The Collected Works of J. Krishnamurti: 1963-1964. The new mind Jiddu Krishnamurti,1991 The Collected Works of J. Krishnamurti -Volume XIV 1963-1964: The New Mind Jiddu Krishnamurti,2012-11-15 In these Talks given in India and Saanen Krishnamurti speaks to the necessity for a new way of looking thinking and being in the world What is the effect or value of an individual changing How will that transform the whole current of human existence What can an individual do there is no such thing as an individual consciousness there is only consciousness of which we are a part You might segregate yourself and build a wall of a particular space called the me But that me is related to the whole that me is not separate And in transforming that particular section that particular part we will affect the whole of consciousness And I think this is very important to realize that we are not talking about individual salvation or individual reformation but about being aware of the particular in relation to the total Then out of that realization comes action which will affect the whole The Collected Works of J. addressed by Krishnamurti were noted. These aspects then formed the outline for the contents of this book. The material selected has not been altered from the way it was originally printed except for limited correction of spelling punctuation and missing words. Words or phrases that appear in brackets are not Krishnamurti's but have been added by the compilers for the sake of clarity. Ellipses introducing a passage or ending it indicate that the passage begins or ends in mid sentence. Ellipses in the course of a passage indicate words or sentences omitted. A series of asterisks between paragraphs shows that there are paragraphs from that talk which have been omitted. Captions set off from the body of the text have been used with many passages. Most captions are statements taken directly from the text with some being a combination of phrases from the passage. Krishnamurti spoke from such a large perspective that his entire vision was implied in any extended passage. If one wishes to see how a statement flows out of his whole discourse one can find the full context from the references at the foot of each passage. These refer primarily to talks which have been published in The Collected Works of J Krishnamurti. This seventeen volume set covers the entire period from which this study book has been drawn. A complete bibliography is included at the end of this book. Students and scholars may also be interested in additional passages on action not used in the book available for study upon written request in the archives of the Krishna murti Foundation of America. This Study Book aims to give the reader as comprehensive a view as possible in 140 pages of the question of action as explored by Krishnamurti during the period covered. Most of the material presented has not been previously published except in the Verbatim Reports which were produced privately in limited numbers primarily for those who attended Krishnamurti's talks.
