Aelia Capitolina - Jerusalem in the Roman Period

Shlomit Weksler-Bdolah, 2019-12-16 The book discusses the history and the archaeology of Jerusalem in the Roman period 70-400 CE following a chronological order from the establishment of the Tenth Roman Legion's camp on the ruins of Jerusalem in 70 CE through the foundation of Aelia Capitolina by Hadrian in around 130 CE and the Christianization of the population and the cityscape in the fourth century. Cemeteries around the city, the rural hinterland and the imperial roads that led to and from Aelia Capitolina are discussed as well. Due to the paucity of historical sources, the book is based on archaeological remains suggesting a reconstruction of the city's development and a discussion of the population's identity. Israel

Horbury, 2014-09-18 Two major Jewish risings against Rome took place in the years following the destruction of Jerusalem: the first during Trajan's Parthian war and the second led by Bar Kokhba under Hadrian's principate. The impact of these risings, not only on Judaea but also on Cyrene, Egypt, Cyprus and Mesopotamia, is shown by accounts in both ancient Jewish and non-Jewish literature. More recently discovered sources include letters and documents from fighters and refugees and inscriptions attesting war and restoration. Historical evaluation has veered between regret for a pointless bloodbath and admiration for sustained resistance William Horbury offers a new history of these risings presenting a fresh review of sources and interpretations He explores the period of Jewish war under Trajan and Hadrian not just as the end of an era but also as a time of continuity in Jewish life and development in Jewish and Christian origins The Coins of Aelia Capitolina Leo Kadman,1956 Acts of God in History Roland Deines,2013-11-13 10 of 11 contributions were published previously 4 in German 6 in English Coinage and Identity in the Roman Provinces C. J. Howgego,Volker Heuchert,Andrew M. Burnett,2005 Coins were the most deliberate of all symbols of public communal identities yet the Roman historian will look in vain for any good introduction to or systematic treatment of the subject Sixteen leading international scholars have sought to address this need by producing this authoritative collection of essays which ranges over the whole Roman world from Britain to Egypt from 200 BC to AD 300 The subject is approached through surveys of the broad geographical and chronological structure of the evidence through chapters which focus on ways of expressing identity and through regional studies which place the numismatic evidence in local context A Globalised Visual Culture? Fabio Guidetti,Katharina Meinecke,2020-07-31 Late Antique artefacts and the images they carry attest to a highly connected visual culture from ca 300 to 800 C E On the one hand the same decorative motifs and iconographies are found across various genres of visual and material culture irrespective of social and economic differences among their users for instance in mosaics architectural decoration and luxury arts silver plate textiles ivories as well as in everyday objects such as tableware lamps and pilgrim vessels On the other hand they are also spread in geographically distant regions mingled with local elements far beyond the traditional borders of the classical world At the same time foreign motifs especially of Germanic and Sasanian origin are attested in Roman territories This volume aims at investigating the reasons behind this seemingly globalised visual culture spread across the Late Antique world both within the borders of the former Roman and later Byzantine Empire and beyond bringing together diverse approaches characteristic of different national and disciplinary traditions The presentation of a wide range of relevant case studies chosen from different geographical and cultural contexts exemplifies the vast scale of the phenomenon and demonstrates the benefit of addressing such a complex historical question with a combination of different theoretical approaches The Israel Museum Journal Muze'on Yiśra'el (Jerusalem),1984 Representations of Animals on Greek and Roman Engraved Gems Idit Sagiv,2018-07-13 A comprehensive study of the depictions of animals and their significance on Greek and Roman gems The work examines the associations between animal depictions and the type of gemstone and its believed qualities The study also compares the representation of animals on gems to other larger media and analyses the differences A Research Guide to the Ancient World John M. related cultural disciplines which consider the ancient cultures of the Mediterranean world and adjacent Egypt and southwestern Asia Chronologically the ancient world would extend from the beginning of the Bronze Age of ancient Greece ca 1000 BCE to the fall of the Western Roman Empire ca 500 CE This book will close the traditional subject gap between the humanities Classical World Egyptology and the social sciences anthropological archaeology Near East in the study of the ancient world This book is uniquely the only bibliographic resource available for such holistic coverage The volume consists of 17 chapters and seven appendixes arranged according to the traditional types of library research materials bibliographies dictionaries atlases etc The appendixes are mostly subject specific including graduate programs in ancient studies reports from significant archaeological sites numismatics and paleography and writing systems These extensive author and subject indexes help facilitate ease of use
