The Church and the Modern Nations, 1850-1920 Enzo Bellini, 1981 The Publishers' Trade List Annual , 1985
Books in Print , 1994 The Church Today Enzo Bellini, 1982 Books in Print Supplement , 1994 Christianity in the New World Martin E. Marty, 1984 Discusses the spread of Christianity to the New World describes religious life in America through the Revolutionary War and explains how religious freedom led to the great variety of churches in the United States Religious Books and Serials in Print , 1982 The Oxford Illustrated History of Ireland R. F. Foster, 2000-11-09 A history of Ireland from prehistoric times to the present Includes 200 illustrations Subject Guide to Books in Print , 1991 Irish women and the creation of modern Catholicism, 1850-1950 Cara Delay, 2019-03-26 This is the first book length study to investigate the place of lay Catholic women in modern Irish history It analyses the intersections of gender class and religion by exploring the roles that middle class working class and rural poor women played in the evolution of Irish Catholicism and thus the creation of modern Irish identities The book demonstrates that in an age of Church growth and renewal stretching from the aftermath of the Great Famine through the Free State years lay women were essential to all aspects of Catholic devotional life including both home based religion and public rituals It also reveals that women by rejecting negotiating and reworking Church dictates complicated Church and clerical authority Irish women and the creation of modern Catholicism re evaluates the relationship between the institutional Church the clergy and women positioning lay Catholic women as central actors in the making of modern Ireland A Reference Guide to Modern Armenian Literature, 1500-1920 Kevork B. Bardakjian, 2000 A comprehensive guide to Armenian writers and literature spanning five centuries Combining features of a reference work bibliographic guide and literary history it records the output of almost 400 authors who wrote both in Armenia and in the communities of the Armenian diaspora Presents a general history of the literature with chapters devoted to a single century and prefaced by information on the era s social cultural and religious milieus followed by a section of biobibliographical entries for Armenian authors a section of bibliographies and reference works and a listing of anthologies of literature both in Armenian and in translation Includes references to earlier authors and to sources of influence both Armenian and non Armenian A final section contains bibliographies devoted to particular genres and periods such as minstrels folklore and prosody A thematic discussion of the works of more than 150 poets historians monks and others highlights the themes that captured the imagination of Armenian authors From publisher description The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record , 1929 Communication and the First World War John Griffiths, 2020-04-06 Despite the voluminous historical literature on the First World War a volume devoted to the theme of communication has yet to appear From the communication of war aims and objectives to the communication of war call up and war experience and knowledge this volume fills the gap in the market including the work of both established and newly emerging scholars working on the First World War across the globe The volume includes chapters that focus on the experience of belligerent and also neutral powers thus providing a genuinely representative dimension to the subject A History of Drink and the English, 1500-2000 Paul Jennings, 2016-02-05 A 2017 CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title award winner This book is an introduction to the history of alcoholic drink in England from the end of the Middle Ages to the present day Treating the subject thematically it covers who drank what they drank how much who produced and sold drink the places where it was enjoyed and the meanings which drinking had for people It also looks at the varied opposition to drinking and the ways in which it has been regulated and policed As a social and cultural history it examines the place of drink in society and how social developments have affected its history and what it meant to individuals and groups as a cultural practice Covering an extended period in time this book takes in the important changes brought about by the Reformation and the processes of industrialization and urbanization This volume also focuses on drink in relation to class and gender and the importance of global developments along with the significance of regional and local difference Whilst a work of history it draws upon the insights of a range of other disciplines which have together advanced our understanding of alcohol The focus is England but it acknowledges the importance of comparison with the experience of other countries in furthering our understanding of England's particular experience This book argues for the centrality of drink in English society throughout the period under consideration whilst emphasizing the ways in which its use abuse and how they have been experienced and perceived have changed at different historical moments It is the first scholarly work which covers the history of drink in England in all its aspects over such an extended period of time Written in a lively and approachable style this book is suitable for those who study social and cultural history as well as those with an interest in the history of drink in England
