The Clash Between Christianity And Cultures:

The Clash Between Christianity and Cultures Donald Anderson McGavran, 1974 A mighty clash of convictions resounds around the world and will continue to reverberate during the coming decades Men are deciding a most difficult question Is there One Way or are there many ways Hosts line up on one side and on the other Cannons are wheeled into position and salvos fired Lectures are delivered courses are taught and books are written on each side If there are many ways to God the Christian has no position in any culture even his own If there is only one way then the Christian needs to assert his truth as clearly and honestly as possible This book deals with the deeper questions of culture Beyond dress housing and language rests the issue of moral and ethical right and wrong If you have ever pondered the impact of a Christian commitment on this level of living you have approached the culture clash McGavran challenges those who deny this impact and compromise their decisions with a choice that accommodates secularism relativism or pluralism He presents a stimulating and persuasive case for the authority of the gospel within any culture Back cover

The Clash of Cultures on the Medieval Baltic Frontier Alan V. Murray,2016-12-05 The conversion of the lands on the southern and eastern shores of the Baltic Sea by Germans Danes and Swedes in the period from 1150 to 1400 represented the last great struggle between Christianity and paganism on the European continent but for the indigenous peoples of Finland Livonia Prussia Lithuania and Pomerania it was also a period of wider cultural conflict and transformation Along with the Christian faith came a new and foreign culture the German and Scandinavian languages of the crusaders and the Latin of their priests new names for places superior military technology and churches and fortifications built of stone For newly baptized populations the acceptance of Christianity encompassed major changes in the organization and practice of political religious and social life entailing the acceptance of government by alien elites of new cultic practices and of new obligations such as taxes tithes and military service in the armies of the Christian rulers At the same time as the Western conquerors carried their campaigns beyond pagan territory into the principalities of north western Russia the Baltic Crusades also developed into a struggle between Roman Catholicism and Orthodoxy This collection of sixteen essays by both established and younger scholars explores the theme of clash of cultures from a variety of perspectives discussing the nature and ideology of crusading in the medieval Baltic region the struggle between Catholicism and Orthodoxy and the cultural confrontation that accompanied the process of conversion in subjects as diverse as religious observation political structures the practice of warfare art and music and perceptions of the landscape The Humanities and the Dynamics of African Culture in the 21st Century John Ayotunde Isola Bewaji, Kenneth W. Harrow, Eunice E. Omonzejie, 2017-05-11 That Africa is at a crossroads in an increasingly globalised world is indisputable Equally unassailable is the fact that the humanities as a broad field of intellection research and learning in Africa appears to have been pigeonholed in debates of relevance in the development aspirations of many African nations Historical experiences and contemporary research outputs indicate however that the humanities in its various shades is critical to Africa s capacity to respond effectively to such problems as security corruption political ineptitude poverty superstition and HIV AIDS among many other mounting challenges which confront the people of Africa The vibrancy and resilience of Africa s cultures against these and other odds of globalisation episodes in the course of our history demand the focused attention of academia to exploit their relevance to contemporary issues This collection provides a comprehensive overview of issues in the humanities at the turn of the 21st century which create a veritable platform for the global redefinition and understanding of Africa s rich cultures and traditions Such areas covered include ruminations in metaphysics and psychology pathos and ethos cinematic and literary connections and historical conceptualisations Christianity ZHUO Xinping, 2013-08-08 Chinese Christianity is fascinating and perplexing Yet although its existence can be dated back to the Tang Dynasty when Christianity in the form of Nestorianism first arrived in China it has not been extensively researched by Chinese academics This volume is devoted to this topic and consists of twelve chapters written mostly by leading mainland Chinese scholars These writings shed light on five themes epistemological reflection on Chinese Christian theology interactions between Christianity and Chinese culture the empirical and historical examination of Christian ethics and social development in China the Chinese understanding of the Bible as literature and the remarkable contribution that Christianity has made to Chinese higher education and cultural exchange with the external world The Word Leaps the Gap J. Ross Wagner, C. Kavin Rowe, A. Katherine

Grieb, 2008-11-05 This is a collection of essays to celebrate Richard Hays 60th birthday It is written by colleagues and friends whose scholarly imaginations have been sparked in numerous ways by his insights Toward the Final Solution George L. Mosse, 2020-09-08 Originally published in 1978 Toward the Final Solution was one of the first in depth studies of the evolution of racism in Europe from the Age of Enlightenment through the Holocaust and Hitler s Final Solution George L. Mosse details how antisemitism and dangerous prejudices have long existed in the European cultural tradition revealing an appalling and complex history With the global renewal of extreme right wing nationalism this instrumental work remains as important as ever for understanding how bigotry impacts political cultural and intellectual life This edition of Mosse s classic book includes a new critical introduction by Christopher R Browning author of Ordinary Men Reserve Police Battalion 101 and the Final Solution in Poland Christian Fundamentalism and the Culture of Disenchantment Paul Maltby,2013

Within the familiar clash of religious conservatism and secular liberalism Paul Maltby finds a deeper discord an antipathy between Christian fundamentalism and the postmodern culture of disenchantment Arguing that each camp represents the poles of America s virulent culture wars he shows how the cultural identity lifestyle and political commitments of many Americans match either the fundamentalist profile of one who cleaves to metaphysical and authoritarian beliefs or the postmodern profile of one who is disposed to critical inquiry and radical democratic values Maltby offers a critique that operates in both directions His use of the resources of postmodern theory to contest fundamentalism s doctrinal claims ultra right politics anti environmentalism and conservative aesthetics informs his engagement with contemporary fundamentalist painting spiritual warfare fiction dominionist attitudes to nature and a profoundly undemocratic interpretation of Christianity At the same time Maltby identifies some of fundamentalism s legitimate spiritual concerns assesses the cost of perpetual critique and exposes the deficit of spiritual meaning that haunts the culture of disenchantment Mission to the World

The Ecology of Coexistence and Conflict in Cyprus Irene Dietzel, 2014-11-10 What is the significance of sustainable resource management for the functioning of Mediterranean island societies How do human environment relations reflect in a multi ethnic religious landscape This book poses these questions in the context of the Ottoman British and modern history of Cyprus It explores the socio ecological dimension of the Cyprus conflict and considers the role of local environmental practices for historical coexistence and modern division The book synthesizes theoretical approaches from the research on religion and ecology with the anthropology of Cyprus with the goal to develop and establish an ecological perspective on coexistence and conflict in the Mediterranean Religion is seen as the place where local representations of nature and traditions of resource management are generated and maintained The work takes a comparative look at the impact of Eastern Orthodox and Islamic institutions on the island s landscape as well as the religious and economic practices of the rural peasant communities The findings are then spelled out in the context of current discourses on religion environmental ethics and social justice

The Claim to Christianity Hannah Strømmen, Ulrich Schmiedel, 2020-06-30 The far right is on the rise across Europe pushing a battle scenario in which Islam clashes with Christianity as much as Christianity clashes with Islam From the margins to the mainstream far right protesters and far right politicians call for the defence of Europe s Christian culture The far right claims Christianity This book investigates contemporary far right claims to Christianity Ulrich Schmiedel and Hannah Str mmen examine the theologies that emerge in the far right across Europe concentrating on Norway Germany and Great Britain They explore how churches in these three countries have been complicit complacent or critical of the far right sometimes intentionally and sometimes unintentionally Ultimately Schmiedel
