The Cinema Of Krzysztof Kieslowski Variations On Destiny And Chance:

The Cinema of Krzysztof Kieślowski Marek Haltof, 2004 Since his death in 1996 Krzysztof Kieslowski has remained the best known contemporary Polish filmmaker and one of the most popular and respected European directors internationally renowned for his ambitious Decalogue and Three Colors trilogy In this new addition to the Directors Cuts series Marek Haltof provides a comprehensive study of Kieslowski s cinema discussing industrial practices in Poland and stressing that the director did not fit the traditional image of a great East Central European auteur He draws a fascinating portrait of the stridently independent director s work noting that Kieslowski was not afraid to express unpopular views in film or in life Haltof also shows how the director s work remains unique in the context of Polish documentary and narrative cinema The Cinema of Krzysztof Kieslowski Marek Haltof, 2004-06-09 Since his death in 1996 Krzysztof Kieslowski has remained the best known contemporary Polish filmmaker and one of the most popular and respected European directors internationally renowned for his ambitious Decalogue and Three Colors trilogy In this new addition to the Directors Cuts series Marek Haltof provides a comprehensive study of Kieslowski s cinema discussing industrial practices in Poland and stressing that the director did not fit the traditional image of a great East Central European auteur He draws a fascinating portrait of the stridently independent director s work noting that Kieslowski was not afraid to express unpopular views in film or in life Haltof also shows how the director s work remains unique in the context of Polish documentary and narrative cinema

After Kieślowski Steven Woodward, 2009 Traces the legacy of Krzysztof Kieslowski in films made after his death using his scripts or ideas and in the work of other filmmakers Intimate Relationships in Cinema, Literature and Visual Culture Gilad Padvá, Nurit Buchweitz, 2017-10-04 This edited volume is an inquiry into the representation of intimate relationships in a diverse array of media including cinema arts literature picture books advertising and popular music It examines artistic portrayal of intimate relationships as a subversion of the boundaries between the representable and the non representable the real and the surreal the visceral and the ideal the embodied and the abstracted the configured and transfigured The essays focus on artistic mediation of intimacy in diverse relationships including heterosexual same sex familial sibling political and sadomasochistic The collection offers new interdisciplinary and multicultural perspectives on current trends in the study of popular representations of intimacy representations that affect and formulate people s most personal inspirations desires angsts dreams and nightmares in an increasingly alienated industrialized world The Handbook of COURAGE Apor, Balázs, Apor, Péter, Horváth, Sándor, 2018-11-27 The COURAGE Handbook ushers its reader into the world of the compellingly rich heritage of cultural opposition in Eastern Europe It is intended primarily to further a subtle understanding of the complex and multifaceted nature of cultural opposition and its legacy from the perspective of the various collections held in public institutions or by private individuals across the region Through its focus on material heritage the handbook provides new perspectives on the history of dissent and cultural non conformism in the former socialist countries of Central Eastern and Southeastern Europe The volume is comprised of contributions by over 60 authors from a range of different academic and national backgrounds who share their insights into the topic It offers focused discussions from comparative and transnational perspectives of the key themes and prevailing forms of opposition in the region including non conformist art youth sub cultures intellectual dissent religious groups underground rock avantgarde theater exile traditionalism ethnic revivalism censorship and surveillance The handbook provides its reader with a concise synthesis of the existing scholarship and suggests new avenues for further research

The Cinema of Clint Eastwood

David Sterritt, 2014-11-25 He became a movie star playing The Man With No Name and today his name is known around the world Measured by longevity productivity and profits Clint Eastwood is the most successful actor director producer in American film history This book examines the major elements of his career focusing primarily on his work as a director but also exploring the evolution of his acting style his long association with screen violence his interest in jazz and the political views sometimes hotly controversial reflected in his films and public statements Especially fascinating is the pivotal question that divides critics and moviegoers to this day is Eastwood a capable director with a photogenic face a modest acting talent and a flair for marketing his image Or is he a true cinematic auteur with a distinctive vision of America's history traditions and values From A Fistful of Dollars and Dirty Harry to Million Dollar Baby and beyond The Cinema of Clint Eastwood takes a close up look at one of the screen's most influential and charismatic stars

The Cinema of James Cameron

James Clarke, 2014-05-14 This timely volume explores the massively popular cinema of writer director James Cameron It couches Cameron's films within the evolving generic traditions of science fiction melodrama and the cinema of spectacle The book also considers Cameron's engagement with the aesthetic of visual effects and the now technology of performance capture which is arguably moving a certain kind of event movie cinema from photography to something more akin to painting This book is explicit in presenting Cameron as an authentic auteur and each chapter is dedicated to a single film in his body of work Space is also given to discussion of Strange Days as well as his documentary works

The Cinema of Hal Hartley

Steven Rybin, 2016-12-27 Over the course of nearly thirty years Hal Hartley has cultivated a reputation as one of America's most steadfastly independent film directors From his breakthrough films The Unbelievable Truth 1989 Trust 1990 and Simple Men 1992 to his recently completed Henry Fool trilogy Hartley has honed a rigorous deadpan and instantly recognizable film style informed by both European modernism and playful revisions of Classical Hollywood genres Featuring new essays on this important director and his films this collection explores Hartley's work from a variety of aesthetic cultural and economic contexts while also looking closely at his collaborations with actors the contexts of his authorial reputation his reworking of the romantic comedy and other genres and the shifting economics of his filmmaking This book up to date through Hartley's latest film Ned Rifle 2014 includes new scholarship on the director's early work as well as reflections on his cinema in connection with new theories and approaches to independent filmmaking Covering the entire trajectory of his career including both his features and short films the book also includes new readings of several of Hartley's seminal films including Amateur 1994 Flirt 1995 and Henry Fool 1997 The Cinema of Sean Penn Deane Williams, 2015-11-17 Although best known as an Academy Award winning actor Sean Penn's directorial works The Indian Runner 1991 The Crossing Guard 1995 The Pledge 2001 and Into the Wild 2007 consist of some of the most interesting and singular films made in the United States over the past twenty years Each of Penn's directorial films and much of the cinema he has acted in are set in an immediate past in which a stalled time and a restricted locale apply narrative constraints At the same time these films all feature a sophisticated web of intertextual relations involving actors songs books films and directors and the political lineage to which Penn belongs which reveal the deep cultural structures that concern each particular film The Cinema of Agnès Varda Delphine Benezet, 2014-05-20 Agnès Varda a pioneer of the French New Wave has been making radical films for over half a century Many of these are considered by scholars filmmakers and audiences alike as audacious seminal and unforgettable This volume considers her production as a whole revisiting overlooked films like Mur Murs Documenteur 1980 81 and connecting her cinema to recent installation work This study demonstrates how Varda has resisted norms of representation and dictates of production It also shows how she has elaborated a personal repertoire of images characters and settings which all provide insight on their cultural and political contexts The book thus offers new readings of this director's multifaceted career arguing that her work should be seen as an aesthetically influential and ethically driven production where cinema is both a political and collaborative practice and a synesthetic art form The Cinema of Alexander Sokurov Jeremi Szaniawski, 2013-11-22 One of the last representatives of a brand of serious high art cinema Alexander Sokurov has produced a massive oeuvre exploring issues such as history power memory kinship death the human soul and the responsibility of the artist Through contextualization and close readings of each of his feature fiction films broaching many of his documentaries in the process this volume unearths a vision of Sokurov's films as equally mournful and passionate intellectual and sensual and also identifies in them a powerful if discursively repressed queer sensitivity alongside a pattern of tensions and paradoxes This book thus offers new keys to understand the lasting and ever renewed appeal of the Russian director's Janus-like and surprisingly dynamic cinema a deeply original and complex body of work in dialogue with the past the present and the future The Cinema of István Szabó John Cunningham, 2014-09-23 István Szabó is one of Hungary's most celebrated and best known film directors and the first Hungarian to have won an Academy Award for Best Foreign Language Film for Mephisto 1981 In a career spanning over five decades Szabó has relentlessly examined the place of the individual in European history particularly those caught up in the turbulent events of Central Europe and his own native Hungary His protagonists struggle to find a place for themselves some meaning in their lives security and a sense of being against a background of two world wars Colonel Redl Confidence the Holocaust Sunshine the Hungarian Uprising and the Cold War Father 25 Fireman's Street Taking Sides This is the first English language study of all his feature films and uses material from interviews with Szab and his collaborators Also included are chapters on his formative years including his time at the famous Budapest Film Academy and the relationship of the state to the film industry in Hungary

The Cinema of Raúl Ruiz Michael Goddard, 2013-09-22 Raúl Ruiz while considered one of the world's most significant filmmakers by several film critics is yet to be the subject of any thorough engagement with his work in English This volume sets out on this task by mapping as fully as possible Ruiz's cinematic trajectory across more than five decades of prolific work up to his death in 2011 ranging from his earliest work in Chile to high budget European costume dramas culminating in Mysteries of Lisbon 2010 It does so by treating Ruiz's work with its surrealist magic realist popular cultural and neo Baroque sources as a type of impossible cinematic cartography mapping real imaginary and virtual spaces and crossing between different cultural contexts aesthetic strategies and technical media It argues that across the different phases of Ruiz's work identified there are key continuities such as the invention of singular cinematic images and the interrogation of their possible and impossible combinations

The Cinema of Michael Winterbottom Bruce Bennett, 2013-11-26 This comprehensive study of prolific British filmmaker Michael Winterbottom explores the thematic stylistic and intellectual consistencies running through his eclectic and controversial body of work This volume undertakes a close analysis of a TV series directed by Winterbottom and sixteen of his films ranging from television dramas to transnational co productions featuring Hollywood stars and from documentaries to costume films The critique is centered on Winterbottom's collaborative working practices political and cultural contexts and critical reception Arguing that his work delineates a cinema of borders this study examines Winterbottom's treatment of sexuality class ethnicity and national and international politics as well as his quest to adequately narrate inequality injustice and violence

The Cinema of Michael Mann Jonathan Rayner, 2013-09-03 Michael Mann is one of the most important American filmmakers of the past forty years His films exhibit the existential concerns of art cinema articulated through a conspicuous and recognizable visual style and yet integrated within classical Hollywood narrative and genre frameworks Since his beginnings as a screenwriter in the 1970s Mann has become a key figure within contemporary American popular culture as writer director and producer for film and television This volume offers a detailed study of Mann's feature films from The Jericho Mile 1979 to Public Enemies 2009 with consideration also being given to parallels in the production style and characterization in his television work It explores Mann's relationship with classical genres his thematic concentration on issues of morality and masculinity his film adaptations from literature and the development and significance of his trademark visual style within modern American cinema

The Cinema of Aki Kaurismäki Andrew Nestingen, 2013-06-25 Aki Kaurismäki is an enigma an eminent auteur who claims his films are a joke Since 1983 Kaurismäki has produced classically styled films filled with cinephilic references to film history He has earned an international art house audience and many prizes influencing such directors as Jim Jarmusch Quentin Tarantino and Wes Anderson Yet Kaurismäki is often depicted as the loneliest most nostalgic of Finns except when he promotes his films makes political statements and runs his many businesses He is also depicted as a bohemian known for outlandish actions and statements The Cinema of Aki Kaurismäki is the first comprehensive English language study of this eccentric director Drawing on revisionist approaches to film authorship the text links the filmmaker and his films to the stories and issues animating film aesthetics and history nostalgia late modernity politics commerce film festivals and national cinema The Cinema of Richard Linklater Rob Stone, 2013-05-28 In this second edition of The Cinema of Richard Linklater Rob Stone shows how Linklater's latest films have redefined our understanding of his work offering critical analysis of films including Before Midnight 2013 and Everybody Wants Some 2016 as well as new interviews with Linklater and a chapter on Boyhood 2014 The Cinema of Takeshi Kitano Sean Redmond, 2013-03-19 The Cinema of Takeshi Kitano Flowering Blood is a detailed aesthetic Deleuzian and phenomenological exploration of Japan's finest currently working film director performer and celebrity The volume uniquely explores Kitano's oeuvre through the tropes of stillness and movement becoming animal melancholy and loss intensity schizophrenia and radical alterity and through the aesthetic temperatures of color light camera movement performance and urban and oceanic space In this highly original monograph all of Kitano's films are given due consideration including A Scene at the Sea 1991 Sonatine 1993 Dolls 2002 and Outrage 2010 The Cinema of Steven Soderbergh Andrew deWaard, R. Colin Tait, 2013-05-07 The industry's only director cinematographer screenwriter producer actor editor Steven Soderbergh is contemporary Hollywood's most innovative and prolific filmmaker A Palme d'Or and Academy Award winner Soderbergh has directed nearly thirty films including political provocations digital experiments esoteric documentaries global blockbusters and a series of atypical genre films This volume considers its slippery subject from several perspectives analyzing Soderbergh as an expressive auteur of art cinema and genre fare as a politically motivated guerrilla filmmaker and as a Hollywood insider Combining a detective's approach to investigating the truth with a criminal's alternative value system Soderbergh's films tackle social justice in a corporate world embodying dozens of cinematic trends and forms advanced in the past twenty five years His career demonstrates the richness of contemporary American cinema and this study gives his complex oeuvre the in depth analysis it deserves The Cinema of Béla Tarr András B. Kovács, 2013-05-21 The Cinema of Béla Tarr is a critical analysis of the work of Hungary's most prominent and internationally best known film director written by a scholar who has followed Béla Tarr's career through a close personal and professional relationship for more than twenty five years András B. Kovács traces the development of Tarr's themes characters and style showing that almost all of his major stylistic and narrative innovations were already present in his early films and that through a conscious and meticulous recombination of and experimentation with these elements Tarr arrived at his unique style The significance of these films is that beyond their aesthetic and historical value they provide the most powerful vision of an entire region and its historical situation Tarr's films express in their universalistic language the shared feelings of millions of Eastern Europeans
