The Commands Of Love

Patrick J. Amer

The Commands Of Love:

The Love Commandment in Mark George Keerankeri, 2003 This research work investigates the problem whether the texts of the love commandment of Mk 12 28 34 which are quotations of Deut 6 4 5 and Lev 19 18 have their original OT meaning in the gospel of Mark or whether they acquire besides this a specific Markan enrichment The study not only affirms such a specificity but also demonstrates its richness and depth It establishes that the distinctiveness of the Markan conception of the love commandment is closely linked to the person of Jesus and is expressed in a multiplicity of data both formal and thematic which can be discovered in an integral reading of the gospel The methodology employed is modern redaction criticism which differs from classical Redaction criticism in that it is synchronic and takes the text as it stands as a coherent and wholistic document to be understood in terms of itself and thus studies it in an integral reading The investigation has two parts involving four chapters and a general conclusion Part I comprising Ch I and Ch II dwells on the OT meaning and context of the texts of the love commandment and provides a lucid account of them which serves as the basis for its study in the gospel Part II researches the commandment in Mk in two chapters Of these Ch III represents the gospel's theoretical interpretation of the commandment and Ch IV Jesus' fulfillment of it in the Passion his instruction by example Together they complete Mark's total interpretation of the love commandment Following this the general conclusion sees the Markan specificities in a unifying theological vision defined by the gospel's Christology and closes by drawing its consequences

George Keerankeri was born on 10 December 1944 at Kothanallur in Kerala India He entered the Society of Jesus in 1962 and was ordained a priest in 1974 He holds an M A in Social Cultural Anthropology and completed his Licentiate in Sacred Scripture LSS at the Pontifical Biblical Institute Rome in 1979 Ever since he is a lecturer of the New Testament at Vidyajyoti College of Theology the Jesuit Faculty of Theology in Delhi India

The Commands of Christ Tom Blackaby, 2012-01-01 Jesus says in John 15 10 11 If you keep My commands you will remain in My love just as I have kept My Father's commands and remain in His love I have spoken these things to you so that My joy may be in you and your joy may be complete The Commands of Christ is an unpacking of that key promise a simply powerful presentation of the loving imperatives we sometimes know more by rote than by heart Love your enemies Don't store up treasures on earth Seek first the kingdom of God Let your light shine before men etc Tom Blackaby's focused writing serves as a plumb line of sorts guiding us toward a vibrant commitment to the Lordship of Christ that better shapes our lives how we worship and how we relate to others You will begin to know more clearly and experience more fully the freedom that comes through obedient acts of love and service to God

Love in the Gospel of John Francis J. SDB Moloney, 2013-11-19 The command to love is central to the Gospel of John Internationally respected scholar Francis Moloney offers a thorough exploration of this theme focusing not only on Jesus's words but also on his actions Instead of merely telling people that they must love one another Jesus acts to make God's love known and calls all who follow him to do the same This capstone work on John's Gospel uses a narrative approach to delve deeply into a theme at the heart of the Fourth Gospel and the life of the Christian church Uniting rigorous exegesis with theological and pastoral insight it makes a substantive contribution to contemporary Johannine scholarship Romans Jack Cottrell,2005 Dawnbringer: The Complete Story Joshua Elzner,2024-04-08 A complete epic medieval fantasy saga Dawnbringer is a series of novels set in the world of Ierendal upon the small continent of Telmerion cold and rugged and yet inhabited since the beginning of human history by the first family of humankind Though the setting is high fantasy a work of co creative imagination fashioning a mythical world with its own history and geography the plot and the ins and outs of the world are deeply realistic portraying as it were an ancient and long forgotten past of our own world Or more precisely what is offered here is a mythical exposition of the true past that we all share with very little magic or other fantasy tropes but with a great deal of magic in other words a world filled with wonders and terrors of all kinds from the ancient guardians of the world the Anaion to vicious and deadly beasts such as dragons e tenga and druadach The characters find themselves caught in the cosmic battle between light and darkness between the weakness of love and the power of hate which casts its rays and its shadows also into the heart of every man and woman The journey marked out before their feet calls for integrity fidelity and heroism and also something even more something that lies at the heart of every good adventure and every life and which is the very measure of man When Eldarien returns to his homeland after many years away burdened by the awareness that he has perpetrated great evil at the hands of an Empire whose knight he has become he encounters a continent riven by strife and war and threatened by creatures even more horrifying born of the very darkness itself He wishes to lay aside the sword to leave behind a past marked with violence and bloodshed but he also longs to aid his people against the forces that endanger their very existence And such a path he cannot walk alone facing obstacles both within and without and he finds given to him both the light that he wishes to serve and friends to share the journey All the while the land that he loves slides inexorably into conflict into what shall be known henceforth as the War of Darkness and he and those to whom he is joined are called upon to share the fate of their people looking forward in hope to the promised coming of dawn after darkest night Throughout time myth has been one of the fundamental activities of the human heart as it seeks to contemplate and understand the mystery of reality to find a path through the fabric of history as its tapestry is ever woven a path that unveils meaning in the enigmas of life and gives sense and stability to the drama of existence But especially the activity of myth of fantasy is born of a primal wonder before the awesome miracle of being and of the fundamental human activity which is play and serves to keep this wonder and play alive always In precisely this way it has been and shall always be a catalyst to enkindle and deepen the longing in the heart of each one of us for redemption for a new and better world a world where righteousness and happiness dwell and all is freedom and purpose unity and harmony ecstatic delight and true adventure Such does Dawnbringer humbly seek stepping into the flowing current of thought and imagination as it surges on through history offering in a narrative of proportions both intimate and epic a glimpse of the light that shines upon us all and

The Spirituality of the Gospels Stephen C. Barton, 2006-09-06 Probably no other works of ancient literature have had a greater influence on religious life and thought than the Four Gospels Certainly no other works have been the subject of such intense study by those determined to learn more about the Gospels central often enigmatic figure And yet despite the bewildering variety of scholarly approaches few have sought to interpret the Gospels in terms of the distinctive spirituality that each contains and seeks to evoke in its readers That is the aim of this important new book to help today's readers explore what each Gospel has to offer when viewed by its own right as a classic of Western spirituality Written in a clear non technical style the fresh perspectives this work presents will open new vistas on the familiar stories about the life teaching and ultimate significance of Jesus

Paul Ricoeur, Philosophical Hermeneutics, and the Question of Revelation Christina M. Gschwandtner, 2024-01-08 The topic of revelation is fundamental to any account of religious experience playing a special role in the Judeo Christian tradition where the texts of Scripture are regarded as revealed Yet any reflection on the revealed status of a given message or text requires interpretation Paul Ricoeur one of the most important hermeneutic philosophers of the twentieth century provides crucial insights on how such interpretation might proceed and what it might mean for texts to be revealed Edited by Christina M Gschwandtner Paul Ricoeur Philosophical Hermeneutics and the Question of Revelation brings together major scholars of Ricoeur's work on the topic of revelation showing both the role it already plays in his work and how his thinking might be taken further. Several contributors trace the development of his thought in regard to the concept of revelation. Others discuss the revelatory dimensions of Ricoeur's hermeneutics of the self especially for such issues as identity, trauma, and forgiveness. Several contributions also place his work in conversation with that of other seminal thinkers on the topic of revelation such as Karl Barth and Paul Tillich.

Preaching the Fear of God in a Fear-Filled World Dawn Ottoni-Wilhelm, 2021-11-30 Fear runs rampant in the world today including fears related to the rise of nationalism, refugees, political corruption, violence, religious extremism, and climate crises. Amid these existential realities, the biblical idea of the fear of God poses theological opportunities and challenges for those who address these themes in their preaching and public ministry. This collection of conference presentations from the 2018 meeting of Societas Homiletica focuses on how preaching and homiletical studies around the world address the rhetorical, biblical, political, and spiritual dimensions of fear as it has emerged in recent decades in church and society.

The Passion of Possibility Ingolf U. Dalferth, 2023-02-20 For Kierkegaard, the most important thing in life is to become a single individual or a true self. We are all born as human beings, but this makes us only members of a crowd, not true selves. To become a true self, we must transcend what we are at any given time and orient ourselves to the possible and to the actuality of the possible, to which all that is possible owes itself. True selves exist only in becoming; they are fragile, and that is their strength. They are not grounded by their own activities, but in a reality extra se, the flip side of which is a deep passivity that underlies all their activity and allows them to continually leave themselves and move beyond their respective actualities toward the new and the possible. Therefore, without the passion of possibility, there is no truly single individual. This study of Kierkegaard's post-metaphysical theology outlines his existential phenomenology of the self by exploring in three parts what Kierkegaard has to say about the sense of self, finitude, uniqueness, self-interpretation, and alienation; about selfless passion, anxiety, trust, hope, and true love; and about how to become a true self, a Christian in Christendom, and a neighbor of God's neighbors.

Echoes of Jesus in the First Epistle of Peter Timothy E. Miller, 2022-03-10 How did the words of Jesus influence the writing of 1 Peter That is the question that is at the heart of this study Of course the answer is complicated by the fact that 1 Peter nowhere directly references the words of Jesus Nevertheless the impact of his words are evident throughout the letter The first third of the book lays the foundation for answering the question by giving clear and concise criteria for identifying places where 1 Peter uses the words of Jesus The rest of the book walks through the text of 1 Peter section by section submitting each potential echo of Jesus s words to the criteria previously developed The book concludes by considering how the words of Jesus influenced the themes and content of the letter Judgments of Love in Criminal Justice
