

The illustration depicts a ginger cat with large, expressive yellow eyes, looking directly at the viewer. The cat is positioned in the center-left of the frame, partially obscured by a dense, chaotic swarm of small, greyish-brown mice. The mice are everywhere—on the cat's back, in its whisker area, and filling the background and foreground. The background is a textured, earthy brown, suggesting a wall or a pile of debris. The overall style is a detailed, painterly illustration.
