The Collapse Of The Fact Value Dichotomy And Other Essays:

The Collapse of the Fact/Value Dichotomy and Other Essays Hilary Putnam, 2004-03-30 In this book one of the world's preeminent philosophers takes issue with an idea that has found an all too prominent place in popular culture and philosophical thought the idea that while factual claims can be rationally established or refuted claims about value are wholly subjective not capable of being rationally argued for or against

The Collapse of the Fact/Value Dichotomy and Other Essays Hilary Putnam, 2004-03-30 If philosophy has any business in the world it is the clarification of our thinking and the clearing away of ideas that cloud the mind In this book one of the world's preeminent philosophers takes issue with an idea that has found an all too prominent place in popular culture and philosophical thought the idea that while factual claims can be rationally established or refuted claims about value are wholly subjective not capable of being rationally argued for or against Although it is on occasion important and useful to distinguish between factual claims and value judgments the distinction becomes Hilary Putnam argues positively harmful when identified with a dichotomy between the objective and the purely subjective Putnam explores the arguments that led so much of the analytic philosophy of language metaphysics and epistemology to become openly hostile to the idea that talk of value and human flourishing can be right or wrong rational or irrational and by which following philosophy social sciences such as economics have fallen victim to the bankrupt metaphysics of Logical Positivism Tracing the problem back to Hume's conception of a matter of fact as well as to Kant's distinction between analytic and synthetic judgments Putnam identifies a path forward in the work of Amartya Sen Lively concise and wise his book prepares the way for a renewed mutual fruition of philosophy and the social sciences

Justice for Hedgehogs Ronald Dworkin, 2011-05-03 The fox knows many things the Greeks said but the hedgehog knows one big thing In his most comprehensive work Ronald Dworkin argues that value in all its forms is one big thing that what truth is life means morality requires and justice demands are different aspects of the same large question He develops original theories on a great variety of issues very rarely considered in the same book moral skepticism literary artistic and historical interpretation free will ancient moral theory being good and living well liberty equality and law among many other topics What we think about any one of these must stand up eventually to any argument we find compelling about the rest Skepticism in all its forms philosophical cynical or post modern threatens that unity The Galilean revolution once made the theological world of value safe for science But the new republic gradually became a new empire the modern philosophers inflated the methods of physics into a totalitarian theory of everything They invaded and occupied all the honorifics reality truth fact ground meaning knowledge and being and dictated the terms on which other bodies of thought might aspire to them and skepticism has been the inevitable result We need a new revolution We must make the world of science safe for value

Metaphysics or Modernity? Simon Baumgartner, Thimo Heisenberg, Sebastian Krebs, 2014-03-19 Telling and Re-telling Stories Paula Baldwin Lind, 2016-04-26 What is the relationship between literature and film What is meant when speaking about adapting a literary work to the screen Is it possible to adapt And if so how Are there films that have improved their literary sources Is adaptation a translation or rather a re interpretation What is the impact of adapting literary classics to a modern context This collection of articles offers a comprehensive and authoritative study of literary adaptation to film which addresses these and other unresolved questions in the field of Literary Adaptation Studies Within five different sections the volume s international team of contributors offers valuable study cases suggesting both the continuity and variety of adaptation theories The first section traces recurring theoretical issues regarding the problems and challenges related to the adaptation of literary works to the particular nature and dynamics of cinema The second and third parts focus on the specific problems and technical challenges of adapting theatre and narrative works to film and TV series respectively The fourth section includes the study of Latin American authors whose works have been adapted to the screen The fifth and final part of the book deals with the structures and devices that film directors use in order to tell stories The art of telling and re telling stories which originated in ancient times is present throughout this publication giving shape to the discussion Adaptations of stories are present everywhere in today s world and their development is well told and re told in this volume which will definitely interest academics and researchers working in literature and film comparative studies novelists screenwriters film makers dramatists theatre directors postgraduate students and those researching on topics related to the philosophy of art and aesthetics The VALIDATE handbook Wija Oortwijn, Laura Sampietro-Colom, 2022-05-31 Health Technology Assessment HTA is defined as a multidisciplinary process that uses explicit methods to determine the value of a health technology at different points in its lifecycle The purpose is to inform decision making in order to promote an equitable efficient and high quality health system The definition reflects that facts and values are intertwined in HTA This means that HTA should be considered as a type of policy analysis wherein the assessment of safety clinical and cost implications of health technologies as well as their wider ethical legal social organizational environmental and other implications is conducted from the view that these aspects are closely interrelated and wherein stakeholders are involved in a more productive way throughout the process of HTA Acknowledging this holds the potential of conducting assessments of health technologies in a way that supports deliberative democratic decision making In the 2018 2021 EU Erasmus strategic partnerships project VALues In Doing Assessments of healthcare TEchnologies VALIDATE a consortium of seven academic and HTA organizations have developed an approach to HTA that allows for the integration of empirical analysis and normative inquiry The VALIDATE handbook an approach on the integration of values in doing assessments of health technologies offers the reader an opportunity to get acquainted with the theoretical considerations and apprehend the associated practical and organizational implications of this approach It offers those interested in HTA to integrate empirical analysis and normative inquiry in a transparent way Deweyan Experimentalism and the Problem of Method in Political Philosophy Joshua Forstenzer, 2019-03-13 This book proposes a pragmatist methodological framework for generating practically relevant political philosophy It draws on John Dewey's social and political philosophy to develop an experimentalist method thus charting a middle course between idealism and realism in political philosophy Deweyan experimentalism promises to balance civic deliberation empirical facts and moral considerations by reconstructing Dewey's pragmatist conceptions of philosophy and democracy from the perspective of social action While some authors have taken the steps to articulate Dewey's experimentalism they have focused on institutional rather than methodological implications This book is original in the ways in which it situates the role of ideas in political practice and contemporary political problems Additionally it underlines the similarities between today and the historical context in which Dewey wrote connects Dewey's social and political philosophy to Greek and Roman mythology and concludes with a timely case study in which the author's methodological insights are applied The result is a book that offers a focused reconstruction of Dewey's work and shows its relevance for engaging with contemporary issues in political philosophy and political theory in a quality digital edition featuring active Contents linked footnotes active URLs legible tables and proper ebook and Bluebook formatting The Review is a student run organization whose primary purpose is to publish a journal of legal scholarship It comes out monthly from November through June and has roughly 2500 pages per volume Student editors make all editorial and organizational decisions This is the sixth issue of academic year 2015 2016 Facts and Norms in Law Sanne Taekema,Bart van Klink,Wouter de Been,2016-07-27 Facts and Norms in Law Interdisciplinary Reflections on Legal Method presents an innovative collection of essays on the relationship between descriptive and normative elements in legal inquiry and legal practice What role does empirical data play in law New insights in philosophy the social sciences and the humanities have forced the relationship between facts and norms on to the agenda especially for legal scholars doing interdisciplinary work This timely volume carefully combines critical perspectives from a range of different disciplinary traditions and theoretical positions Value and Context Alan Thomas,2006-07-27 Alan Thomas presents an original study of the status of value and its relation to the contexts in which evaluative claims are justified He articulates and defends the view that human beings do possess moral and political knowledge but that it is historically and culturally contextual knowledge in ways that say mathematical or chemical knowledge is not His exposition of a cognitivist contextualism in ethics and politics builds upon contemporary work in epistemology moral philosophy and political theory to fashion an argument that is relevant to current debates about culture modernity and relativism Philosophy in an Age of Science Hilary Putnam,2012-04-17 Hilary Putnam s unceasing self criticism has led to the frequent changes of mind he is famous for but his thinking is also marked by considerable continuity A simultaneous interest in science and ethics unusual in the current climate of contention has long characterized his thought In Philosophy in an Age of Science Putnam collects his papers for publication his first volume in almost two decades Mario De Caro and David Macarthur s introduction identifies central themes to help the reader negotiate between Putnam past and Putnam present his critique of logical positivism his enduring aspiration to be realist about rational normativity his anti essentialism about a range of central philosophical notions his reconciliation of the scientific worldview and the humanistic tradition and his movement from reductive scientific naturalism to liberal naturalism Putnam returns here to some of his first enthusiasms in philosophy such as logic mathematics and quantum mechanics The reader is given a glimpse too of ideas currently in development on the subject of perception Putnam s work contributing to a broad range of philosophical inquiry has been said to represent a history of recent philosophy in outline Here it also delineates a possible future Maurice Blondel on the Supernatural in Human Action Cathal Doherty,2017-03-20 How do sacraments differ from superstition For Enlightenment philosophers such as Kant both are merely natural actions claiming a supernatural effect an accusation that has long been ignored in Catholic theology In Maurice Blondel on the Supernatural in Human Action Sacrament and Superstition however Cathal Doherty SJ reverses this accusation through a theological appropriation of Blondel s philosophy of action arguing not only that sacraments have no

truck with superstition but that the Enlightened are themselves guilty of that which they most abhor superstitious action Doherty then uses Blondel's philosophical insights as a heuristic and corrective to putative sacramental theologies that would reduce the spiritual or supernatural efficacy of sacraments to the mere human effort of perception or symbolic interpretation

Objectively Engaged Journalism Stephen J.A. Ward, 2020-04-16 A timely call for a new ethic of journalism engagement for today's troubled media sphere Objectively Engaged Journalism argues that media should be neither neutral nor partisan but engaged in protecting egalitarian democracy It shows how journalists professional or citizen can be both objective in method and dedicated to improving a global public sphere toxic with disinformation fake news and extremism Drawing from history ethics and current media issues Stephen Ward rejects the ideals of neutrality and just the facts objectivity showing how they are based on invalid dualistic thinking with deep roots in Western culture He presents a theory of pragmatic objectivity and applies it to journalism Journalism's role in interpreting culture he argues needs a form of objectivity that embraces human strengths and limitations Defining responsible journalism as situated imperfect inquiry Objectively Engaged Journalism is one of the first systematic studies of the ethical foundations of engaged journalism for a media that is increasingly perspectival and embedded in society

Invention of Journalism Ethics Stephen J.A. Ward, 2005-02-08 Does objectivity in the news media exist In The Invention of Journalism Ethics Stephen Ward argues that given the current emphasis on interpretation analysis and perspective journalists and the public need a new theory of objectivity He explores the varied ethical assertions of journalists over the past few centuries focusing on the changing relationship between journalist and audience This historical analysis leads to an innovative theory of pragmatic objectivity that enables journalists and the public to recognize and avoid biased and unbalanced reporting Ward convincingly demonstrates that journalistic objectivity is not a set of absolute standards but the same fallible but reasonable objectivity used for making decisions in other professions and public institutions

Fictions of Fact and Value Michael LeMahieu, 2013-10 Fictions of Fact and Value looks at logical positivism's major influence on the development of postwar American fiction charting a literary and philosophical genealogy that has been absent from criticism on the American novel since 1945

Work Out Your Salvation D. Glenn Butner Jr., 2024-04-09 In Work Out Your Salvation D Glenn Butner Jr demonstrates that participation in markets forms our moral character perceptions actions and ideas Drawing on experimental economics and moral theology he argues that the nature of such formation varies based on the design of the market and our interactions within it How he asks does formation of the market relate to the formation of grace providence justification and sanctification Are these forces at war for our souls Through a detailed analysis of these three doctrines and the theology of common grace and concurrent divine human action Work Out Your Salvation argues that God can work through the social context of markets through human identity and through economic incentive structures to foster providentially the created basis for the supernatural gifts of justification and sanctification Careful and theologically guided participation in a market can by common grace provide the occasion for positive spiritual formation through concurrent divine action However such formation is not guaranteed Maladaptive practices ideas and identities can also be fostered by markets not oriented toward a supernatural end Butner provides detailed evidence backed by extensive experimental and empirical research as to which market practices allow Christians to work out their salvation Phil 2 12 and which practices resist such moral transformation Work Out Your Salvation undermines simplistic endorsements or rejections of capitalism in favor of more nuanced analysis and lays bare which features of markets make us better and which make us worse The End of Value-Free Economics Hilary Putnam, Vivian Walsh, 2012-03-15 This book brings together key players in the current debate on positive and normative science and philosophy and value judgements in economics Both editors have engaged in these debates throughout their careers from its early foundations Putnam as a doctoral student of Hans Reichenbach at UCLA and Walsh a junior member of Lord Robbins's department at the London School of Economics both in the early 1950s This book collects recent contributions from Martha Nussbaum Amartya Sen and Partha Dasgupta as well as a new chapter from the editors Guilt and Its Vicissitudes Judith M. Hughes, 2007-11-21 Guilt and Its Vicissitudes focuses on the way Melanie Klein and successive generations of her followers pursued and deepened Freud's project of explaining man's moral sense as a wholly natural phenomenon Natural Human Rights Michael Boylan, 2014-08-11 This timely book focuses on the history application and significance of human rights in the West and in China
