attempted to give a brief factual and objective history of the Christian Church in China the policy of the Communist Party toward the Christian Church and to look into the possibilities for the future of the Christian Church in China Preface A Protestant Church in Communist China John Craig William Keating, 2012-02-16 Freedom of religious belief is guaranteed under the constitution of the People's Republic of China but the degree to which this freedom is able to be exercised remains a highly controversial issue Much scholarly attention has been given to persecuted underground groups such as Falun but one area that remains largely unexplored is the relationship between officially registered churches and the communist government This study investigates the history of one such official church Moore Memorial Church in Shanghai This church was founded by American Methodist missionaries By the time of the 1949 revolution it was the largest Protestant church in East Asia running seven day a week programs As a case study of one individual church operating from an historical rather than theological perspective this study examines the experience of people at this church against the backdrop of the turbulent politics of the Mao and Deng eras It asks and seeks to answer questions such as were the people at the church pleased to see the foreign missionaries leave Were people forced to sign the so called Christian manifesto Once the church doors were closed in 1966 did worshipers go underground Why was this particular church especially chosen to be the first re opened in Shanghai in 1979 What explanations are there for its phenomenal growth since then A considerable proportion of the data for this study is drawn from Chinese language sources including interviews personal correspondence statistics internal church documents and archives many of which have never previously been published or accessed by foreign researchers The main focus of this study is on the period from 1949 to 1989 a period in which the church experienced many ups and downs restrictions and limitations The Mao era in particular remains one of the least understood and seldom written about periods in the history of Christianity in China This study therefore makes a significant contribution to our evolving understanding of the delicate balancing act between compromise co operation and compliance that categorizes church state relations in modern China The Diaspora Returns Home Bryan M. Woods, 2024-03-15 In recent years the Vietnamese diaspora including some of whom are Protestant Christian Vi t Ki u have returned to their natal homeland of Vietnam in large numbers This book investigates the phenomenon of the Protestant Christian Vi t Ki u who have returned and reestablished belonging in Vietnam with a missional purpose and the perspective of non migrant local Protestant Christian leaders as a case study of diaspora missiology It is based upon doctoral research utilizing in depth interviews which sought to answer the following questions 1 What are the motivating factors of Protestant Christian Vi t Ki u returning to Vietnam for mission related purposes 2 What has been the experience in ministry of the returning Protestant Christian Vi t Ki u regarding mission related reasons for returning 3 How have the non migrants experienced the phenomenon of return This book explores the answers to these questions as a case study of diaspora missiology Findings suggest that the Protestant Christian Vi t Ki u are welcomed back in Vietnam and contributing in many dynamic ways in the homeland At the same time the return journey is a road layered with complexities contradictions opportunities and unique challenges Findings from this diaspora community engaged in missions by and beyond the diaspora give insight into the paradigm of diaspora missiology and temper the enthusiasm for widely promoted theory Important questions arise regarding how far diaspora as a framework can carry us Pentecostal Preaching and Ministry in Multicultural and Post-Christian Canada Steven M. Studebaker,2019-11-07 Over the past forty years Canada has become an increasingly secular multicultural and religiously plural society Indeed the church in Canada and Pentecostals in particular face a challenging context for responding to the call to bear witness to Christ in the power of the Holy Spirit Like the disciples on the day of Pentecost however we need the Holy Spirit to come upon us and liberate us from our post Christian pessimism We need the Holy Spirit to enable us to proclaim the gospel to the nations people that are no longer at the ends of the earth but making their home in Canada This book engages this new context and considers and proposes ways that pentecostal Christians and churches can respond to the challenges of the increasingly post Christian multicultural secular and religiously plural context of Canadian society Her wild oats, by John Bickerdyke

The Way of Spiritual Encouragement Zacharias Tanee Fomum,2016-07-25 This book carries a message of love and restoration It s an exaltation of grace and of the greatness of God whose plans for believers and even backsliders are marvelous This book also talks about God s gracious provision for the fullness of the Holy Spirit As you read through this book you will understand that the sadness and frustration experienced by some believers today are due to their inability to know or understand what God is doing or can do Many believers have their eyes fixed on their own achievements It s what the author calls human centered theology It looks at what they can do in their own strength and not in the strength of the Lord The message in this book can produce in you what it produced in the author Z T Fomum He sums it up with My own faith in Him grew while I was writing I was deeply comforted to know that God is so good so loving and so gracious My desire is to love Him more and more The message in this book is one of hope and restoration Get into the way of spiritual encouragement by reading it Pipe, Bible, and Peyote among the Oglala Lakota Paul B.
