The American City in the Cinema James A. Clapp, 2017-07-28 The American city and the American movie industry grew up together in the early decades of the twentieth century making film an ideal medium through which to better understand urban life Exploiting the increasing popularity of large metropolitan cities and urban lifestyle movies chronicled the city and the stories it generated In this volume urbanist James A Clapp explores the reciprocal relationship between the city and the cinema within the dimensions of time and space A variety of themes and actualizations have been repeated throughout the history of the cinema including the roles of immigrants women small towns family farms and suburbia and urban childhoods family values violent crime politics and dystopic futures Clapp examines the different ways in which the city has been characterized as well as how it has been portrayed as a character itself Some of the films discussed include Metropolis King Kong West Side Story It s a Wonderful Life American Beauty Rebel without a Cause American Graffiti Blade Runner Gangs of New York The Untouchables LA Confidential Sunrise Crash American History X Breakfast at Tiffany s The Deer Hunter and many more This work will be enjoyed by urban specialists moviegoers and those interested in American cultural and film studies

The Cinema of Tarkovsky Nariman Skakov, 2012-01-30 The phenomenon of time was a central preoccupation of Tarkovsky throughout his career His films present visions of time by temporal means that is in time Tarkovsky does not represent time through coherent argument Nariman Skakov proposes rather he presents it and the viewer experiences the argument This book explores the phenomenon of spatio temporal lapse in Tarkovsky s cinema from Ivan s Childhood 1962 to Sacrifice 1986 Dreams visions mirages memories revelations reveries and delusions are phenomena which present alternative spatio temporal patterns they disrupt the linear progression of events and create narrative discontinuity Each chapter is dedicated to the discussion of one of Tarkovsky s seven feature films and in each one of these phenomena functions as a refrain Skakov discusses the influence of the flow of and lapses in space and time on the viewer s perception of the Tarkovskian cinematic universe He opens and closes his original and fascinating book on Tarkovsky s cinema by focusing on the phenomenon of time that is discussed extensively by the filmmaker in his main theoretical treatise Sculpting in Time as well as in a number of interviews and public lectures

Pelican Barbara Allen, 2019-07-15 With its distinctive comical walk large bill and association with the conservation movement the pelican has attained iconic status But as Barbara Allen reveals this graceful skimmer of ocean waves has a checkered history Originally classed as unclean in the King James Bible the legend of the compassionate pelican was later appropriated by Christianity to symbolize Christ s sacrifice This majestic bird gifted to British royalty in 1664 has been celebrated in art and literature from Shakespeare s King Lear to the writing of Edward Lear and is the holder of three Guinness World Records The pelican s anatomy has been copied for paper plane construction aircraft design and in 3D imaging and its resilience is as remarkable as its make up the pelican has rallied against threats of extinction habitat destruction and environmental disasters such as the Deepwater Horizon oil spill A must read book for all bird enthusiasts Barbara Allen s Pelican weaves together wildlife trivia historical tales and the latest research to provide an engaging many feathered account of this emblematic bird Image Embodiment Lars C. Grabbe,Patrick Rupert-Kruse,Norbert M. Schmitz,2016-10-24 In the new media environment how are bodies and images related How can in other words the human body be integrated with and reformulated in relation to the sensory and perceptual dimension In response to this question Image Embodiment looks not just to images and surface appearances but addresses at a deeper level the media that act as the supports for aesthetics To think about visual culture in the twenty first century necessarily implies the thinking of the specific role of media technologies A view to media not only teases out the technical infrastructure of images but brings with it the potential for addressing the different sense modalities and realities of the human body Recent theories of the sensory turn are effectively highlighting innovative approaches for an autonomous image science and media theory in general Image Embodiment provides one part of the discourse to synchronize the concepts of image and body which is then able to connect the perspectives of philosophy of mind perceptual theory and media as well as image science This volume monitors and discusses the relation of media and the human body and refers to images embodiment and the sensory turn within the perspective of an autonomous image science The Rise of the French Novel Martin Turnell,1978 Martin Turnell s The Rise of the French Novel is a successor to his highly praised earlier books The Novel in France 1951 and The Art of French Fiction 1959 His aim now however is somewhat different as can be seen from the title It is well known that the reputations of many writers novelists especially diminish for a period following their deaths Although in the eighteenth century Marivaux Cr billon fils and Rousseau all enjoyed a great deal of popularity during their lifetimes it is only recently that they have been subject to truly searching studies Yet they remain little read in English speaking countries Turnell emphasizes that in spite of the hostility of French critics and the fact that the novel did not reach its supremacy even in France until the nineteenth century the beginning of its great rise was indeed with such writers as these Their strong influence led such nineteenth century novelists as Stendhal and Flaubert to all kinds of changes related to style the enormous increase in the range of subject matter and the marked development of language Flaubert is the most striking example It was pointed out some time ago by Eisenstein that Madame Bovary anticipates cinematic technique One of Turnell s most interesting chapters explores the connections between the novel and film in general and Madame Bovary in particular In our own time two of the most popular French novelists in both the United States and England are Alain Fournier and Radiguet They are given enthusiastic appreciations in Turnell s thoughtful book The Cinema of George A. Romero Tony Williams,2003 Explores the relevance of Romero s films within American cultural traditions and explains the potency of such work beyond splatter movie models The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art ,1920 Film, Form and Phantasy M. O'Pray,2004-08-05 This book explores the ideas of the neglected English aesthetician and art historian Adrian Stokes Stokes s Kleinian based concepts of carving and modelling are analysed in relation to film arguing that they replace the traditional notions of realism and montage in film theory and provide a set of aesthetics which encompasses mainstream and art cinema This Kleinian psychoanalytic approach is offered to the films of Eisenstein Rossellini Hitchcock and others The Horror Genre Paul Wells, 2019-07-25 A comprehensive introduction to the history and key themes of the genre The main issues and debates raised by horror and the approaches and theories that have been applied to horror texts are all featured In addressing the evolution of the horror film in social and historical context Paul Wells explores how it has reflected and commented upon particular historical periods and asks how it may respond to the new millennium by citing recent innovations in the genre s development such as the urban myth narrative underpinning Candyman and The Blair Witch Project Over 300 films are treated all of which are featured in the filmography The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science, Art, and Finance ,1920 The Imperial Encyclopaedic Dictionary Robert Hunter, 1901 The reality of film Richard Rushton, 2013-07-19 In formulating a notion of filmic reality The Reality of Film offers a novel way of understanding our relationship to cinema It argues that cinema need not be understood in terms of its capacities to refer to reproduce or represent reality but should be understood in terms of the kinds of realities it has the ability to create The Reality of Film investigates filmic reality by way of six key film theorists Andr Bazin Christian Metz Stanley Cavell Gilles Deleuze Slavoj i ek and Jacques Ranci re In doing so it provides comprehensive introductions to each of these thinkers while also debunking many myths and misconceptions about them Along the way a notion of filmic reality is formed that radically reconfigures our understanding of cinema This book is essential reading for film scholars students and philosophers of film while it will also appeal to graduate students and specialists in other fields
