Princeton University Press 1922 PREFACE THE material of these lectures which I had the honor of delivering at Princeton University on the Vanuxem Foundation was prepared during the War at the Universities of Harvard Poitiers and Toronto

Certain portions of the work relatively few have already appeared in the form of articles viz part of Chapter I in the Revue de

Mttaphys ique et de Morale July 1918 Chapter IV ii in the Philosophical Review July 1918 Chapter V iii in the International

Journal of Ethics January 1919 Chapter III ii and Chapter VII i v in the Harvard Theological Review October 1918 These now take their place as integral parts of what may be regarded as a supplement to my His tory of Mediaeval Philosophy The purpose of the study as here presented is to approach the Middle Ages from a new point of view by showing how the thought of the period metaphysics included is intimately connected with the whole round of Western civilization to which it belongs

My work represents simply an attempt to open the way it makes no pretense to exhaustive treatment of any of the innumerable problems in volved in so vast a subject I desire to express my cordial thanks to the friends who have aided me in translating these lee Vi PREFACE tures in particular to Mr Daniel Sargent of Har vard University And it is a special duty and pleasure to acknowledge my obligations to Profes sor Horace C Longwell of Princeton University who has offered many valuable suggestions while assisting in the revision of the manuscript and in the task of seeing the work through the press
