The Christian Tradition Religion In Human Cultures Series:

Religion and Human Rights Laura E. Alexander, 2023-12-19 This book highlights perspectives from religious traditions worldwide in conversation with other communities who promote critique or question the idea of human rights. It shows how human rights can provide a platform for dialogue among groups of people from diverse backgrounds who seek to address pressing issues of human well-being. In each chapter, readers will be introduced to religious and human rights perspectives on specific global issues. Intersecting with these issues, the work examines the history and philosophy of human rights for a generally accessible overview of human rights theory, foundations, and critique. Specific case studies woven through the book will also help both students and advocates, whether they are part of religious communities or not, engage more deeply with particular areas of concern. This volume is a useful resource for undergraduate students who are learning about the relationship between religion and human rights in a classroom for the first time, as well as upper-level and graduate students looking for a broad basis of knowledge and a starting point for digging deeper into specific areas of scholarship. Educational

Programs that Work Far West Laboratory for Educational Research and Development, 1979 Experience, Culture and Religion in Systematic Theology Edmond Zi-Kang Chua, 2023-09-28 Most systematicians take as their starting point the nature of God and scripture as the means by which God's nature is revealed, but what would a systematic theology look like that began with an experiential knowledge of God? Here Edmond Chua offers a method for just such an approach. Beginning with realms of human experience including psychology, cultural diversity, and religious plurality, he builds the framework of a systematic theology that is inclusive and pluriform while retaining the core tenets of a Christian doctrine of God. Notwithstanding his novel methodology, Chua's argument remains biblically rooted and appreciative of the Christian tradition. In the latter half of the book, he returns to the classical doctrines of the Trinity, Christology, evil, sin, and salvation, allowing his inclusive view of the human religious experience to shed new light on the wisdom bequeathed by Paul, Augustine, Aquinas, Luther, Barth, and others. The result is a bold Christian vision that is culturally engaged and globally applicable, of interest to systematic theologians while contributing to interreligious dialogue. Debating the African Condition: Race, gender, and culture conflict Alamin M. Mazrui, Alamin Mazrui, Willy Mutunga, 2004 Is Ali Mazrui a visionary or a vacuous intellectual? Is he reactionary, revolutionary, or essentially a radical pragmatist? These questions were the focus of a special plenary session of the Conference of the African Association of Political Science that took place in Harare, Zimbabwe, in June 2003. The forum was intended to interrogate Ali Mazrui's contributions in the last forty years or so of his career as an academic. The question themselves capture the magnitude of polarization among different sections of Mazrui's audiences generated by his often provocative propositions and prescriptions on a wide range of issues, from the role of intellectuals in Africa's transformation to the imperative of pax Africana, from Tanzania to Islamophobia, from the condition of the Black woman to the destiny of the Black race. It is some of the exchanges, sometimes intense and even acrimonious, arising from Mazrui's ideas on continental and global African affairs from the 1960s to the present that constitute the subject matter. Together they are not only a celebration of Ail Mazrui's own intellectual life as one long debate but also an intellectual mirror of the contours of some of the hotly contested terrains in Africa's quest for self-realization.

Incarnate Earth Matthew Eaton, 2023-03-10 Incarnate Earth reimagines the doctrine of Incarnation by extending the unity between Creator and creation beyond Jesus to the entire world. In dialogue with contemporary theologies of deep incarnation and the philosophy of Emmanuel Levinas, the author argues that the face of Christ is encountered in the cruciform demand for justice embodied in the creaturely finitude and vulnerability that grounds ethics. Central to this vision is a recognition that the religious role functions at the heart of Jesus' life: the revelation of God and the redemption of the world are performed throughout the physical world, irreducible to humanity or one heroic representative of the species. Thus, the human encounters the divine Christ in and as the face of any vulnerable thing: animal, vegetal, elemental, or otherwise, not as a transcendent being mediated through humanity. The radical nature of this reimagination necessitates renewed discussions of ecological and animal ethics, calling for compassionate care for all vulnerable bodies insofar as this is possible. It will be of interest to scholars of Christian theology and the philosophy of religion, particularly those focused on ecotheology, religious naturalism, and environmental ethics.

Gods in the Global Village Lester R. Kurtz, 2015-04-01 In a world plagued by religious conflict, how can the various religious and secular traditions coexist peacefully on the planet? And what role does sociology play in helping us understand the state of religious life in a globalizing world? In the Fourth Edition of Gods in the Global Village, author Lester Kurtz continues to address these questions. This text is an engaging, thought-provoking examination of the relationships among the major faith traditions that inform the thinking and ethical standards of most people in the emerging global social order. Thoroughly updated to reflect recent events, the book discusses the role of religion in our daily lives and global politics and the ways in which religion is both an agent of and barrier to social change.

Trees in the Religions of Early Medieval England Michael D. J. Bintley, 2015 Drawing on sources from archaeology and written texts, the author brings out the full significance of trees in both pagan and Christian Anglo-Saxon religion.

Sacred Codes: Artificial Intelligence and the Creation of Religious Texts KHRITISH SWARGIARY, 2024-11-01 In the digital age, artificial intelligence has transcended boundaries and infiltrated various aspects of human life, from healthcare and transportation to education and entertainment. As we stand on the brink of a new era, AI's influence is extending into a profoundly unique and delicate domain: spirituality and the creation of religious texts. This book, Sacred Codes: Artificial Intelligence and the Creation of Religious Texts, seeks to explore the fascinating intersection of AI technology with the spiritual and religious spheres, examining the ethical, philosophical, and societal implications of using artificial intelligence in the creation and interpretation of sacred writings.

Yeow-Tong Chia,Zhenzhou Zhao,2023-05-31 A key objective of education in China is to cultivate one s moral values with the ultimate objective of becoming fully human Unlike the West which regards moral cultivation as related to but separate from citizenship cultivation East Asia including China views moral and citizenship cultivation as synonymous The essays in this book offer various perspectives on and understandings of Chinese citizenship and education by a group of scholars of Chinese heritage situated inside and outside of China They offer compelling evidence and rich theoretical discussions about the practice of teaching citizenship in the state education the interplay between citizenship and China s cultural and religious traditions and the construction of citizenship from the groups from marginal positions The book uses citizenship as a lens to examine the pressing issues of identity democracy religion and cosmopolitanism and sheds new light on China s ongoing social and educational changes Thinking through citizenship and citizenship education may act as an important driving force to transform the culture and paradigms of governance in China and the new meanings of becoming fully human This book will be of interest to researchers and advanced students of Education Politics Sociology and Public Policy The chapters in this book were originally published in various Routledge journals Educational Programs that Work ,1987 Animal

Studies Paul Waldau, 2013-03-28 The field requires both learning and unlearning to develop forms of critical thinking that are scientifically informed and ethically sensitive African Pentecostalism, the Bible, and Cultural Resilience Biri, Kudzai, 2020-04-30 This volume based on a PhD thesis submitted to the University of Zimbabwe investigates the resilience of Shona religion and culture among ZAOGA Pentecostal Christians Whereas the Pentecostal ideology suggests that old things have passed away it appears that old things continue to have high significance for the new The book demonstrates how belief in avenging spirits witches and witchcraft value of words spoken prior to death the role status and significance of women belief in unnatural events liturgy and salvation have remained relevant to the lives of ZAOGA Shona converts The patterns of continuity discontinuity extension collaboration contradiction re interpretation and rejection between Shona traditional religion and culture and ZAOGA are explored challenging the framing of African Pentecostalism as a mere imitation and parroting of US theology The conclusion is that while ZAOGA self consciously presents itself as a sophisticated trans national and progressive Pentecostal movement members continue to wrestle with Shona indigenous beliefs and practices An African womanist framework is adapted to challenge ZAOGA to promote the well being of women Politics of Culture and the Spirit of Critique Gabriel Rockhill, Alfredo Gomez-Muller, 2011-03-08 This book of tightly woven dialogues engages prominent thinkers in a discussion about the role of culture broadly construed in contemporary society and politics Faced with the conceptual inflation of the notion of culture which now imposes itself as an indispensable issue in contemporary moral and political debates these dynamic exchanges seek to rethink culture and critique beyond the schematic models that have often predominated such as the opposition between mainstream multiculturalism and the clash of civilizations Prefaced by an introduction relating current cultural debates to the critical theory tradition this book examines the politics of culture and the spirit of critique from three different vantage points To begin Gabriel Rockhill and Alfredo Gomez Muller provide a stage setting dialogue followed by discussions with two major representatives of contemporary critical theory Seyla Benhabib and Nancy Fraser Working at the horizons of this tradition Judith Butler Immanuel Wallerstein and Cornel West then provide important critical perspectives on cultural politics The book s concluding section engages with Michael Sandel and Will Kymlicka who work out of the Rawlsian tradition yet are uniquely concerned with the issue of culture broadly understood The epilogue an interview with Axel Honneth returns to the core issue of critical theory in cultural politics Ranging from recent developments and progressive interventions in critical theory to dialogues that incorporate its insights into larger discussions of social and political philosophy this book sharpens old critical tools while developing new strategies for rethinking the role of culture in contemporary society Vatican II and New Thinking about Catholic Education Sean Whittle, 2016-10-26 It is only in the years since Vatican II that the new thinking about Catholic education has crystalised into shape Vatican II and New Thinking about Catholic Education provides an opportune moment to take stock of the impact of Vatican II on Catholic education This volume considers the various ways in which Vatican II and its teaching on education has been received and engages with the challenges and testing times that beset faith based education in the twenty first century With insights from an international range of leading and influential advocates of Catholic education the volume demonstrates the differing contexts of Catholic education and explores the ways in which Vatican II s teaching on education has been received over the past four or five decades

Mmanwu and Mission among the Igbo People of Nigeria Adolphus Chikezie Anuka ,2018

The joy over the growth of Christianity in Africa is also a challenge to all concerned to help Christianity take roots ennoble and become one with the cultural life of the numerous tribes of Africa This missionary expectation is not yet fully realized in many local churches in Africa From these perspectives Adolphus Chikezie Anuka inaugurates a new brand of concrete target oriented emphasis on dialogical inculturation In this book the Mmanwu cultural institution of the Igbo people of south eastern Nigeria stands in central focus opening itself to the influences of Christian values as well as speaking to the religious assumptions of Christianity The theoretical results of this research work and its practical pastoral suggestions are both enlightening and appealing
