The Cold Room J.T. Ellison, 2010-03-01 Homicide detective Taylor Jackson thinks she's seen it all in Nashville but she's never seen anything as perverse as The Conductor. Once his victim is captured he contains her in a glass coffin slowly starving her to death. Only then does he give in to his attraction. Later he creatively disposes of the body by reenacting scenes from famous paintings. Strangely similar macabre works are being displayed in Europe. Taylor teams up with her fiancé FBI profiler Dr John Baldwin and New Scotland Yard detective James Memphis Highsmith, a haunted man who has eyes only for Taylor to put an end to The Conductor's art collection. Has the killer gone international? Or are there dueling artists competing to create the ultimate masterpiece. Ice and Refrigeration, 1920 The Diener H. L. Riviere, 2016-12-19 The Diener by H. L. Riviere. The embalming machine pumped fluid into her and blood flowed red from the vein. Gradually the venous blood became a lighter color. Her heart stopped but the machine pumped on. Soon the fluid flowing from the groin incision was almost colorless like the embalming fluid. He stopped the pump and disconnected it from her body. She could wait in the cold room until tomorrow. He fished in his pocket for the metal disk, tied it to her toe with a fresh piece of string, and stood over his work. His heart was pounding and his breathing was rapid as if he had just run a race. What power, what absolute power he thought. Something doesn't seem right about the cadavers at the Portland University Health Center Medical School dissection laboratory, well, about one cadaver. Grace, director and primary lecturer of the medical gross anatomy course for fifteen years, knew something was amiss but she couldn't quite figure it out. She would have to ask Carl, the lab's mortician, to get to the bottom of it. But Carl knows exactly what is happening in the lab. It's where he's disposing his victims.
