mikael Rothstein, 2013-01-09 This title represents pioneering research into an important but under researched current The three sections in the book are devoted to the Theosophical Society Theosophically influenced religious currents and the interaction between Theosophy and surrounding culture Monographs in Art and Archaeology Fogg Art Museum, 1971 The Dissolution of the Monasteries James G.

Clark, 2022 The first account of the dissolution of the monasteries for fifty years exploring its profound impact on the people of Tudor England This is a book about people though not ideas and as a detailed account of an extraordinary human drama with a cast of thousands it is an exceptional piece of historical writing Lucy Wooding Times Literary Supplement Shortly before Easter 1540 saw the end of almost a millennium of monastic life in England Until then religious houses had acted as a focus for education literary and artistic expression and even the creation of regional and national identity Their closure carried out in just four years between 1536 and 1540 caused a dislocation of people and a disruption of life not seen in England since the Norman Conquest Drawing on the records of national and regional archives as well as archaeological remains James Clark explores the little known lives of the last men and women who lived in England's monasteries before the Reformation Clark challenges received wisdom showing that buildings were not immediately demolished and Henry VIII's subjects were so attached to the religious houses that they kept fixtures and fittings as souvenirs This rich vivid history brings back into focus the prominent place of abbeys priories and friaries in the lives of the English people Early English Performance: Medieval Plays and Robin Hood Games John Marshall, 2019-10-08 Covering a period of nearly 40 years work by the author this collection of essays in the Shifting Paradigms in Early English Drama Studies series brings the perspective of a Drama academic and practitioner of early English plays to the understanding of how medieval plays and Robin Hood games of the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries were performed It explores why where when and how the plays happened who took part and who were the audiences The insights are informed by a combination of research and the public presentation of surviving texts The research included in the volume unites the early English experiences of religious and secular performance This recognition challenges the dominant critical distinction of the past between the two and the consequent privileging of biblical and moral plays over secular entertainments What further binds rather than separates the two is that the destination of funds raised by the different activities maintained the civic and parochial needs of the institutions upon which the people depended This collection redefines the inclusive nature and common interests of the purposes that lay behind generically different undertakings They shared an extraordinary investment of human and financial resources in the anticipation of a profit that was pious and practical CS1081 Contested Hospitalities in a Time of Migration Synnøve Bendixsen, Trygve Wyller, 2019-10-28 This book explores the duality of openness and restriction in approaches to migrants in the Nordic countries As borders have become less permeable to non Europeans it presents research on civil society practices that oppose the existing border regimes and examine the values that they express The volume offers case studies from across the region that demonstrate opposition to increasingly restricted borders and which seek to offer hospitality to migrant One topic is whether these practices impact and transform the Nordic Protestant trajectory The book considers whether such actions are indicative of new sensibilities and values in which traditional categories and binaries are becoming less relevant It also discusses what these practices of hospitality indicate about the changing relationship between voluntary organizations and the Nordic welfare states in the time of migration As such it will appeal to scholars of sociology anthropology and religious studies with interests in migration civil society resistance and social values The Encyclopedia Britannica

James Louis Garvin, Franklin Henry Hooper, Warren E. Cox, 1929 The Religious Paintings of Hendrick ter Brugghen Natasha T. Seaman, 2017-07-05 The first in depth study of the Utrecht artist to address questions beyond connoisseurship and attribution this book makes a significant contribution to Ter Brugghen and Northern Caravaggist studies Focusing on the Dutch master's simultaneous use of Northern archaisms with Caravaggio's motifs and style Natasha Seaman nuances our understanding of Ter Brugghen's appropriations from the Italian painter Her analysis centers on four paintings all depicting New Testament subjects They include Ter Brugghen's largest and first known signed work Crowning with Thorns his most archaizing the Crucifixion and the two paintings most directly related to the works of Caravaggio the Doubting Thomas and the Calling of Matthew By examining the ways in which Ter Brugghen's paintings deliberately diverge from Caravaggio's Seaman sheds new light on the Utrecht artist and his work For example she demonstrates that where Caravaggio's paintings are boldly illusionistic and mimetic thus de-emphasizing their materiality Ter Brugghen's works examined here create the opposite effect connecting their content to their made form This study not only illuminates the complex meanings of the paintings addressed here but also offers insights into the image debates and the status of devotional art in Italy and Utrecht in the seventeenth century by examining one artist's response to them The Magazine of Christian Literature , 1890

Although this book has its lens focused on Belarusian fine art, Dr Gimpelevich adeptly provides readers with a deeper understanding of how politics and power struggles have affected this little-known country's citizens, many of which still endure today.

Material Change Jan De Maeyer, Peter Jan Margry, 2021-12-17

The long nineteenth century c. 1780 c. 1920 in Western Europe saw an unprecedented rise in the production and possession of material goods. The material culture diversified and led to a rich variety of expressions. Dovetailing with a process of confessionalisation that manifested itself quite simultaneously, material religion witnessed its heyday in this period, from church buildings to small devotional objects. The present volume analyses how various types of reform, state, societal and ecclesiastical that were part of the process of modernisation affected the material devotional culture within Protestantism, Anglicanism and Roman Catholicism. Although the contributions in this book start from a comparative European perspective, the case studies mostly focus on individual countries in North West Europe, namely Germany, Belgium, the Netherlands, the United Kingdom, Ireland, Norway, Sweden and Denmark. The concept of material religion is approached in a very inclusive way. The volume discusses, amongst others, parish infrastructures and religious buildings that are part of land and cityscapes, but also looks into interior design and decorations of chapels, churches, monasteries, cemeteries and educational, charitable and health institutions. It comprises the fine arts of religious painting and sculpture, the applied arts and iconographic designs. As far as private material culture is concerned, this volume examines and presents objects related to private devotion at home, including a great variety of popular devotional and everyday life objects such as booklets, cards, photographs and posters.
