The College Presidency Initiation Into The Order Of The Turtle:

The College Presidency Miller Alfred Franklin Ritchie,1970 No Equal In The World Joseph N. Crowley,1994-06-01
No Equal in the World is a comprehensive study of the literature on the American academic presidency from the middle of the nineteenth century when the first universities as distinct from colleges began to emerge to the present The book surveys widely divergent literature on the biographies of major presidents at crucial moments in the history of their institutions The book affords an overview of the development of both the role of the university president and the public's perception of that role and indicates where perception and reality diverge At a time when university presidents must find their way through a minefield of increasingly heated debates over issues such as free speech curriculum faculty diversity and the specter of political correctness Crowley's book provides a sense of history to those striving to understand the demands of the position It is an invaluable resource for scholars Higher Education ,1981 Higher Education D. Kent Halstead,1981

Colleges on the Brink Charles M. Ambrose,Michael T. Nietzel,2023-12-15 Colleges on the Brink is about the financial crises many colleges are facing in the post pandemic era and how they can be resolved The tools described require changing how colleges spend money while still maintaining core academic values Ambrose and Nietzel discuss the conditions involving financial exigency and other major budget overhauls and they outline how to maximize the likelihood institutions can regain financial health The challenge these colleges face is to come back from the brink and become leaner financially stable institutions ready to provide the education students need The Role of the College President's Wife Glenda Ann Belote,1973 The Rotarian ,1971-11 Established in 1911 The Rotarian is the official magazine of Rotary International and is circulated worldwide Each issue contains feature articles columns and departments about or of interest to Rotarians Seventeen Nobel Prize winners and 19 Pulitzer Prize winners from Mahatma Ghandi to Kurt Vonnegut Jr have written for the magazine Career Perceptions, Position Sequences, and Career Strategies of Michigan Public Community-junior College Presidents Kenneth Earl Borland,1976 Choosing a College President Judith Block McLaughlin,David Riesman,1990 This book examines the search and selection process for college and university presidents in its variety and intricacy Chapter I examines the question of the importance of presidents and searches Chapter II describes the process of presidential succession at a private liberal arts college Chapter III discusses the tasks required at the start of the search Chapter IV illustrates the importance of confidentiality by presenting in disguised form the search process for a president of a flagship state university In Chapter V the authors discuss conflicts over privacy and publicity in the search process and in American society generally Chapter VI presents an account of the 1983 search at the University of Florida in the glare of Florida's open meeting and open records laws Chapter VII examines the significance of disclosure laws Chapter VIII describes the Winthrop College South Carolina search conducted with the help of a consultant The following chapter goes on to explore the implications of consultants in search processes Chapter X describes the Rice University Texas search process and illuminates the ways in which members of a search committee can court a candidate Chapter XI examines the two way process in which candidate and institution must each choose and be chosen Over 250 references and an index are included
