The Climate of Monastic Prayer Thomas Merton, 2018-03-13 This guide to monastic prayer written in 1968 and thus turning out to be Thomas Merton's final testament to us is now available in a new edition commemorating the fiftieth anniversary of his death While he wrote it for other monastics all seekers drawn to explore the full dimensions of prayer will be enriched by his words especially as they take on added meaning in today's dizzying world The climate in which monastic prayer flowers is that of the desert where human comfort is absent where the secure routines of the earthly city offer no support and where prayer must be sustained by God in the purity of faith The Climate of Monastic Prayer, 2005

Thomas Merton's Dark Path William H.

Shannon, 1987-03-01 In the mystical tradition the dark or apophatic way has a long history It is the way of John of the Cross of Master Eckhart of Juliana of Norwich of the anonymous author of The Cloud of Unknowing and of Thomas Merton This dark path of contemplation that Merton followed wrote about extensively and considered the focal point of his life is the subject of William H Shannon's book Thomas Merton's Paradise Journey Thomas Merton, William H.

Shannon, 2010-07-15 A book which traces the development of the thoughts and writings of the 20th century Cistercian monk Thomas Merton on the subject of contemplation Liturgical Feasts and Seasons Thomas Merton, 2023-11-30 Liturgical Feasts and Seasons in this third volume of paper from Thomas Merton's conferences during his decade 1955-1965 as novice master at the Cistercian Abbey of Gethsemani his insight into the liturgical pattern of the Christian year and beyond is presented in fresh detail Merton's own commitment to this central dimension of Christian life is clear and nowhere more so than in his work introducing students to the patterns that would mark their lives as monks Though dating from the period just before the liturgical reforms of Vatican II Merton's commentaries remain pertinent The thoroughly annotated text is preceded by an extensive introduction situating this material in the context of Merton's lifelong writing on liturgy Moreover as his former student Br Paul Quenon notes in his foreword this context is one deeply rooted in Merton's understanding of Scripture These notes take us into one man's lifetime of reflection and seasoned experience of the Church Year In the Liturgical Feasts and Seasons Novitiate Conferences on Scripture and Liturgy 3 Patrick F O Connell deeply rooted in Merton's understanding of Scripture Intercessory Prayer and the Monastic Ideal in the Time of the Carolingian Reforms

Renie S. Choy, 2016-11-17 In early medieval Europe monasticism constituted a significant force in society because the prayers of the religious on behalf of others featured as powerful currency The study of this phenomenon is at once full of potential and peril rightly drawing attention to the wider social involvement of an otherwise exclusive group but also describing a religious community in terms of its service provision Previous scholarship has focused on the supply and demand of prayer within the medieval economy of power patronage and gift exchange Intercessory Prayer and the Monastic

Ideal in the Time of the Carolingian Reforms is the first volume to explain how this transactional dimension of prayer factored into monastic spirituality Renie S Choy uncovers the relationship between the intercessory function of monasteries and the ascetic concern for moral conversion in the minds of prominent religious leaders active between c 750 820 Through sustained analysis of the devotional thought of Benedict of Aniane and contemporaneous religious reformers during the reigns of Charlemagne and Louis the Pious Choy examines key topics in the study of Carolingian monasticism liturgical organization and the intercessory performances of the Mass and the Divine Office monastic theology and relationships of prayer within monastic communities and with the world outside Arguing that monastic leaders showed new interest on the intersection between the interiority of prayer and the functional world of social relationships this study reveals the ascetic ideal undergirding the provision of intercessory prayer by monasteries In the School of Prophets Ephrem Arcement, 2015-03-31 The distinctive prophetic quality of Thomas Merton's spirituality shaped by figures ranging from the Hebrew prophets to Thich Nhat Hanh emerges from this fresh examination of the works Merton read responded to and celebrated in his own writing In the School of Prophets examines the final decade of Merton's life mainly through the lens of his journals and letters and helps to fill a gap in contemporary Merton studies William Blake and various Latin American poets novelists Boris Pasternak Albert Camus and William Faulkner existentialists S ren Kierkegaard and Gabriel Marcel monks of the Egyptian desert and Bernard of Clairvaux number among those who helped shape Merton's prophetic consciousness leading him to reexamine what it means to be both a human being and a contemplative monk of the twentieth century To Live for God Alone Mark O'Keefe, OSB, María Gonzalo-García, OCSO, 2023-02-15 What does it mean to live for God alone Prefer nothing to the love of Christ My God and my all God alone suffices these statements from the saints express the single desire that unified their hearts and gave direction to their lives God alone was the constant theme of Saint Rafael Arnaiz 1911 1938 the expression of the search for God that informs any monastic vocation Saint Rafael was profoundly and thoroughly a monk even though ill health repeatedly forced him to leave the monastery and he was never formally professed With his single hearted love for Christ and for the Blessed Virgin he faithfully walked a path of trials and suffering that matured his faith sharpened his longing taught him to wait and to hope in God and opened his heart to love To Live for God Alone invites the reader into the compelling story of Rafael's personal journey and into his penetrating insight into the cross and the Christian vocation Thomas Merton John Eudes Bamberger, 2020-02-21 Like Bernard of Clairvaux whose last act was to leave his cloister to mediate successfully between two nobles and prevent bloodshed Thomas Merton found in the monastic life of prayer a source of strength empathy and understanding To understand Merton one must first know him as a Prophet of Monastic renewal John Eudes Bamberger entered Gethsemani Abbey in 1950 having earned an MD from the University of Cincinnati the previous year and done his internship at Georgetown University Hospital A student of Thomas Merton from 1952 1955 he worked with Merton after his ordination in 1956 in screening applicants to the abbey He served as abbot of the Abbey of the Genesee in New York state from 1971 until 2001 Since returning from a term as superior in the Philippines he lives in a hermitage at Genesee      Man of Dialogue Gregory K. Hillis,2021-11-15 How Catholic was Thomas Merton Since his death in 1968 Merton s Catholic identity has been regularly questioned both by those who doubt the authenticity of his Catholicism given his commitment to ecumenical and interreligious dialogue and by those who admire Merton as a thinker but see him as an aberration who rebelled against his Catholicism to articulate ideas that went against the church In this book Gregory K Hillis illustrates that Merton s thought was intertwined with his identity as a Catholic priest and emerged out of a thorough immersion in the church s liturgical theological and spiritual tradition In addition to providing a substantive introduction to Merton s life and thought this book illustrates that Merton was fundamentally shaped by his identity as a Roman Catholic      Thomas Merton in California David M. Odorisio,2024-02-03 Previously unpublished material from world renowned Trappist monk and author Thomas Merton featuring the final conference talks given in the United States before his untimely death In May and October of 1968 Thomas Merton offered two extended conferences at Our Lady of the Redwoods Abbey a Cistercian women s community in Northern California Comprising over twenty six hours of previously unpublished material Thomas Merton in California covers a variety of topics including ecology and consciousness yoga and Hinduism Native American ritual and rites of passage Sufi spirituality and inter religious dialogue along with extended discussions on prayer and the contemplative life The material presented in these talks reveals Merton s wide ranging intellectual and spiritual pursuits in the final year of his life and fills a long standing lacuna around Merton s visits to Redwoods Monastery forming a necessary bridge to the Asian journey that was to come Practical and applicable as well as searching and inspired Thomas Merton in California is essential for Merton readers and scholars and all those interested in deepening their spiritual lives      The Wind, the Fountain and the Fire Mark Barrett,2019-12-12 The 2020 Lent Book from Bloomsbury explores the vivid imagery of the Psalms and the Gospels as a path into scriptural prayer Scripture and especially the Book of Psalms has always formed the substance of the daily prayer of Christian monks and nuns Monastic men and women spend more time among the scriptures each day than in most other activities How do such regular interactions with the texts of the Old and New Testaments help us renew our Christian imaginations how might these reflective encounters enable all of us to discover the wind of the Spirit the fountain of living water and the fire from which God speaks within the printed pages of our Bibles In The Wind the Fountain and the Fire Mark Barrett a Benedictine monk of Worth Abbey offers a Lenten pathway through scripture opening the gateway of sacred imagery as a mode of prayerful reflection For each week of Lent he has selected a different image the Dust the Mountain the Well the Light and the Tomb In these richly imagined biblical symbols we are invited to find keys which can unlock both our experience of scripture and our understanding of our own hearts      The Art of Winning Souls Michael Casey,2012-05-01 In his chapter on the procedure for the reception of new brothers Saint Benedict makes provision for entrusting them to the care of a senior who is skilled in winning souls who will diligently pay attention to them in everything 58 6 In The Art of Winning Souls Pastoral Care of Novices Michael Casey OCSO reflects on what this means today based on his own experience and observation of the fruitful ministry of others Here Casey focuses on the pastoral care given in the name of a monastic community to those who enter it from initial contact up to the point where their vocation has recognizably stabilized His reflections are not intended to be prescriptive They are rather descriptive of what he considers to be best practice as he has encountered this in his experience of many different expressions of the monastic and Benedictine charism This book promises to serve as an indispensable resource for vocation directors novice directors and junior directors for years to come Bernard of Clairvaux Jean Leclercq,1973 Grace Michael Casey,2018-04-17 Benedictine monastic spirituality has emerged as an antidote to the spiritual and cultural challenges facing people of faith today In this book the author focuses specifically on GRACE and the benevolence of God as it expresses itself in many different ways along our spiritual journey What is a person likely to experience when beginning to give up him or herself conscientiously to the spiritual journey In this beautiful guide gradually we come to realize that everything that happens in our lives is somehow the gift of our loving Father Every journey is ultimately individual As Casey explains what you hear within your own spirit is more significant than what he can say But his aim is to help you listen to the voice of God in your heart Psychology, Religion, and Spirituality James M.

Nelson,2009-02-17 Over a century ago psychologists who were fascinated with religion began to study and write about it Theologians and religious practitioners have responded to this literature producing a fascinating dialogue that deals with our fundamental und standings about the human person and our place in the world This book provides an introduction to the important conversations that have developed out of these interchanges The dialogue between psychology and religion is difficult to study for a number of reasons First it requires knowledge of both psychology and religion People with a background in psychology often lack a solid understanding of the religious traditions they wish to study and theologians may not be up to date on the latest developments in psychology Second it requires conceptual tools to organize the material and understand the basic problems involved in any attempt to connect the science of psychology with religion These concepts can be found in many places for instance in the writings of philosophers of science but they are complex and often hard to follow for those without a proper theological and philosophical ba ground Finally authors who write on the topic come to the study of psychology and religion from a variety of academic and personal backgrounds This makes for wonderful diversity in conversations but it makes understanding and mastery of the material quite difficult Thomas Merton Patrick F.

O'Connell,2013 Thomas Merton the Trappist monk who died in 1968 was one of the great spiritual writers of the twentieth century His published works include a hundred volumes in many genres But it was perhaps in the essay that he found his natural element Especially in the last decade of his life Merton showed in his essays an increasing willingness to dispense with pre fabricated conclusions bringing his deeply spiritual profoundly Catholic sensibility to bear on matters beyond the usual religious and monastic milieu This volume is the first to provide a broad cross section of Merton's work as an essayist collecting pieces that reflect characteristic examples of his astonishing output and the fantastic breadth of his interests The 33 essays collected here range from interreligious dialogue to racial justice from the wisdom of the desert fathers to the novels of Faulkner and Camus from the nuclear threat to the philosophy of solitude and throughout the centrality of the Christian mystery to authentic human identity
