The Christy Moore Songbook:

The Christy Moore Songbook Christy Moore, 2005 The Christy Moore Songbook, 1984 The Christy Moore Songbook Christy Moore, 1984 This collection presents the lyrics and music of more than 100 of the songs Christy Moore has performed Celtic Thunder (Songbook) Celtic Thunder, 2008-10-01 Piano Vocal Guitar Artist Songbook Not a group but a show Celtic Thunder is a collection of traditional and contemporary Celtic music at its finest Featuring five male vocalists the show was first staged in Dublin of August 2007 and has since been a mainstay on PBS stations Our songbook includes 18 tunes arranged by Phil Coulter Caledonia Come by the Hills Heartland Ireland s Call The Island Lauren I The Mountains of Mourne Remember Me Steal Away and more Language, the Singer and the Song Richard J. Watts, Franz Andres Morrissey, 2019-01-31 The relationship between language and music has much in common rhythm structure sound metaphor Exploring the phenomena of song and performance this book presents a sociolinguistic model for analysing them Based on ethnomusicologist John Blacking s contention that any song performed communally is a folk song regardless of its generic origins it argues that folk song to a far greater extent than other song genres displays communal or inclusive types of performance The defining feature of folk song as a multi modal instantiation of music and language is its participatory nature making it ideal for sociolinguistic analysis In this sense a folk song is the product of specific types of developing social interaction whose major purpose is the construction of a temporally and locally based community Through repeated instantiations this can lead to disparate communities of practice which over time develop sociocultural registers and a communal stance towards aspects of meaningful events in everyday lives that become typical of a discourse community

The Scariiff Martyrs Tomás Mac Conmara, 2021-09-14 This incredible book is very very important Damien Dempsey In November 2008 Tom s Mac Conmara sat with a 105 five year old woman at a nursing home in Clare While gently moving through her memories he asked the east Clare native Do you remember the time that four lads were killed on the Bridge of Killaloe Almost immediately the woman s countenance changed to deep outward sadness Her recollection took him back to 17th November 1920 when news of the brutal death of four men who became known as the Scariiff Martyrs was revealed to the local community Late the previous night on the bridge of Killaloe they were shot by British Forces who claimed they had attempted to escape Locals insisted they were murdered A story remembered for 100 years is now fully told This incident presents a remarkable confluence of dimensions The young rebels committed to a cause Their betrayal by a spy their torture and evident refusal to betray comrades the loneliness and liminal nature of their site of death on a bridge The withholding of their dead bodies and their collective burial All these dimensions bequeath a moment which carries an enduring quality that has reverberated across the generations and continues to strike a deep chord within the local landscape of memory in East Clare and beyond A Conspiracy of Lies Frank Connolly, 2019-04-05 A propulsive and gripping political thriller hewn from one of The Trouble s darkest days Connolly skilfully blends fact and fiction to arrive at something that feels blazingly
