Working with Critical Realism Alpesh Maisuria, Grant Banfield, 2022-12-30 This international and interdisciplinary collection gathers stories from researchers and research students about their methodological encounters with critical realism Whether the contributors are experienced or novice researchers they are predominantly new to critical realism For various reasons as the contributors detail they have all been drawn to critical realism It is well known that critical realism can be bewildering and even overwhelming to newcomers especially to those unfamiliar with language of and without a grounding in philosophy While there are now numerous and important introductory and applied critical realist texts that make critical realism more accessible to a broader audience stories from newcomers have been absent especially as part of a single collection The significance and uniqueness of this collection lies in its documentation of first hand reflective insights on the practical use and implementation of critical realism The contributors feature critical realist inspired research journeys in Australia England Scotland Belgium Sweden and Spain The hope of this book is that the stories and accounts presented in it will inspire or at least sufficiently arouse the curiosity of others to explore critical realist possibilities which we believe offer enormous value to serious researchers across and within all disciplines and subjects who are interested in rigorous intellectual work with a socially progressive purpose Residential Schools and Reconciliation J.R.
