The Migration Experience in Africa Jonathan Baker,Tade Akin

Aina,1995 South Africa by Christian M Rogerson

Rethinking Empowerment Jane L. Parpart,Shirin M. Rai,Kathleen A.

Staudt,2003-08-29 Rethinking Empowerment looks at the changing role of women in developing countries and calls for a new approach to empowerment An approach that adopts a more nuanced feminist interpretation of power and em power ment recognises that local empowerment is always embedded in regional national and global contexts pays attention to institutional structures and politics and acknowledges that empowerment is both a process and an outcome Moreover the book warns that an obsession with measurement rather than process can undermine efforts to foster transformative and empowering outcomes It concludes that power must be restored as the centrepiece of empowerment Only then will the term and its advocates provide meaningful ammunition for dealing with the challenges of an increasingly unequal and often sexist global local world

Empowering Migrant Women Leah Briones,2017-03-02 Based on insights from Filipina experiences of domestic work in Paris and Hong Kong this volume breaks through the polarized thinking and migration centric policy action on the protection of migrant women domestic workers from abuse to link migrants rights and victimization with livelihood migration and development The book contextualizes agency and rights in the workers capability to secure a livelihood in the global political economy and is instrumental in making the problem of migrant women workers empowerment both a migration and development agenda The volume is essential reading for social scientists bureaucrats and non governmental political activists interested in the protection of the rights and livelihoods of migrants It will also appeal to migration and feminist scholars who have yet to adopt the contribution of critical development studies in the analysis of low skilled female labour migration

Mobility, Labour Migration and Border Controls in Asia A. Kaur,I. Metcalfe,2006-05-02 One of the biggest challenges facing the Asia Pacific region in the 21st century is the large scale cross border movement of people This book explores sovereignty security issues and border management strategies of major states in the face of intensified transnational economic and social processes and the expanding global governance regime

Cultures in Contact Dirk

Hoerder,2002-11-21 Analysis of migrations regional interregional continent wide and global and the resulting cultural interactions and societal changes

Multinational Maids Anju Mary Paul,2017-09-28 Explores how global markets

middlemen and destination aspirations drive the stepwise migrations of Filipino and Indonesian migrant domestic workers

Made in the Philippines James A. Tyner, 2004-08-02 The Philippines is the world's largest exporter of temporary contract labor with a huge 800 000 workers a year being deployed on either six month or two year contracts This labor migration is highly regulated by the government private and non governmental non private organizations Tyner argues that migrants are socially constructed or made by these parties and that migrants in turn become political resources Employing a post structural feminist perspective Tyner questions the very ontology of migration

Rural Women in Urban China

Tamara Jacka, 2014-12-18 Based on in depth ethnographic research and using an approach that seeks to understand how migration is experienced by the migrants themselves this is a fascinating study of the experiences of women in rural China who joined the vast migration to Beijing and other cities at the end of the twentieth century It focuses on the experiences of rural urban migrants the particular ways in which they talk about those experiences and how those experiences affect their sense of identity Through first hand accounts of actual migrant workers the author provides valuable insights into how rural women negotiate rural urban experiences how they respond to migration and life in the city and how that experience shapes their world view values and relations with others The book makes a major contribution to our understanding of the relationship between gender and social change and of the ways in which globalization and modernity are experienced at the most personal level

Global Filipinos Deirdre McKay, 2012-06-07 Contract workers from the Philippines make up one of the world's largest movements of temporary labor migrants Deirdre McKay follows Filipino migrants from one rural community to work sites overseas and then home again Focusing on the experiences of individuals McKay interrogates current approaches to globalization multi sited research subjectivity and the village itself She shows that rather than weakening village ties temporary labor migration gives the village a new global dimension created in and through the relationships

imaginings and faith of its members in its potential as a site for a better future
