The New Social Work Practice Mark Doel, Steven Shardlow, 2019-05-23 First published in 1998 this book is a fully revised and updated edition of Social Work Practice first published in 1993 as a training manual The New Social Work Practice presents a comprehensive view of contemporary social work Whether it be general or specialist practice care and control or power and oppression these central issues and recurring themes are given a topical treatment Changes in core aspects of social work are fully explored in lively and realistic ways combining the essence of good practice with current organizational demands The aim of the original workbook remains intact to guide and stimulate learning about social work practice The book achieves this purpose by presenting various aspects of social work using different settings and contexts New and revised activities are included to promote discussion understanding learning and better practice Taken together the topics and themes in the book define the essential elements of a curriculum for social work practice

Handbook of Religion and Spirituality in Social Work Practice and Research Sana Loue, 2017-06-19 This singular reference explores religion and spirituality as a vital though often misconstrued lens for building better understanding of and empathy with clients A diverse palette of faiths and traditions is compared and contrasted occasionally with secularism focusing on areas of belief that may inspire comfort or trouble clients including health and illness mental illness healing coping forgiveness family inclusion and death From assessment and intervention planning to conducting research these chapters guide professionals in supporting and assisting clients without minimizing or overstating their beliefs In addition the book's progression of ideas takes readers beyond the well known concept of cultural competence to model a larger and more meaningful cultural safety Among the topics included in the Handbook Integrating religion and spirituality into social work practice Cultural humility cultural safety and beyond new understandings and implications for social work Healing traditions religion spirituality and health Diagnosis religious spiritual experience or mental illness Understandings of dying death and mourning Re building bridges in and with family and community Ethical issues in conducting research on religion and spirituality The Handbook of Religion and Spirituality in Social Work Practice and Research is a richly textured resource for social workers and mental health professionals engaged in clinical practice and or research seeking to gain varied perspectives on how the religion and spirituality of their clients research participants may inform their work

The Church and Work Joshua Sweeden, 2014-01-31 Work is one of the most dominant and unavoidable realities of life Though experiences of work vary tremendously many Christians share a common struggle of having to live in seemingly bifurcated spheres of work and faith Beginning with the conviction that Christian faith permeates all aspects of life Joshua Sweeden explores Christian understandings of good work in relationship to ethics community practice and ecclesial witness In The Church and Work Sweeden provides a substantial contribution to the theological conversation about work by proposing an ecclesiological grounding for good work He argues that many of the prominent theological proposals for good work are too abstract from context and demonstrates how the church can be understood as generative for both the theology and practice of good work This needed ecclesiological development takes seriously the role of context in the ongoing discernment of good work and specifically explores how ecclesial life and practice shape and inform good work Christian understandings of good work are inconceivable without the church Accordingly the church is not simply the recipient and a dispenser of a theology of work but the locus of its development

Religions in Practice John R. Bowen, 2017-07-28
Religions in Practice provides a comprehensive and primarily theme based overview for students of the anthropology of religion Whilst covering traditional topics such as magic witchcraft and spiritual healing the book addresses key contemporary subjects including migration transnationalism nationalism secularism and law It offers an issues oriented perspective on everyday religious behaviors and examines small scale societies as well as major established religions Throughout the text Bowen engages with ongoing debates concerning the place of religion in public life He successfully balances the presentation of theory and concepts with rich case study examples integrating theoretical discussion with a wide range of cross cultural ethnographic material This seventh edition has been updated throughout The opening section now focuses more clearly on the question of what is religion and on approaches to studying religion There is more on materiality as well as a new final chapter on religious mobilizing and violence Further resources are available via a comprehensive companion website

The Structural Approach to Direct Practice in Social Work Gale Goldberg Wood, Ruth R. Middleman, 1989
Structural social work assumes that clients are adequate people in untenable situations The social worker must display active appreciation for the client's competence in telling about what does matter rather than what the practitioner thinks should matter

Daily Words of God Christ of the Last Days, This book features selected passages from The Word Appears in the Flesh In order that God's chosen ones can gain the truth and daily provisions for life from His words these essential words of Almighty God which are most edifying to people's entry into life have here been specially selected for people's enjoyment thus allowing those who love the truth to understand it to live before God and to be saved and made perfect by God These essential words of God are expressions of the truth furthermore they are the most essential of life's maxims and no words are more edifying and beneficial to people If you are truly able to enjoy one passage of these words each day then this is your greatest fortune and you are blessed by God

Righteous Living - CTL - 2009 , The Graded Sunday School in Principle and Practice Henry Herman Meyer,1910 101 Ideas for Making Disciples in Your Youth Group C. Kent

Julian,2008-11-04 As youth workers we all have our vision the plan we hope to make real in our ministries to change the lives of teenagers as we introduce them to Jesus But how often have you found yourself wondering if your picture is just wrong or thinking you just don t know how to make your ministry match what you envision In 101 Ideas for Making Disciples in Your Youth Group you ll explore the idea of ACTS to create a disciple making ministry with the elements needed to create an environment necessary to cultivate this mission ACTS represents everything a missional youth ministry needs to be about Adoration More than an act this is a lifestyle that is fleshed out in expressions of prayerful dependence deep gratitude and expectancy in what God can do Community This is an atmosphere of genuine caring authentic relationships and unity based on Christ s love for his Church and the Church s love for one another Truth and Grace The basis of everything that is taught and valued this is a setting where God s Word is the standard and central to belief and behavior Serving and Sharing As a way of life serving involves helping the whole person by ministering to both believers and the lost by meeting their needs as well as verbally sharing God s message of grace As you dig into each aspect of ACTS you ll discover Jesus style and see how he cultivated each element in his own ministry Then you ll explore the youth ministry style of each aspect where you ll find 25 hands on easy to implement ideas on how to cultivate the same element in your context in order to create an environment of disciple making that finally fits your ministry The "New Man" in Radical Right Ideology and Practice, 1919-45

Jorge Dagnino,Matthew Feldman,Paul Stocker,2018-01-25 Bringing together an expert group of established and emerging scholars this book analyses the pervasive myth of the new man in various fascist movements and far right regimes between 1919 and 1945 Through a series of ground breaking case studies focusing on countries in Europe but with additional chapters on Argentina Brazil and Japan The New Man in Radical Right Ideology and Practice 1919 45 argues that what many national forms of far right politics understood at the time as a so called anthropological revolution is essential to understanding this ideology s bio political often revolutionary dynamics It explores how these movements promoted the creation of a new ideal human what this ideal looked like and what this things tell us about fascism s emergence in the 20th century The years after World War One saw the rise of regimes and movements professing totalitarian aims In the case of revolutionary radical right movements these totalising goals extended to changing the very nature of humanity through modern science propaganda and conquest At its most extreme one of the key aims of fascism the most extreme manifestation of radical right politics between the wars was to create a new man Naturally this manifested itself in different ways in varying national contexts and this volume explores these manifestations in order to better comprehend early 20th century fascism both within national boundaries and in a broader transnational context International Handbook of Practical Theology Birgit Weyel,Wilhelm Gräb,Emmanuel Lartey,Cas Wepener,2022-09-06 Practical theology has outgrown its traditional pastoral paradigm The articles in this handbook recognize that faith spirituality and lived religion within and beyond institutional communities refer to realms of cultures ritual practices and symbolic orders whose boundaries are not clearly defined and whose contents are shifting The International Handbook of Practical Theology offers insightful transcultural conceptions of religion and religious matters gathered from various cultures and traditions of faith The first section presents concepts of religion Chapters have to do with considerations of the conceptualizing of religion in the fields of anthropology community family institution law media and politics among others The second section is dedicated to case studies of religious practices from the perspective of their actors The third section presents major theoretical discourses that explore the globally significant diversity and multiplicity of religion Altogether sixty one authors from different parts of the world encourage a rethinking of religious practice in an expanded transcultural globalized and postcolonial world Church Growth Bulletin Vol 2 McGavran Dona,1977-05 Reports of the Minister of Education Ontario.
