Redescribing Paul and the Corinthians Society of Biblical Literature,2011 This second volume of studies by members of the SBL Seminar on Ancient Myths and Modern Theories of Christian Origins reassesses the agenda of modern scholarship on Paul and the Corinthians The contributors challenge the theory of religion assumed in most New Testament scholarship and adopt a different set of theoretical and historical terms for redescribing the beginnings of the Christian religion They propose explanations of the relationship between Paul and the recipients of 1 Corinthians the place of Paul s Christ myth for his gospel the reasons for a disinterest in and rejection of Paul s gospel and or for the reception and attraction of it and the disjunction between Paul s collective representation of the Corinthians in 1 Corinthians and the Corinthians own engagement with Paul in mythmaking and social formation including mutual mis translation and mis appropriation of the other s discourse and practices No Sacred Place ivan hugh walters,2011-09-12 No Sacred Place offers a critical study of social injustice done at the behest of law and religion in the context of cultural politics in Christianized societies Author Ivan Walters theorizes the causes of social injustice and oppression of marginalized peoples as found in the law and Christian theology in both modern and post modern cultural politics He advances a theory of redemption through a transgressive discourse that challenges most of the traditional assumptions of Eurocentric Christianity and jurisprudence Walters sees law and religion as two powerful politico cultural institutions that must be kept in check in order to protect the rights of those who are marginalized by the society History reveals a litany of horrors that have been perpetrated on marginalized peoples by both religious bigotry and the law Through theological and jurisprudential theoretical inquiries Walters advocates a thesis of at one ment through the historical Christus instead of the Christianitys bastardized version of the Christus His thesis then is grounded in a theory of challenge and resistance to oppression and the advocacy of the possibilities for redemption from oppression No Sacred Place challenges the church in particular and society in general to create a new social order and right the wrongs of the current system The Golden Avant-garde Raphael Sassower,Louis Cicotello,2000 A philosopher and an artist place the phenomenon of avant garde in different perspectives They wonder how avant garde artists navigate the cultural financial and technological challenges in past and present They draw the conclusion that artists have become adept at manipulating the same forces that they seek to exaggerate and articulate in their work The Acquisition of the DP in Modern Greek Theodoros Marinis, 2003-12-19 This book offers new data on the acquisition of functional categories in early child speech Based on longitudinal corpora of five children acquiring Modern Greek as their first language it describes the development of single DPs consisting of definite and indefinite articles complex DPs that require the use of multiple definite articles possessive constructions appositive constructions and Determiner Spreading a form of adjectival modification and number and case marking in nouns and definite articles Detailed quantitative and qualitative analyses show an incremental development of the DP The findings address the debate concerning maturation versus continuity Incremental acquisition of the DP argues in favour of a weak continuity approach to language acquisition Whilst gradual acquisition of the DP remains unexplained within the Principles and Parameters Theory it is fully compatible within Minimalism as it is argued to result from the gradual acquisition of the features associated with the Greek DP The Angelical Language, Volume I Aaron and aesthetics The Titles of Jesus in Christology Ferdinand Hahn,2022-01-01 The Titles of Jesus in Christology was recognised as a major contribution to Christological study when it was first published in German in 1963 Its translation into English a few years later cemented this status Hahn undertakes a massive and detailed examination of the various traditions that led to the use of names for Jesus that we now recognise as characteristic of the very early Church Moreover he carefully distinguishes between the different Christological conceptions present in these differing branches of primitive Christianity and embodied in the terms they produced His analysis and categories have been followed by many later scholars who built on his detailed study of the peculiarities of the different titles given to Jesus by the different communities that followed him

When Sotirios Majoros s thirteen year old daughter asked him a seemingly simple question What is life little did she realize the explosion of thoughts and ideas that she would set off in her father s mind To answer her question Sotirios found himself looking back through time to the father of history Herodotus and across humanity s numerous cultures focusing in particular on how this question is expressed through various pieces of artwork such as sculptures and paintings He also looked back through his own life eventually realizing that lurking beneath his daughter s question was an even more fundamental question Who am I His attempt to answer this question forms the foundation of this book New Testament Pattern

Jean-Louis Leuba,2022-11-24 What is the nature of Christian unity Is it Sacramental Organic Federal Spiritual These are questions that demand careful examination when different Christian traditions are drawing closer to one another in a common desire to heal the divisions that hinder the witness of the Church to the world In any attempt to deal with these questions full weight must be given to the evidence of the New Testament itself what kind of unity does it reveal In New Testament Pattern Jean Louis Leuba reveals a two fold framework of unity in the New Testament One strand in its witness to Christ to the Apostles and to the Church emphasises the institutional traditional and particular The other strand emphasises the personal dynamic and universal Yet the two strands are actually one Their unity is more comprehensive more creative than any undifferentiated unity could be with important implications for ecumenism and broader scriptural study The Last Sacrifice Hank Hanegraaff,Sigmund Brouwer,2012-04-19 Helius Nero s most trusted adviser anticipates the death of his sworn enemy the legendary warrior Gallus Sergius Vitas scheduled to die a gruesome death in the arena However the badly beaten man who appears in the amphitheater is not who he seems Rescued by a stranger and given a mysterious scroll Vitas is told he must decipher this letter to find the answers he needs a letter that Helius is also determined to decipher and to
